This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Pastoral Session adjourned on Friday, July 27. The Representative Session assembled on Monday, July 30, and concluded its business on Friday, August 3. The Pastoral Session was resumed, and completed its business on Wednesday, August 8. At the end of each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the following pages, the business which belongs to the Pastoral Session is placed first; that belonging to the Representative Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to be present, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen see Appendix I.

Q. V. What Supernumeraries now return to the Full Work?

A. In Great Britain,

William Arthur Bird, William Newby,
J. Surman Cooke, William Oldfield.

Q. VI. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, twenty-eight:

(1) EDWARD DODDS: born at Etherley, co. Durham, June 9, 1837. His father was a valued local preacher in the Bishop Auckland Circuit. The religion practised in the home ruled the boy's life. At the age of fifteen he gave his heart to Christ, and specially devoted himself to Sunday-school work. One year later he began to preach, and the Conference of 1858 accepted him as a Candidate for the Ministry. After two years at Richmond College he began his work at Okehampton, and fulfilled a course of thirty-nine years as a Circuit Minister. He had the joy of persuading many to submit themselves to Christ, especially in Devon and Cornwall; but in every Circuit he did the work of an Evangelist, and his memory is blessed by many. He loved preaching, for which he made diligent preparation. His sermons were deeply spiritual, his delivery fluent and forceful. Spiritual insight guided his application of the truth to the needs of the congregation, and he constantly urged the duty of obeying the truth as well as receiving it. He watched the details of our organised Church life with patient care and with a grave sense of responsibility. His temperament was calm and judicial; his self-control carried him through difficulties of Circuit administration without losing a friend or making an enemy; he was never surprised into ungenerous speech. Beneath his calmness and modesty there lay a courage born of conviction, ever ready to sustain him at the call of duty, from which he never shrank. As a pastor he was much beloved, his sympathy and kindliness making him a welcome visitor in the houses of the people. The last weeks of his ministry are especially remembered. There was a quickened interest in his message, he was more acutely sensitive to the realities of life and destiny, and stirring thoughts fell from his lips. Smitten with mortal illness early in July, 1899, he went to his brother's home in Etherley, and there sank into utter weariness and exhaustion. His last message was: "Give my love to all at Burslem. Tell them that the word I have preached to them I now find to be a great comfort and support. God is very near. He upholds me; He comforts me. Jesus is very precious." On August 11, 1899, he passed home, and on the thirty-third anniversary of his marriage he was laid to rest in the quiet of Etherley Churchyard, hard by the house in which he was born.

(2) THOMAS H. WHITAMORE: born at Stony Stratford, January 19, 1846. He was brought up in connexion with the Church of England, but at the age of sixteen accepted an invitation to a service at a village Wesleyan chapel. Here he was converted to God, and forthwith joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church and found work in the Sunday school. He was a Candidate for the Ministry in 1870, and, after three years at Headingley College and seven in Circuit work in England, spent ten years in India. There he ministered with great acceptance to English congregations in Calcutta and Madras. His memory is cherished by many soldiers and sailors, also by young Englishmen in the Government service and in business occupations, who learnt to appreciate his frank and kindly character, his faithfulness and worth. As a Missionary he was enthusiastic in his affection for the work, and the natives could truly say of him, "He loveth our nation." On returning to England he laboured in the Wolverhampton (Darlington Street) and Bromley Circuits. He had an attractive manner, and his preaching was earnest and evangelical, often reflecting his lively interest in the prominent questions of the hour; whilst his insight into human nature and his ability in scriptural exposition made his ministry helpful to the spiritual life of his hearers. He was a true pastor, the unfailing friend of the sick, the sorrowful, and the poor. His genial disposition, frank goodwill, and ready sympathy made his visits a cherished memory in many homes. He was appointed by the Conference of 1899 to the Rochdale (Union Street) Circuit. A fatal disease, which for some time he had borne with silent bravery, had by this time laid him low; yet he continued hopeful. From his sick-bed, when he could no longer write, he sent a cordial message to the minister with whom he was expecting to labour. "Tell him," he said, "I will be the best colleague he ever had." But his service on earth was finished. As the end drew near he became radiantly happy. He testified that "underneath are the everlasting arms," and told his weeping wife that he could shout for praise at God's goodness to him. On August 24, 1899, after much suffering, patiently and manfully endured, he passed through death into the better life.

(3) THOMAS W. JOHNSTONE: born January 11, 1844, at Borrowash, Derbyshire. Reared in a Christian home, he owed his early conversion, through the grace of God, to the influence of his godly mother. When thirteen years of age he united himself to the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and at eighteen became an accredited local preacher. Two years later he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. As a preacher he sought out and set in order acceptable words, being logical in thought and persuasive in speech. He earnestly sought to convince and save his hearers, with results that will be the crown of his rejoicing in the Great Day.

He was a strong man—courageous and strenuous. He early became a Superintendent, and his wise and careful administration is gratefully remembered. He was brotherly, generous-hearted, and guileless, rejoicing in the sympathy and kindness of his friends. In 1896 he was for a short time laid aside by a slight seizure and never recovered his former vigour. While staying at Ambleside he had a more serious attack. He returned home, and while quietly resting in his room another seizure was followed by unconsciousness: in a few hours he passed into the presence of his Lord, on September 19, 1899, in the fifty-fifth year of his age and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(4) Joseph Challoner Harrop: born at Frodsham, May 21, 1843. The child of godly parents, he was at an early age led to Christ, and soon proved useful as a Sunday-school teacher and local preacher. In 1866 he became a Candidate for the Ministry, and was sent to Didsbury, where he spent three happy years. He was an amiable colleague, and possessed considerable pulpit ability. In his later years trouble undermined his health. He struggled hard to do his work; but at the Conference of 1899 it was necessary for him to become a Supernumerary, and he retired to Castletown, hoping that rest and genial air might restore his strength. His hopes, however, were not realised, and after six months of much suffering he fell asleep on September 25, 1899.

(5) Henry Sumpter Barton, son of the Rev. William Barton: born in Leeds, March 28, 1836. He was accepted as a Probationer in 1860, and sent immediately into Circuit work. At the Conference of 1864 he was ordained and appointed to Natal. Whilst at Healdtown he was Governor of the Training Institution for Native Teachers and Preachers, and when at Durban he was Secretary of the Natal District. In 1880 he was made Chairman of the Kimberley and Bloemfontein District. After occupying this position for four years he was obliged, owing to the failure of his wife's health, to return to England. He travelled in several English Circuits, and at the Conference of 1899 was appointed to Biggleswade, where he laboured four weeks and was then suddenly called home. By his death Methodism has lost a devoted minister. He thought no sacrifice too great, no labour too arduous. His character was such as to command the respect of all who knew him. As a pastor he excelled. He was a kind and considerate colleague, and as a preacher he was earnest and faithful. He died on September 28, 1899, in the sixty-third year of his age and the fortieth of his ministry.

(6) JOSEPH CHARLESWORTH: born in the year 1841. He was converted in early youth, and became a member of our Church at Carver Street, Sheffield. At the age of twenty-two he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and went for a short time to Didsbury College. Unselfish and generous, he was an excellent colleague. He delighted to recognise goodness wherever it was found. Whilst thoroughly loyal to his own Church, he maintained an extensive friendship and correspondence with ministers and members of other Churches. An enthusiastic lover of books, his reading covered a considerable range of subjects. He was versed in the old Puritan theology, yet he took an eager interest in modern religious thought. His mind was richly furnished for the work of preaching, and in that work he found his chief enjoyment. His style was chaste, his delivery forceful, and his manner impressive. His appeals to the conscience were powerful. His ministry was fruitful in the conversion of sinners and the building up of believers. As a pastor his visits to the homes of our people were greatly appreciated and blessed. He had a bright and genial spirit, and his friendship was highly prized, most of all by those who knew him best. The end came suddenly, but found him as "one who waits for his Lord." He fell asleep on the evening of September 30, 1899.

(7) EDWARD D. WEBB: born in Birmingham in the year 1828. He had few religious advantages in early life. As he grew up he attended various places of worship, but settled in none. At the age of nineteen he was deeply convinced of sin through the preaching of the late James Caughey. He then joined our Church and delighted much in its means of grace. Soon after his conversion he began to preach, and it became evident that his goodness and gifts fitted him for the work of the Ministry. He was received as a Candidate in the year 1851. After a three years' course at Richmond College, he was sent as a Missionary to British Honduras. Though the work was at first very trying to his health, he laboured most earnestly, caring for the souls and the bodies of men, sometimes nursing the sick and suffering in his own house. After fourteen years of self-denying and successful work in the Mission-field, he returned to England and continued his ministry till 1895. In that year he became a Supernumerary, and resided in the Ilkeston Circuit. He was a diligent and conscientious pastor, ever sympathising with the suffering and the needy. His sermons were carefully prepared and delivered with much animation. He was never so happy as when preaching that gospel which had been "the power of God" unto his own salvation. He was highly esteemed for his personal character as well as for his work. Whilst strictly loyal to his own Church, he was truly catholic in spirit. His devotion to God's cause continued to the end. He was, above all things, "a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith." After a brief illness he entered into life on October 2, 1899, in the seventy-second year of his age and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

(8) SAMUEL PARRY JONES: born at Gwespyr, Flintshire, in 1850. He was converted to God in early life, became a member of Society, and entered heartily into all the activities of the Church. In 1873 he began to preach, and it was evident from the commencement that he was specially gifted for the work. At the Conference of 1876 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and was forthwith appointed to a Circuit. He now applied himself earnestly to reading and study. His mental abilities were of a high order, his sermons being marked by freshness and originality. His preaching was interesting and edifying, and he never failed to magnify the grace of God. He loved his work exceedingly, but was repeatedly laid aside through ill health. He bore this great trial with resignation and humility. At the last Conference he became a Supernumerary, and passed the few remaining weeks of his life at Mold in great affliction and distress. A short time, however, before his departure the dark clouds rolled away and the glory of heaven seemed to shine upon him in such a manner as to astonish all who were present. His end was not merely peace, it was triumphant joy, the shadow of death vanishing and the light of the everlasting day filling his soul. He thus passed away on October 19, 1899, in the forty-ninth year of his age and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(9) WILLIAM TALBOT: born of Methodist parentage on October 22, 1829. He early became a preacher of the gospel, and began his public ministry in the East. Some educational experience determined his appointment to Jaffna, where he took charge of the High School. To this institution he devoted the first five years of his missionary life. He was a good pastor who sought the conversion of the souls of his charge. He was a man of considerable ability and a generally acceptable preacher. He made a study of Methodism, and proved a capable administrator. Some of his Circuits were very laborious; but though weak in health he was strong in resolution. At the last Conference he became a Supernumerary, a step which he might well have taken some time previously. After suffering much for many weeks, he died in great peace on his seventieth birthday, October 22, 1899.

(10) WILLIAM BARROWCLOUGH: born at Mirfield in 1827. Very early in life his spirit rejoiced in God his Saviour. Under the influence of divine grace personal gifts of a rare order rapidly developed. A class-leader at sixteen, a local preacher soon after that age, and eventually a minister of the gospel for nearly fifty years, the service of Christ filled his earthly career. After a successful course at Didsbury College, where the foundations of a devout culture were laid, he entered upon the active work of the Ministry in the year 1853. He soon proved himself, what alone he aspired to be, an able minister of the New Testament. Though in every sense a true pastor, it was in the pulpit and the Bible-class that his influence was most powerful. His utterances were characterised by fidelity to truth and a fearless, manly style of expression. A staunch Protestant, he was careful to instruct his people in the distinctive tenets of the Reformed Faith. This, among other qualities, rendered his discourses specially acceptable in Scotland, where he spent many happy years. His work was often done amid heavy trials and serious disadvantages, but he was enabled by divine help to maintain the struggle with heroism and success. His teaching and influence among the young proved powerful and abiding. His later days were in perfect keeping with the whole tenor of his life. Called to endure much physical pain, he was enabled to bear it patiently. His intense love for the word of God prevailed to the end. He often asked that passages might be read to him from the epistles of St. John. Amongst his last words were these: "We shall see Him as He is." "As for death," he added, "I am no more afraid of it than of going to sleep." At length the welcome summons came, and the servant of God entered into rest on November 6, 1899, in the seventy-second year of his life and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(11) JOSEPH BENSON BLANCH: born at Bisley on the Cotswolds, April 6, 1834. In his home the best traditions of early Methodism were reverently cherished, and his father was a local preacher of great usefulness for nearly seventy years. The grace and power of the gospel were never unfamiliar to him; but while at school at Windsor the day of conscious salvation came, and henceforth he lived in the light. At Northampton, where he was a tutor in a Methodist school, he began to preach, and after a term of service as a master at Woodhouse Grove School was accepted as a Candidate by the Conference in 1859. For thirty years, with the exception of a short interval of enfeebled health, he continued in active work, putting his best strength into all that he did. In his Circuits he was much esteemed and beloved. Never possessing much physical vigour, he was able to take little part in public services during the period of his retirement. He lost, however, none of his interest in the work of God, and his acuteness and freshness of thought in no degree abated. In his early years he came into contact with some of the leaders of the Oxford Movement, and this gave colour and direction in some respects to his after thought and reading; but his grasp of New Testament principles was unshaken, and his loyalty to them whole-hearted. He possessed good abilities, was a diligent student, and an effective preacher. In his pastoral work he was tender, sympathetic, and faithful. His genial cheerfulness attracted young and old. His name will be long fragrant in the Circuits in which he laboured. Those who knew him best valued most his unselfish interest in the welfare of others, his large and loving tolerance, and his unwavering devotion to whatsoever things were Christlike. In great peace he passed away at Penarth, November 29, 1899.

(12) URIAH BUTTERS: born at Hibaldstow, Lincolnshire, in 1811. Whilst still a youth he was spiritually enlightened, and received his first ticket of Church membership in his father's class. In 1836 he entered the Ministry. He was a man of sterling worth—somewhat blunt in manner and speech, but kind and true of heart. He travelled in many of the wider Circuits, and did much laborious work in connexion with the Church to which he was devotedly attached. His preaching was evangelistic, earnest, easy to be understood, and was often followed by blessed results. After being in full Circuit work for forty-five years he became a Supernumerary in 1881, eventually settling at Beverley. For some years he was unable to take any public work, but continued to the end to interest himself in the progress of Christ's kingdom. He passed peacefully away on December 8, 1899, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

(13) JOSIAH GOODACRE: born at Sewstern, Leicestershire, September 21, 1840. He was of Methodist parentage, and early decided for God. At the age of sixteen he commenced his life's work, preaching at cottage services and in village chapels. When twenty years old he was accepted as a Probationer for the Ministry, and received his first appointment in 1861. In his early years he gave promise of conspicuous success and usefulness. He was an eloquent and powerful preacher. For ten years his life was clouded by painful affliction, which necessitated his temporary retirement. He resumed his active ministry in 1892. At the Conference of 1898 he was appointed to Witney. To his colleagues he was genial and affectionate; he paid deference to the aged and to those in office; he was kind and courteous, and gained the respect of all classes and of all Churches. His death was sudden and unexpected. On Sunday, December 10, 1899, he preached three times in distant parts of the Circuit. His evening text was, "Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord"; and he spoke with evident feeling on readiness for the Lord's coming. The next morning at the preachers' meeting he prayed earnestly, with much fervour thanking God for the joy of His service. An hour after this he was stricken with the illness which the same day terminated fatally. He "ceased at once to work and live."

(14) THOMAS TRETHEWEY: born at Launceston, 1829, and died at Sticklepath, December 17, 1899. He was a true son of the manse, his father being the Rev. Humphrey B. Trethewey, and his grandfather the Rev. Thomas Trethewey, one of the last Ministers sent out by Wesley. Educated at Old Kingswood School, he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1850, and was sent in the following year to Didsbury College. In 1854 he commenced his itinerancy at Camelford, and continued in the active work till 1887, when he became a Supernumerary. In all his Circuits he was highly esteemed for his character and work's sake. He was a man of noble bearing and presence, tender, genial, sympathetic, retiring, a diligent student and pastor, and an able administrator. His best work, however, was done in the pulpit. He was an expository preacher; and his sermons, enriched with true scholarship and delivered in terse, strong English, were often accompanied by great power. Many are the seals to his ministry, notably in the Southend and Leigh Circuit, where he witnessed a wonderful revival amongst the fishermen. He was assiduous in pastoral visitation and found much joy in this work. His private conversations, like his public discourses, were rich in scriptural truth. During the twelve years of his retirement he preached regularly, winning the esteem and affection of all. The depth of his piety and the tenderness of his sympathetic nature were nowhere seen more clearly than in his beautiful home life. The end came suddenly from a stroke of apoplexy, and he quietly exchanged mortality for life.

(15) JOHN DANKS. This veteran servant of Christ passed to his reward at Glastonbury, on January 1, 1900, in the eighty-second year of his age and fifty-seventh of his ministry. He was born in Edinburgh, December 3, 1818, of Methodist parentage, his father being for thirty years Superintendent of the Nicolson Square Sunday School. He entered the Ministry in 1843, and for forty years laboured with much earnestness.

An extensive reader, a deep thinker, and a careful student, he took the greatest pains in preparation for the pulpit. He passed through troublous times in the early years of his itinerancy. Life for him had its conflicts; but whilst these tested his character they proved how thorough was his devotion. His whole life bore the mark of deep piety and intimate communion with God. He became a Supernumerary at the Conference of 1883, but continued his loved work of preaching Christ and Him crucified, first at Dunbar and then at Romford, until 1893, when he removed to the Glastonbury Circuit, where the services he rendered are lovingly remembered by many friends. His last illness was severe though brief, the pain at times being intense; but his faith in God never wavered. When nearing the end, he wished his children to sing his favourite hymn, "Jesu, Lover of my soul." He heartily joined so far as his strength would permit, and more than once in triumphant ecstasy exclaimed, "Jesus! Hallelujah! Heaven!" So this faithful servant of the Lord changed mortality for life. Few have known a life more pure, a spirit more unselfish, or a death more triumphant.

(16) WALTER COATES: born in 1811 at Youlgrave, in Derbyshire. He came of godly parentage, his religious training being in connexion with the Established Church, in which his father was churchwarden. While still a youth, however, he was brought under Methodist influence and converted to God. In the town of Derby business proposals of a very favourable kind were made to him, but after consulting his minister, his own conviction of the purpose of God compelled him to offer himself for the Ministry, for which he was accepted in the year 1838. He laboured with much success in nineteen Circuits, his efforts being blessed, not only to the material extension of the work under his hand, but also to the bringing of many souls to God. In old age he was cheered by hearing of some who were converted under his early ministry who still stood fast in the faith. During his long retirement in the Stoke Newington and Tottenham Circuits he employed himself as far as possible in good works, and endeared himself to those among whom he dwelt. He joined eagerly in public worship, and in private spent most of his time in the study of the Bible. On the day of his departure he asked for the sacred word, and evidently entered into the spirit of Psalms xxiii. and cxxi., which were read to him by members of the family. He passed peacefully away in his eighty-eighth year on January 5, 1900.

(17) DAVID WILLIAMS (A): born at "The Forrest," near Oswestry, February 27, 1832. He was trained in the Anglican Church, and remained therein until his conversion. In 1852 he arranged to accompany some friends to a large fair. In the morning of the appointed day, however, he had a serious conversation with a friend who had long been anxious for his conversion, with the result that he stayed at home, deeply convinced of his sin and of his need of salvation. He was guided to the scripture, "The just shall live by faith." In the evening after prolonged conversation and prayer he gave himself to Christ. He immediately joined a Methodist class and showed intense religious earnestness. He was soon called to preach, and became a Candidate in 1856, being accepted for immediate work. His earlier ministry was exercised chiefly in Yorkshire, where he was known as an earnest evangelistic preacher, able to arouse and win souls for Christ. His ministrations were invariably marked with great seriousness. He had a lively imagination, graphic descriptive power, was apt in illustration, forcible in appeal, and his ministry was fruitful in conversions. In pastoral visitation, especially among the poor, aged, and sick, he delighted. His colleagues found him brotherly and sympathetic. Owing to physical infirmity he retired from the active work in 1892, settling first at Wainfleet and later near Yoxford. His closing years were saddened by many sorrowful experiences, but through all his hope and confidence in God were unshaken. After the death of his wife in January, 1899, he earnestly longed for the end, and repeatedly exclaimed, "I shall be very glad to lie down and rest." This wish was almost literally fulfilled. On January 6, 1900, in the sixty-seventh year of his age and the forty-fourth of his ministry, he retired to rest early, rapidly sank, and that same evening without struggle or pain fell asleep in Jesus.

(18) JOHN GILBERT ROGERS: born in London, July 21, 1847, and baptized in Wesley's Chapel. His parents being devoted Methodists, he was reared in the atmosphere of a Christian home and in the fellowship of the class-meeting. The grace that dwelt in his mother and his grandmother was soon manifest in him, and before he was twelve years of age he was truly converted. While very young he began to engage in Christian work. Men soon saw the seal of God upon him. He entered our Ministry in 1868. In 1880 being physically disabled he retired to Stourbridge and rested until 1889, when he removed to Stockport, where he remained to the end. His brief, active ministry was full of power. Whilst perfectly fearless in the discharge of his ministry, he was yet greatly beloved. His spirit glowed with an intense passion for saving souls, and not in vain. His ministry was welcomed by all. A careful student, a diligent pastor, a powerful preacher, for twelve years he successfully served, for twenty years he patiently suffered. Notwithstanding his almost complete paralysis of body, he was nearly always bright and cheerful. The fruit of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, longsuffering—continued to grow to the last. In this and in heroic endurance and complete submission and trust he glorified God. On January 2 he privately joined in part of the Covenant Service, and sealed it in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Death drew near unnoticed. He was ready—had long been waiting. On January 7, the first Lord's Day of the year 1900, he fell on sleep, in the fifty-third year of his age and the thirty-second of his ministry.

(19) JAMES HALL CUMMINGS: born at Thetford on February 9, 1831. The Christian influences of his home life, and in particular the holy example and earnest prayers of his father, resulted in his conversion in his eighteenth year. He very soon began to preach, and in 1855 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After three years at Richmond College he sailed for India, where he laboured as an earnest Christian Missionary for about eleven years. Although most of his time was given to evangelizing the native population, he also did valuable work among the English residents, and especially among the soldiers at Bangalore, with whom he was exceedingly popular. The Indian climate and his incessant toil (he took only three months' rest in the eleven years) at last told upon him, and in order to avoid a breakdown in health he was obliged to leave India in the year 1869. For the following twenty-four years he laboured in home Circuits, in all of which he was sincerely esteemed and loved. His colleagues knew him as a man of a frank, generous, and brotherly spirit, and his people as an enthusiastic and indefatigable worker who never spared himself in his Master's service. As a Superintendent he was painstaking and conscientious, and was a loving, wise, and diligent pastor. His simple, fervent, evangelistic preaching was always acceptable, whilst his power in prayer was a special gift and was the best expression of a sincere and deeply devout spirit. In 1893, soon after his appointment to Gainsborough, his health began to fail; and although he tried for some time to take light duties as a Supernumerary at Lambeth, he was soon obliged to give up all work. The last five years of his life were spent at East Finchley in great and ever-increasing weakness and pain. The enforced inactivity, though bravely borne, was a sore trial to one naturally so energetic; for although crippled in body, he remained as clear and active in mind as ever, and to the last took a keen interest in Methodist affairs. He was mercifully released from further suffering on January 8, 1900, when he peacefully departed "to be with Christ."

(20) JOHN ROWLANDS (B): born at Cnwch Coch, Cardiganshire, April 1, 1859. He was of Methodist parentage, and was from childhood trained in the fear of God. In 1883 he was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry. After three successful years at Handsworth College he was sent to Circuit work in South Wales, where he spent the rest of his brief but laborious life. He was a man of sterling character, constantly striving after a high ideal in spiritual life. He was a diligent student of the word of God, his preaching being practical, earnest, and effective. In his work generally he was diligent and conscientious, performing the least part with as much faithfulness as the greatest. In the homes of the people he was welcome, and by his simple and kindly ways endeared himself especially to the young. After a week's illness, during which he manifested great trustfulness, fortitude, and resignation, he "fell on sleep," January 17, 1900, in the forty-first year of his age and the fourteenth of his ministry.

(21) JOHN CONNON: born at Aberdeen, October 15, 1812. He was a Methodist of the third generation, his grandfather and grandmother being members of the Society in Wesley's time. He thankfully acknowledged that the religious training he received in an eminently bright and godly home was a lifelong inspiration and blessing. He definitely decided for Christ when he was eighteen years of age. The thoroughness of his conversion soon became manifest in the whole-hearted manner in which, regardless of weather or long journeys, he threw himself into all kinds of Christian work. Educated at the ancient university of Aberdeen, a diligent student of the Bible from childhood, possessing much force of character and a passionate desire to be useful, he was well equipped for his life's work. He entered the Ministry in the year 1835, and laboured hard and well for forty-four years, and for the most part in Circuits that made heavy demands upon both his physical and mental powers. As a Circuit Minister and Superintendent he was highly successful, very soon winning, and never failing to retain, the confidence and affection of the people to whom he ministered, and also of his colleagues. His sermons—mainly on doctrinal and experimental themes—were well thought out and effectively delivered. As a pastor he was diligent and conscientious. His natural buoyancy of temperament and ready sympathy made his visits specially welcome and helpful. Outside his own particular sphere he was a keen observer of all movements, whether intellectual, moral, or social; and he kept himself well abreast of present-day thought and literature. At the Conference of 1879 he retired from Circuit work and settled at Swadlincote. For some years he preached twice every Sunday; and the good work he did in raising money for religious purposes and in other ways will never be forgotten. During his later years he was unable to preach, yet up to the very last he occasionally took part in public meetings, and, considering his great age, spoke with wonderful pathos and power. His old age was exceedingly attractive. Young in heart, alert, enthusiastic, he was revered and loved by all who knew him. His death was somewhat sudden, but he was prepared. This venerable servant of God "entered into life" on March 2, 1900, in the eighty-eighth year of his age and the sixty-fifth of his ministry.

(22) SAMUEL ATKINSON, M.A.: born at Carlisle on June 17, 1825. A son of Wesleyan parents, his character as a boy was largely moulded by the retiring but deep piety of his mother and the religious earnestness of his father, who was a leader and local preacher. It was in a class-meeting away from home, at the age of twenty, that he was converted. The first deep, abiding impression of his renewed heart was that he must preach the gospel. Obeying the call of the Spirit and of the Church he became a local preacher, and in 1848 entered the Ministry. A happy term of three years at Didsbury College was followed by forty-two years of successful Circuit work.

He was a diligent student, a racy, earnest, practical preacher, a good pastor, an efficient Superintendent, a brotherly colleague, and all his work manifested the spirit of an "ambassador for Christ." Interest in young men was one of the outstanding features of his ministry. To the last he had "a young heart." He was a man of catholic spirit, and alert in regard to the broader interests of life. Subject at times to depression, his deportment was notwithstanding almost invariably cheerful. He always seemed to be thinking of others, never of himself. On becoming a Supernumerary in 1893 he settled at Portland amongst old friends, by whom he was much respected, and where, on March 9, 1900, at the age of seventy-four he was called home to God.

(23) ALFRED BERESFORD: born at Belper, July 7, 1828. His father and mother were Methodists, and in his youth he was converted to God. In due time he began to preach, and in 1852 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After travelling thirty-one years his health failed, and for four years he was a Supernumerary. From 1887 to 1891 he was again in the full work, when he retired finally, settling in his native Circuit. As a preacher he was evangelical and sympathetic. His public prayers were devout and refreshing. His ministry was eminently serviceable to the suffering, and, like his Master, he sought "to comfort all that mourn." His visits to the homes of our people were greatly prized. He was a son of consolation, and many recall with loving gratitude his ministry to them in times of trouble and adversity. He was of a singularly gentle and sensitive spirit, richly endued with the charity that "thinketh no evil, envieth not, but rejoiceth in the truth." Intelligently and ardently attached to Wesleyan Methodism, his services were cheerfully placed at the disposal of his Church. Trusting in that Saviour whom it had long been his joy to preach, he died on March 13, 1900, in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(24) JOHN M. PILTER entered into rest March 31, 1900, in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the forty-fourth of his ministry. He was the son of the Rev. Robert Pilter, and belonged to a Huguenot family called Pelletier, who settled at Robin Hood's Bay after the Edict of Nantes. For several years he lived in France and devoted himself to commerce. He said little about his spiritual experience, but the change which divine grace had wrought in him was evidenced by his Christlike life. Feeling deeply his call to the Christian ministry, he refused the offer of a partnership in business, and, as he put it, "gave up the prospect of being a rich man to become a poor Methodist preacher." He was widely read, had fine literary and artistic tastes, and was a lover of all things beautiful in nature and character. An independent thinker himself, he was tolerant of the opinions of others. He was always the Christian gentleman, welcomed alike in the cottages of the poor and the homes of the rich; a good preacher, an effective platform speaker, and a diligent pastor. While frank and open-hearted he was modest and retiring, often selecting less prominent positions than those which he was invited to occupy. He was greatly beloved in all his Circuits, especially by the young, and he cared for every part of the work of God. His chivalrous devotion to his aged mother and delicate sisters was truly beautiful. He hated hollow pretensions and loved reality. As he approached his end he was very bright, repeating with emphasis the stanza, "Lord, I believe a rest remains." Paralysis had greatly weakened him; but clear-minded to the last, expressions occasionally fell from his lips which told of his faith and hope, his peace and joy in Christ, and of the unbounded confidence in the gospel he had preached. While his position was being changed to give him greater ease, his heart ceased to beat, and he gently passed into higher service for ever.

(25) EDWARD JEWITT ROBINSON, son of the Rev. Samuel Robinson, Wesleyan Minister, was born at Camelford, August 7, 1821, and died at Weston-super-Mare, May 2, 1900. Home influence, and especially his mother's wise and godly counsel, led to his early consecration to God. Of this period of his life he wrote in later years: "No longing for worldly society tempted me. My delight was to lift up my heart and look for God's blessing in the midst of religious people." Having been educated at Kingswood, he was trained for the medical profession; and although of an unusually retiring and sensitive disposition, he was impelled by the strength of his convictions to offer himself for the work of the Ministry. He entered Richmond College in 1844, and for more than half a century gave full proof of his ministry both on the Mission-field and in English Circuits. His mind was cultured and well furnished, his literary and pulpit work being marked by exact knowledge and elegance of style. During his ministry in Ceylon he closely studied the great religious systems of the East, and acquired a profound knowledge of Oriental thought and philosophy. His contributions to our literature were numerous and valuable. His preaching was a lucid, faithful, and affectionate setting forth of scriptural truth, his sermons being delivered with eloquence and power, his excessively sensitive temperament alone preventing his wider fame and usefulness. His indignation was easily aroused in the presence of intolerance, injustice, or irreverence; but he was a man of deep sympathy and genuine kindness of heart, notwithstanding an occasional keenness of speech. He was stricken with paralysis during his last year at Runcorn; and although he was able to continue his work for some years in comparative retirement, an attack of pneumonia somewhat suddenly brought to a close a life of devoted service. Immediately before his death he exclaimed:

> O could I catch one smile from Thee,
> And drop into eternity!

(26) JOSEPH DYSON: born at Thurgoland on January 14, 1828. He was brought to decision for God under the preaching of James Caughey, the American evangelist, and being accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1852, was sent the same year to Higham Ferrers. His subsequent appointments cover a period of forty years spent in the active work of the Ministry, from which he retired at the Conference of 1893. The remainder of his days were spent at Ranmoor, in the Carver Street Circuit, Sheffield, in connexion with which cause and throughout the Circuit he continued to render valuable service, both as leader and preacher, almost to the close of his life. His ministry was marked by simplicity and earnestness. He emphasised and made prominent in the pulpit the great themes of the gospel, and he himself was often powerfully and visibly affected by the message, as were many of his hearers. He was a godly man, a plain and earnest preacher, a faithful pastor, a wise administrator, a firm believer in Methodism and its mission, content to advance the cause of God by a consistent life, faithful preaching, and pastoral care. The last few months of his life were overshadowed by sickness and pain, borne with characteristic cheerfulness and patience. Recovering somewhat, and deeming himself sufficiently strong, he attended the first day's meeting of the Synod at Carver Street. The exertion was evidently too great. He retired to rest as usual; but during the night, without a struggle of any kind, and with nothing to mark the moment of its flight, his spirit passed away on May 16, 1900.

(27) THOMAS MILBURN RODHAM: born December 7, 1813. His parents were members of the Established Church and strongly prejudiced against Methodism; but their son in his youth found Christ among the Methodists, and offered himself as a Candidate for our Ministry. He was accepted in 1836, and spent forty-two years in the full work and twenty-two years as a Supernumerary. As a Circuit Minister he displayed marked integrity and sincerity of purpose. He devoted himself thoroughly to his work. His ministry was held in much esteem, and he is still gratefully remembered by the Circuits in which he travelled. His preaching was sound, evangelical, earnest, and effective; his administration firm, judicious, kindly, and conciliatory. As a colleague he was faithful and considerate. To his own Church he was intensely loyal, while toward other denominations he was of a liberal and catholic mind. A certain reserve marked his general intercourse, but this arose out of a natural diffidence. His unobtrusiveness of disposition was not perhaps always rightly appreciated, but he was loved and revered by those who knew him best. The last eight years of his life were shadowed by painful personal affliction and by bereavement. His suffering was sometimes acute, but he bore his burden with noble Christian fortitude. His mind retained its clearness and his heart its warmth, whilst his interest in all that related to the movements and prosperity of Methodism remained unabated to the last. He entered into welcome rest at Cockermouth on June 11, 1900.

(28) JOHN BENNEWORTH: born in 1852, in the county of Essex. As a boy he attended the services of the Church of England, but was converted among the Primitive Methodists. He became a zealous Christian worker, and at sixteen years of age began to preach. Received into our Ministry in 1877, he fulfilled his course for twenty-three years with unremitting fidelity and increasing acceptance. Every branch of ministerial duty received careful attention. He was an excellent preacher, a diligent pastor, a generous friend to the poor, a light and leader to the young, and a comforter to the sorrowing. His preaching was evangelical in doctrine and spirit, was marked by originality, vigour, and raciness, and addressed to the needs, temptations, and duties of the present day. A man of strong convictions, he spoke the truth fearlessly, yet in love. As a colleague he was loyal and affectionate. His public speeches, pastoral visits, and friendly intercourse were like sunshine to the depressed and troubled. Hence the esteem and love with which he was everywhere regarded. At the Conference of 1898 he was appointed Superintendent of the Jarrow Circuit, and proved himself a capable administrator. Deeply attached to his own Church, he thoroughly believed in her traditions and institutions, maintaining her discipline firmly but kindly. Ministers and members of other Churches, both Anglican and Nonconformist, were attracted by his personality and rejoiced in his friendship and labours. His end was sudden and tragic. He was leaving home for the Lake district, but on arriving at the Jarrow station he dropped down on the platform and died in a few minutes. Speaking at Hebburn the previous evening, he had said: "When I have passed away, I only wish two words to be spoken of my death—'Gone home!'" He died within twelve hours of that service, on Wednesday, July 4, 1900, in the forty-ninth year of his age and the twenty-third of his ministry.

2. In Ireland, two :

(1) WILLIAM CHRISTIE: born at Barry, co. Longford, on August 25, 1825, and in the same place passed peacefully away on Sunday, January 14, 1900. The Circuit Ministers regularly visited his father's house, and under their preaching he was converted to God when seventeen years old. Soon afterwards feeling himself called to preach the gospel, he determined to obey. Strong pressure was brought to induce him to abandon the idea, but in vain, and accordingly he entered the Ministry in 1848, and after thirty-seven years of work, principally in Leinster, became a Supernumerary in 1885, settling down in his native place. He preached every Sunday to the end of his life. Naturally of a quiet, retiring disposition, only to the few who were privileged to enter the sacred circle of his friendship were his rare qualities of head and heart revealed. He was a diligent reader of Methodist and current literature, and to the last manifested great delight in the society of young people and a deep interest in everything that concerned their welfare. His style of preaching was expository, and he was in thorough sympathy with modern evangelistic effort. Modest to a fault, he could seldom be persuaded to take part in public meetings, though in every good work his wise counsel and practical sympathy could be thoroughly depended on. His last illness was brief. While in Dublin he caught a cold, which turned to acute bronchitis; and though feeling ill, he persisted in returning home. The journey proved too great a tax on the already enfeebled frame. He reached Barry on January 10 completely exhausted, and four days later fell into a quiet sleep, and without a struggle passed peacefully home, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(2) JAMES ELLIOTT: born at Agharoosky, co. Fermanagh, in 1825; received into the Ministry of the Primitive Wesleyan Conference in 1855, and finished his course at Drumbinisk, near Clones, on January 17, 1900. A man of singular simplicity of spirit, he was "an Israelite indeed, in whom was no guile." His walk with God was long, continuous, and close. He entered upon it early as the result of godly training. He immediately found himself compelled to seek the salvation of his neighbours and friends. He was so manifestly called of God to preach His word that he was in due time appointed a local preacher. In 1855 he became a Candidate for the Ministry, and was appointed to the Ballyjamesduff Circuit. He laboured for nearly forty-five years. He was appointed to travel and to superintend extensive Circuits, and did so with humble joy and fervent zeal. The fruit of his earnest ministry was manifold. Looking upon men as lost already, he urged them to accept the gospel message. As a pastor he was diligent, faithful, sympathetic, and kind. The affairs of his home and his Circuits he guided with marked discretion. Especially upon the eve and during the course of the "59 revival" God made him the father of many sons in the gospel. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1897, he took charge of the work at Ringsend, in the Sandymount Circuit, Dublin, where he was greatly beloved. Unselfish, modest, lowly, tender, he was nevertheless vehement in his hostility to sin. The end came suddenly. While away from home on a visit he was smitten with his last illness, which was very brief. In calm assurance, comforted by the presence of his affectionate children, he passed to be for ever with his Lord, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, ten:

(1) EDWIN GEDYE: born at Devonport, December 4, 1835. He was converted in early life, and began to preach at eighteen. In 1857 he entered the Ministry, and was one of a devoted band of young men who were sent to South Africa by our Missionary Society at the close of the year 1857. His first appointment was to the Transkei, where he laboured for many years. He soon obtained a mastery of the Kafir language, preaching in it with much acceptance. His thorough knowledge of the language and customs of the native tribes proved of great value to our Church during his long career. After a lengthened period of service in Kafirland, he came to the Colony for the education of his children, and was stationed at Peddie. After twenty years' labour he visited England, and on his return was appointed to Port Elizabeth and Cradock. He then returned to Peddie, where he commenced a Training Institution for Native Girls, in which work he was ably assisted by his devoted wife. In 1892 another trip to Europe became necessary, on account of disease contracted during arduous labours. The course of medical treatment, together with rest and change, benefited him greatly, so that on his return he was able to resume active work, and was stationed at Mount Coke, and afterwards at Lesseyton, at which place he had charge of the Theological Institution for the training of Native Candidates for our Ministry, and, with Mrs. Gedye, superintended the Training Institution for Native Girls, in both departments rendering very valuable service. Here he died in harness, after over forty years of faithful and devoted labours. A man of remarkable energy and resource, he never seemed tired of work. Wherever he was stationed he set about some fresh enterprise, and many visible results of his untiring efforts are to be found in the Circuits where he laboured. He was a good man and a devoted Missionary, his one aim being to glorify God and benefit those who were under his charge. The end came somewhat suddenly, though his health had been declining for years, and on Sunday, June 25, 1899, he passed peacefully away to his reward.

(2) JOHN PLANGE: the death of this venerable servant of Christ occurred at Accra, West Africa, on August 18, 1899. "Father" Plange, as he was familiarly called, was one of the oldest of the native Ministers in the Gold Coast District. He was born at Accra, October 17, 1820, in the days when, to use his own words, the dark clouds of heathenism and superstition hung like a pall over the Coast. It was not till he was seventeen years of age that he first heard the "glad tidings of great joy," through some Accra traders who reported what they had heard at Winnebah. The workings of the Spirit in the heart of young Plange and others led to their accepting Christ. Tidings came to the ears of the Missionary at Cape Coast Castle, who, in 1839, sent the Rev. John Martin to Accra as the first agent of the Wesleyan Missionary Society. A school was opened, and this John Plange attended. One Easter Sunday morning, while listening to a sermon, the peace of God took possession of his heart, and thenceforth life had a deeper meaning. He was placed in charge of various stations, and, having proved himself worthy, was, in 1856, accepted as a Minister, being ordained seven years afterwards by the Rev. William West. The Accra

Circuit is that with which he was most intimately connected. Varied were his experiences, hard and laborious oftentimes his position, discouraging and trying sometimes his work, but these things never destroyed his confidence in the righteousness of his cause or the ultimate triumph of the cross of Christ. In 1889 he became a Supernumerary, residing at Accra, where he continued to the last to render acceptable, though occasional, public service in addition to regularly meeting a large Society-class. Among his last words were, "Call all your brothers and sisters, and tell them to hold fast by God, whom I have held and still hold with strength and confidence." He passed to his rest, leaving behind him a testimony of faithful ministerial service, devotion to duty, and unselfish love. With him ended the line of the "Pioneer Methodist Fathers" of the Wesleyan Church on the Gold Coast, upon whom lay the burden of breaking up the fallow ground which has yielded abundant harvests in these latter days.

(3) CHARLES R. JOHNSON: was converted to God through the agency of the Salvation Army. Very shortly after his conversion he became an active member of our Church at West Hartlepool. Here he found a congenial sphere of labour among the young people of the Sunday school, and speedily formed a most successful Junior Society-class. His love for the children of our Church was characteristic of all his ministerial life. He was accepted by the Conference of 1888 as a Candidate for the Ministry, and during the three years spent at Richmond College proved a most painstaking student. He was loved and trusted by his fellows, and his entire influence on them was for good. He left behind him no memory of an unkind word or of an unworthy action. In 1891 he volunteered for service in West Africa, and in October of that year embarked for Lagos. With the exception of a few weeks' unavoidable detention at Cape Coast Castle, and a brief furlough in England, his probation was spent at Oyo, where he laboured with great faithfulness and success, discovering a special aptitude for influencing and guiding the people under his charge. Successive severe attacks of fever so impaired his health that in 1895 a somewhat prolonged stay in England was considered absolutely necessary. For this reason he was appointed to the Dursley Circuit. At the expiration of twelve months he once more volunteered for the Coast. Though again accepted by the Committee, a change in the appointment was almost immediately made, his services being requested by the British and Foreign Bible Society as General Agent for the West Coast, extending from the Gambia to the Congo, a distance of nearly three thousand miles. The appointment was originally regarded as only temporary; but his success was so great that the Committee of the Bible Society decided to arrange, if possible, for a permanent engagement. In September, 1899, the exigencies of our work at Cape Coast Castle took Mr. Johnson thither. Death had deprived the district of its Chairman, and the Bible Society had kindly given its sanction for their representative to temporarily fill the office. But he had scarcely accepted the additional responsibility when he was struck down with fever, and on October 4, 1899, his brave, gentle spirit passed away.

(4) CHÜ SAO NGAN: born in 1836 in the province of Nganhui, which about sixteen years later was involved in the ruin and misery brought about by the Taiping Rebellion. His father was a wealthy merchant and landowner, but at the close of the wars Chü Sao Ngan was the only member of the family left alive, and his inheritance consisted of a burnt homestead, wrecked business, and untilled fields, the very ownership of which was liable to dispute, as the deeds had all been destroyed. In 1861 the young man went to Hankow to see if he could restart the branch business established in that town by his father. That very year the port was opened to foreign trade and to Missionary evangelization. Dr. John, of the London Missionary Society, was the first to avail himself of this opportunity of preaching the gospel in regions beyond those where Christ had already been named. Amongst the earliest listeners and first attendants at Dr. John's Sunday services was Chû Sao Ngan, and on April 23, 1862, he was baptized—the first convert of Central, and indeed of Inland, China. Just about this time the Rev. Josiah Cox came to Hankow from Canton, and started the work of the Wesleyan Mission in the Wuchang District. By the kindness of Dr. John, Chû Sao Ngan was handed over to Mr. Cox's care, and taught him the Hankow dialect, being taught in turn more and more of the truths of our holy religion. His convictions of these truths were soon put to a severe test. In order to gain possession of his lands the help of the Nganhui Guild in Hankow was necessary. The authorities of the guild investigated his claim, and told him that it was clear, but that they refused to certify this officially except on condition of his abandonment of the "Foreign" religion. He boldly accepted the consequences of confessing Christ, and was thus early able to understand St. Paul, when he said, "I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord : for whom I suffered the loss of all things." He had from the first been accustomed to render help in the preaching services that are still happily a daily feature of Mission work in Central China. It was not long before he definitely resolved to give himself up to the work of the Ministry. During the past twenty-four years his ministry has been exercised chiefly in Wuchang itself, and the fruits of his labours are seen in the Church, which has grown in numbers and strength year by year. As a preacher he has no successor in the ranks of the native Church; his power of illustration especially was unrivalled. He made a wide and varied reading pay tribute to his congregations; Christian magazine or Confucian classic alike had to render up its store of things new and old to this wise householder, who verily had a treasury of such riches. He earned the unfeigned respect of his European colleagues by a blameless life and unimpeachable integrity. During his last illness, which was a lingering one, he received a visit from the Rev. Marshall Hartley, and in prayer completely broke down in his earnest desire that God would bless his native land by calling forth more preachers of the gospel. The end of his illness came unexpectedly on October 21, 1899.

(5) JAMES THOMPSON, M.A.: born in Ireland, December 16, 1843. He decided for Christ before he was sixteen years of age, and immediately commenced working for God as a Sunday-school teacher, being soon afterwards appointed a class-leader and local preacher. In 1865 he entered the Ministry, and laboured for seventeen years in his own country. At the Dublin University he took the degree of Bachelor of Arts with honours, gaining a moderatorship in Literature and Philosophy. Subsequently he took the degree of Master of Arts in the same university. In 1882 he went to South Africa. With unusual power and acceptance he fulfilled the duties of his ministry in the Queenstown, Cape-town, and Kimberley Circuits. He was a refined, eloquent, and forceful speaker, and possessed very markedly the pen of a ready writer. For five years in Ireland he was the editor of the Irish Evangelist, and his contributions to current literature were extensive and valuable. As a man he was affable, winsome, and affectionate, attracting to himself a large circle of friends, who were charmed and benefited by their intercourse with him; as a preacher he was clear, chaste, and instructive; as a Superintendent diligent, capable, and faithful; as a pastor kind and sympathetic; and as a colleague and brother minister beloved and trusted. He held a prominent position in the South African Church, serving the Conference for several years as one of its Secretaries, and his wisdom, experience, and counsel were exceedingly valuable.

He compiled, at the request of the Conference, "A Manual of the Laws and Discipline of the Church," a publication which reflected his accuracy in and wonderful capacity for work. He was twice President of the Conference, fulfilling the duties of the office with rare ability and success, while as Chairman of the Cape of Good Hope and Kimberley Districts he displayed remarkable gifts of administration. At the yearly Conference of 1892 he ably represented the South African Conference. He took an interest and exercised an influence in public matters, and especially in educational affairs. From the year 1891 he was a member of the Council of the Cape University, and served with great usefulness and efficiency on the Kimberley School Board. The hand of God was laid upon him in affliction early in the year 1898. He was able to continue his work at intervals until March, 1899, and became a Supernumerary at the last Conference. He continued in weariness and suffering until the end came. During his illness he manifested beautiful Christian patience, and was kept in quietness and peace, sustained and comforted by the abounding and abiding grace of God. He entered into rest at Kimberley, during the siege, on November 13, 1899, in the fifty-seventh year of his age and the thirty-fifth of his ministry.

(6) GIUSEPPE MORENO: born at Augusta, Sicily, in 1830. He received his education in a Franciscan convent, and, as soon as his age permitted, took the vows of that order. On the emancipation of his native island by Garibaldi in 1860, he enlisted in a company composed wholly of ecclesiastics, who followed the great captain in his expedition to Naples. During the campaign he purchased a Diodati Bible, on the frontispiece of which he wrote, "Thou, holy book, over which I have shed so many tears, shalt be my only guide in the search for truth and the conduct of life." When the expedition was over, he settled as parish priest in a village in the neighbourhood of Palermo. While here, one Saturday he purchased in Palermo, in ignorance of its character, a controversial treatise on the Mass, by Dr. Luigi De Sanctis. His eyes were opened, and after a night of anguish the next morning he said Mass for the last time. Shortly afterwards, while reading the Scriptures, he found the way of peace through faith in Christ alone. In 1866, after a brief period of study in the Waldensian Theological College in Florence, he entered the Wesleyan Ministry, and was stationed at the village of Mezzano, in the Parma Circuit. A notable revival, the fruits of which remain to this day, followed his powerful and faithful ministry. Subsequently, in Naples, Rome, Parma, Florence, Pavia, and Genoa, he continued to fulfil the promise thus early given of faithful service. He had an easy elocution, a graphic and popular style, tenderness, fervour, and, above all things, directness of appeal to the conscience and the heart. Few Italian ministers of any Church equalled him in accurate knowledge of the theology of the Romish Church and in skill and power as a controversialist. But his pathos and unction in public devotion surpassed even his qualities as a preacher. Then it was felt how near he lived to God, and what access and prevalence he had in the heavenly sanctuary. For some years his physical strength had been failing, but his service of tongue and pen was given with unabated energy to the cause he loved right up to the end. Almost his last words were, "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me," with a pause of triumphant emphasis on the "Thou." He died on January 17, 1900, in the seventieth year of his age and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(7) ALBERIGO BOSSI: born at Milan in 1846. Whilst a student in the Lyceum he was led by the providence of God to an evangelical mission-hall, recently opened in his native city, in connexion with the Waldensian Church. Under the faithful preaching of the Rev. David Tudin he not only saw the errors of the Romish Church, but found peace to his conscience through the acceptance of Christ as his living, personal Saviour. Shortly afterwards he became a member of a Bible-class conducted by the Rev. Henry J. Piggott, who had just settled in Milan. It was there that he heard the call which led him to abandon the legal career for which he had been intended, and to offer himself as a candidate for the ministry of the gospel. In 1866 he became Mr. Piggott's assistant at Padua, at the same time completing his theological studies. His ministerial life of thirty-four years was chiefly divided between Parma, Intra, and Milan, and in each Circuit he left Churches and institutions which are permanent memorials of his ability, zeal, and devotedness. The Mission premises, the day school and orphanage at Intra, the conversion to a pure gospel of the hamlet of Montorfano, the extensive evangelistic work of the Wesleyan Methodist Mission along the shores of the Lake Maggiore, are all due to him as their founder. As a preacher he was thoughtful and expository; as an evangelist active, enterprising, and an excellent organiser. To our District Councils he always brought words of wisdom and peace. But his special gifts were those of the pastor, and they came to maturity during the latter years of his ministry. His Church and congregation at Milan were scattered from gate to gate of that large city; but he was a frequent and familiar visitor in the homes of all. The sick and infirm were never neglected for a day. He clung to his weekly service in the Protestant Hospital when the inroads of disease made the distant walk painful and perilous. The complaint which brought his faithful ministry to a close was long and peculiarly trying, on account of the nervous prostration that accompanied it. But it drove him ever nearer to his Saviour. When the only position in which he could find relief was a kneeling one, he would say, "You see the Lord would teach me that I have not prayed enough." "Pray," "Let us pray," were expressions constantly on his lips. It was in the act and attitude of prayer that his spirit passed away, on January 19, 1900, in the fifty-fourth year of his age and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(8) GEORGE HARDING KADARI: born of Hindu parents at Vizianagarum in 1857, and baptized, together with his parents, when little more than six months old. He was educated at the London Mission School in Vizagapatam, and afterwards a Dr. Carey's famous Mission College at Serampore in Bengal. When twenty years of age, he returned to Madras as an inspector of Mission schools, and a year later, at a service in Blacktown Chapel, Madras, was convinced of sin, and passed from darkness to light. He laboured acceptably in the Madras Circuits as a local preacher until 1883, when he was called to a wider sphere of influence in the Hyderabad District. Received as a Probationer for the Ministry at the Conference of 1884, his best work was done at Medak, where he spent eleven out of the sixteen years of his ministry. He occupied Medak as a pioneer, and it was at his hands that the first Christian convert received baptism. In all the subsequent development of the work he had a large share, and lived long enough to see the Church he had helped to found strong and progressive. He lost none of his national characteristics under the influence of Christianity. His attitude of mind, his methods of work, his sympathies, and his cherished ambitions were all Indian; and the most intimate association with European Missionaries never for a moment withdrew him, even in thought, from his own people. He was an excellent preacher, and his caustic humour secured him everywhere an alert audience. But it was perhaps as an administrator that he excelled. His ability in working out details was conspicuous. He revelled in the complicated returns which render life burdensome to many men. His childlike gaiety of disposition, his resourcefulness, his helpfulness and genuine kindness of heart, his influence with and power over his fellow countrymen, commended him to the affection and esteem of successive and often very impressive. He had a remarkable gift in prayer, and his pastoral visits to the sick and troubled were rich in sympathy. He died suddenly at Saltcoats, Scotland, on March 14, 1900, in the fifty-first year of his age and the twenty-seventh of his ministry.

(10) SAMUEL NILES: born January 4, 1840. At the age of nineteen he was admitted by the Rev. John Kilner into his Bible School or Training Institution at Jaffna, where he obtained a clear sense of pardon of sin and acceptance with God. At the close of his theological course he laboured as an evangelist and teacher until 1866, when he was recommended by the District Synod to the British Conference as a Candidate for the Ministry in Ceylon. During his probation he gave proof of his call by consistency of life, diligence in study, fidelity in service, and zeal in the work of God. He was received into full connexion by the Conference in 1870, and for more than a quarter of a century travelled in the different Circuits of North and East Ceylon, and in the Tamil Mission of Colombo, discharging the duties of a pastor and seeking to build up a healthy and vigorous Church. As a preacher he was popular with all classes. His presence, his voice, his easy address, his genial temper, were all in his favour. By the non-Christian community he was generally received with much favour. This was especially the case in the villages around Point Pedro, where he was successful in securing good central sites for school-chapels, and in obtaining from the people a considerable portion of the cost of erecting the buildings. Two years ago his health seriously failed. He retired to Point Pedro, where his last few months were quietly spent, waiting for the call to the home on high. He passed peacefully away on March 31, 1900, in the sixty-first year of his age and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

Q. VII. Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. VIII. Who have ceased to be recognised as Ministers amongst us?

A. In Great Britain,

(1) Voluntarily retired: Thomas Sharper Knowlson and Samuel Gamble Walker.

(2) Also retired: None.

(3) John Allan Rothery.

Q. IX. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial stationed for the ensuing year?

A. As follows:

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 925, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. In the event of his death, resignation, or incapacity, the Minister next named, provided such Minister be in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, is the Superintendent. In case there is no Minister in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, appointed to or remaining in the Circuit, the Chairman of the District is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers who are or shall be stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and every one of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve kalendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

3. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meeting and Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XI. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D.; or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; the Rev. WILLIAM CRAWFORD, M.A., nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, M.A., or the Rev. WILLIAM L. WATKINSON.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The EX-PRESIDENT, the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, the Rev. ENOCH SALT, and the Rev. WILLIAM BURGESS, are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Cork on Tuesday, June 18, 1901.

Q. XII. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. ONÉSIME PRUNIER, B.A., B.D., is appointed the President of the next French Conference, to be held at PARIS, in the month of June, 1901.

2. The Rev. ALFRED T. RHODES is appointed the President of the next South African Conference, to be held at Kimberley, in the month of April, 1901.

3. The Rev. W. CLARKE MURRAY, D.D., is appointed the President of the next Western West Indian Conference, to be held at Kingston, Jamaica, in March, 1901.

4. The Rev. DAVID J. REYNOLDS is appointed the President of the next Eastern West Indian Conference, to be held in Barbados, in March, 1901.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference will preside at the Annual Meeting of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly of Wales, to be held at Llanidloes, in June, 1901. The Rev. HENRY J. POPE, D.D., the Rev. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, M.A., and the Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK are appointed to accompany the President. The Rev. HUGH JONES (B) is appointed President of the Assembly.

2. The Rev. JOSEPH BUSH is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man Synod, to be held at Peel in May, 1901.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XIII. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

IN THE SYNOD.

A. (A) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works (see p. 201) is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

IN THE CONFERENCE.

(B) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

). XIV. What is the Report upon the Examina- n of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And at are the directions of the Conference respecting : Examination of Preachers on Trial for the suing year?

L. 1. The following is a summary of the Report upon Examination of Preachers on Trial.

According to the appointment of the Conference, the mination was held on December 1, 1899, and March 30, o, one Fourth Year Paper coming as usual on the previous ning, March 29.

The principal matter on which the Committee has to report year concerns the First Year Probationers who were t by the last Conference direct into the work, after being ommended for the Institution (described below as "Non-legiates"). It was found that most of these men were irely unequal to the work prescribed for the First Year; l the Committee was obliged to assume the responsibility offering the option of shortened subjects, the marks in ich will be seen classified below. On this subject the nmittee submits the following Resolutions:

1) The Committee having evidence from the year's exami- ions of the exceedingly untrained condition of the First ar's men who were sent direct into the work, after having n recommended for the Institution, recognises the urgent essity of their being all sent to the Institution immediately, accordance with the resolution of last Conference.

2) In case the Conference should find it necessary to draw on the list of candidates passed by this Conference, the nmittee recommends that a light course of work be pre- ed for such Probationers consisting of (i) an Old Testament ject, (ii) a New Testament subject, both in English, and) a simple English work in Theology or Biblical History; se who elect to take any of the ordinary First Year's jects to be specially credited with them.

The option now given to Probationers between the "advanced" and the "easier" papers in Greek and Hebrew again produces good results. Nineteen, who were returned by their Tutors as only equal to the lower paper, voluntarily took the higher, while only three cases of the opposite occurred. The Honours List contains one hundred and five names, as against one hundred and three in 1899 and ninety-four in 1898. The number of postponed papers is twenty-six, the same as that reported in 1899. In almost all of these cases health was responsible, and a medical certificate was obtained. In one case papers were missed without the sanction of either Chairman or Superintendent; ultimately, on request of the Synod, the Secretaries agreed to condone the irregularity.

In four cases the full number of papers has not been taken because of continued ill health. One Probationer, who was unable to sit for examination before the Synod, asked to be allowed to take the papers at the end of June. With this exception all the work was reported to the Synods.

Some cases arose in which Probationers attempted higher papers than they were expected to take, and failed to obtain the minimum pass mark. In these the Committee thought it fair to cancel the failure, and report only the mark taken on re-examination, in which the lower paper was taken.

The results for the optional Greek Testament subject (iii. a) and the advanced Hebrew (iv. a) are necessarily given separately, since in estimating Honours or Failure the marks are reckoned as two grades above the figure at which they stand.

The system of marking now adopted stands thus:

Honours Marks.

1* indicating Exceptional excellence.
1 ,, Excellent.
2 ,, Very good.
3 ,, Good.

Pass Marks.

4 indicating Fair.
5 „ Moderate.

Failure Marks.

6 indicating Poor.
7 „ Very poor.

The mark 5 is now defined as implying a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable on a paper. In papers iii. a and iv. a, by the rule passed last year, the mark 6, defined as twenty per cent. and over, is the lowest allowed to pass.

The general results of the examination of the Probationers of each year are as follows :

First Year.—65 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows :

In the subjects which for purposes of Honours are reckoned as they stand, 159 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows : i*, 1 ; i, 6 ; ii, 25 ; iii, 39 ; iv, 52 ; v, 36 ; Failure, 0.

In the subjects iii. a and iv. a, 35 papers were written, the valuation marks of which were as follows : i*, 0 ; i, 4 ; ii, 4 ; iii, 14 ; iv, 10 ; v, 2 ; vi, 1 ; Failure, 0.

The Non-Collegiates wrote 60 papers in the following subjects : Hort's Christian Ecclesia ; Acts i–xiv, in English ; St. Luke i–xv, in English ; Deut., in English, omitting chaps. xii–xxvi. The valuation marks of these papers were as follows : i*, 0 ; i, 0 ; ii, 1 ; iii, 20 ; iv, 18 ; v, 21 ; vi, 0 ; Failure, 0.

Second Year.—35 Probationers were examined, the results of whose work are classified as follows :

In the subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are reckoned as they stand, 100 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows : i*, 7 ; i, 19 ; ii, 29 ; iii, 20 ; iv, 12 ; v, 13 ; Failure, 0.

In the subjects iii. a and iv. a, 40 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 0; i, 2; ii, 8; iii, 11; iv, 8; v, 8; vi, 3; Failure, 0.

THIRD YEAR.—22 Probationers were examined, the results of whose work are classified as follows:

In the subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are reckoned as they stand, 76 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 0; i, 8; ii, 10; iii, 30; iv, 23; v, 5; Failure, 0.

In the subjects iii. a and iv. a, 52 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 1; i, 3; ii, 7; iii, 10; iv, 25; v, 6; vi, 0; Failure, 0.

FOURTH YEAR.—52 Probationers were examined, the results of whose work are classified as follows:

In the subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are reckoned as they stand, 194 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 5; i, 20; ii, 58; iii, 58; iv, 42; v, 11; Failure, 0.

In the subjects iii. a and iv. a, 54 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 2; i, 4; ii, 5; iii, 7; iv, 18; v, 10; vi, 8; Failure, 0.

As the marks are now classified on a new system, it is impossible to supply the usual comparison of percentages between this year and last; but the percentages for this year are as follows:

FIRST YEAR.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: Papers valued 4, 33%; above 4, 45%; below 4, 22%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: Papers valued 4, 29%; above 4, 63%; below 4, 8%.

Non-Collegiates: Papers valued 4, 30%; above 4, 35%; below 4, 35%.

SECOND YEAR.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: Papers valued 4, 12%; above 4, 75%; below 4, 13%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: Papers valued 4, 20%; above 4, 52%; below 4, 28%.

THIRD YEAR.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: Papers valued 4, 30%; above 4, 63%; below 4, 7%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: Papers valued 4, 48%; above 4, 40%; below 4, 12%.

FOURTH YEAR.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: Papers valued 4, 22%; above 4, 73%; below 4, 5%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: Papers valued 4, 33%; above 4, 33%; below 4, 33% (approximately).

A special examination was also arranged for W. F. Lofthouse, M.A., on Anselm: Cur Deus Homo? and other writings. The mark obtained was 1*.

N.B.—(1) A place in the Honours List is assigned to those who (i) take the full number of subjects required, and in other respects fulfil the conditions of the Examination as laid down in the Minutes of Conference, and (ii) obtain an average mark not exceeding 3 for the subjects taken.

(2) Those whose average mark does not exceed 1 are placed in the First Class of Honours. Those whose average mark is 2, or between 1 and 2, are placed in the Second Class. Those whose average mark is 3, or between 2 and 3, constitute the Third Class. In estimating the average mark, 1* and 2 will be taken as giving the same total as 1 and 1. Thus an examinee, whose marks are 1*, 2, 1*, 2, 1, is placed in the First Class.

(3) The marks of those who take iii. a and iv. a are reckoned for the Honours List as two grades higher than corresponding marks in the English subject.

(4) The names in each year stand in order of merit; but, on account of the difference in subjects, no attempt is made to compare one year with another.

(5) In Greek and Hebrew there are two papers—an easier and a more difficult. It is plain that it would not be fair to classify those who took the easier and the harder papers together, without distinguishing them in some way. The Committee has consequently attached diacritic marks to the names in the Honours List as follows: (a) Higher Greek and Hebrew; (b) Greek and Hebrew—one Higher, one Lower; (c) Lower Greek and Hebrew; (d) Greek, but not Hebrew; (e) neither Greek nor Hebrew.

(6) It is of course obvious that failure in any subject altogether disqualifies for Honours.

(7) Those who are marked with a dagger (†) postponed the whole or part of their examination.

FOURTH YEAR.—First Class: (a) G. Allen, B.A.; (a) W. F. Lofthouse, M.A.; (a) C. F. Hunter, B.A.—Second Class: (d) J. Lloyd and (a) †T. E. Thompson (bracketed equal); (a) C. R. Butcher, (a) H. M. Draper, (a) J. Freeman, (a) W. Fytche, (c) W. Looker, (d) H. H. May, (a) G. W. Polkinghorne, and (a) T. Smith (bracketed equal).—Third Class: (d) A. W. Davies, (a) A. Eardley, (b) W. S. Hackett, and (a) D. Roberts (bracketed equal); (a) †T. C. Chaddock, (a) F. V. Walker, and (b) R. J. Williams (bracketed equal); (a) P. C. Ainsworth, (e) D. C. Davies, and (a) G. R. H. Shafto (bracketed equal); (a) H. J. Chapman, M.A., (b) J. Currey, (d) G. Glandfield, (a) E. J. Ives, and (b) F. E. Jones (bracketed equal); (a) †J. Holmes, (d) R. Major, and (a) T. May, M.A. (bracketed equal). (b) P. H. Ellenberger, B.A., completes his examination this year, obtaining Second Class Honours. (c) W. Platt also completes his examination this year, obtaining Third Class Honours.

THIRD YEAR.—First Class: (a) †R. W. Harding; (a) H. C. J. Sidnell; (a) S. N. Hoare, M.A., and (a) A. E. Pearson (bracketed equal).—Second Class: (a) A. L. Heap, B.A.; (a) J. H. Hocken and (a) H. W. Perkins, B.A. (bracketed equal); (a) F. H. Benson, B.A., and (d) W. F. Moulton, M.A. (bracketed equal); (a) H. P. Boase and (a) J. R. Irving (bracketed equal). —Third Class: (a) †J. Graham; (a) W. M. Johnson, (a) R. P. Lowe, (a) J. S. Reece, and (a) D. B. Stothard (bracketed equal); (a) W. L. Davies, (a) T. Miller, and (a) S. C. Myers (bracketed equal); (d) E. Davies, (a) J. W. Fielding, (a) Ll. Roberts, and (d) T. G. Roberts (bracketed equal).

SECOND YEAR.—First Class: (a) W. H. Fuller and (a) J. E. Mattinson (bracketed equal); (a) E. Owen; (a) F. H. Baker; (a) G. Hopper.—Second Class: (a) G. Baxendale, B.Sc., (a) S. Brunt, (a) H. M. Hughes, B.A., (d) Rhys Jones, (a) T. Naylor, B.A., and (a) W. E. Russell (bracketed equal); (a) B. Gregory, (d) Ll. Morgan, and (b) †A. E. Warr (bracketed equal); (b) W. Owen.—Third Class: (a) A. C. Baker, (b) S. P. Bevan, (d) H. F. Chaplin, and (a) G. L. Robinson (bracketed equal); (a) W. H. Bunting, (b) A. W. Coulson, (d) W. Humphrey, (b) A. Jones, (c) D. Pughe, (a) G. H. Schofield, and (b) G. Whitley (bracketed equal); (d) H. M. Davies.

FIRST YEAR.—First Class: (a) A. A. Fuller, B.A.—Second Class: (a) W. H. Phipps, B.A.; (a) J. F. Parkes; (a) D. P. Fuge and (a) L. S. H. Wilkinson (bracketed equal); (d) P. M. Wright, B.Sc.—Third Class: (a) H. Bett, (a) C. Borman, and (a) R. Trotter (bracketed equal); (d) R. H. Colwell, (a) T. E. Freeman, (a) E. D. Green, M.A., (a) J. D. Lamb, B.A., and (a) †W. Watson (c) (bracketed equal); (d) F. F. Hawkey and (a) G. R. James (bracketed equal).

NON-COLLEGIATES (full First Year subjects).—Second Class: (d) E. J. How and (d) H. W. Pring (bracketed equal).—Third Class: (e) J. J. Johnston and (d) C. C. Mayes (bracketed equal); (e) G. E. Allcock * and (e) L. Sykes (bracketed equal); (e) J. M. Hughes.‡

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS.—(1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, three General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3) Arrangements shall be made at the September District Synod for the Examination of Preachers on Trial in the District. The places of Examination shall be chosen with a view to reducing as much as possible the travelling expenses involved. For this purpose it shall be allowed, where deemed advisable, that Probationers from different Districts may be examined in the same centre. Every Probationer may claim the third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Connexional Fund and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide. The Conference recommends that examination centres be so arranged at the September District Synods (or, where necessary, by consultation between the General Secretaries and the District Examination Secretaries) that no Probationer shall have to travel more than thirty miles by rail to his examination.

* Took all four shorter subjects.

‡ Took two shorter subjects.

(4) At the September District Synod a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, with Assistant Secretaries if necessary, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Where the distances allow, at least two Probationers shall be examined at each centre. The Secretaries for adjoining Districts shall confer before the end of September, with a view to fixing suitable centres for the Examination of Probationers stationed near the borders of the Districts. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued shall be forwarded to the Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5) The Examination shall be held in two parts, the first in the month preceding Christmas, the second in the spring; and it shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days, which shall be fixed from year to year.

(6) The Examination Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers, shown by numbers, together with such remarks upon them as he may think desirable.

In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Synod, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on Trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on Trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the Minutes of the District Synod. The Resolutions of the District Synods on the Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send, in May, to each District Synod having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the Examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on Trial.

3. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz. the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY; the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; the General Examination Secretaries; the Rev. William Perkins, Dr. Rigg, and Dr. Stephenson.

he Conference requires every Probationer who is nted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and w subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for ır. Every Probationer who has been a Student in the gical Institution shall be examined in these Greek and w subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, taken into consideration his attainments on leaving stitution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot ably be required in his case. In each year two Greek o Hebrew papers shall be provided, of different degrees culty; and, not later than October 1 in each year, the ittee shall decide, on the recommendation of the Tutors, robationers cannot reasonably be expected to take the difficult papers. If other Probationers wish to take se papers (iii., a and b) are specially on introduction, subject-including doctrine), exegesis, and criticism.

the easier paper in Greek or Hebrew, they shall be at liberty to do so, but will thereby become ineligible for Honours. In the case of Hebrew, the subject set for the easier paper shall be specially selected to suit the acquirements of elementary students. Those who take the advanced paper shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

8. The subject marked iii. in the list for each year may be taken either in Greek or in English by those Probationers who, in the portions of the Greek Testament prescribed for their respective years, take the advanced papers. All who take the subject in Greek shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

9. The Conference requires every Probationer of the First, Second, and Third Years respectively to be examined in the four subjects set for his year. Probationers of the First Year who have yet to go to the Institution may take a light course of work specially provided for them, including one Old Testament and one New Testament subject, both in English, and one simple English work in Theology or Biblical History. Those who elect to take subjects from the ordinary list for the First Year shall receive special credit.

10. Probationers of the Fourth Year, and all Candidates for Ordination, shall take in March a paper on portions of Wesley's Works, to be chosen from year to year. Every Probationer of the Fourth Year shall be examined also in the subjects marked i., ii., iii., and iv., in the subjects for his year.

11. Whenever a Probationer obtains a lower grade than 5 (see p. 191) for any paper, representing a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable, he shall be re-examined in the same subject, and the results of both Examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference. In the Examinations on the Hebrew Bible and Greek Testament, questions on points of grammar shall form an essential part of every paper set.

12. In the subjects marked iii. a and iv. a (which carry the speoial recognition referred to in (7) and (8) above), the allowance shall only be made in the case of those who attain mark 6, which is defined as a minimum of twenty per cent. he full credit obtainable on a paper. Those whose marks below this shall be reckoned as having failed. But when Probationer fails in attempting a subject higher than that ch he is required to take, he shall be re-examined in the er subject, and his previous failure shall not be reported.

3. The second Examination referred to in the last two ıgraphs shall take place before the end of April, in order the District Synod may be made acquainted with the ılt.

4. In no case shall the Examination, in whole or in part, ›ostponed without the sanction of the General Examination retaries, the Chairman of the District, and the Superndent of the Circuit. A special report of each postponeıt shall be presented to the May Synod.

5. Every Probationer shall, not later than September 21, o, inform the Rev. James Hope Moulton, M.A., 3, Queen ıe Terrace, Cambridge, what subjects he will present for mination.

6. Every Probationer, whether appointed to a Circuit or the List of Reserve, shall be examined in the subjects of year.

7. If any Student be removed from the Theological Instion for Circuit work later than Christmas Day in any year, shall not be expected to take the subjects prescribed for the mination of Probationers; but his examination shall be in the hands of his College authorities, who shall mine him in subjects, generally four, to be chosen by the ors. The Examination of men on the President's List of ıerve who have not entered upon the four years of proion shall be arranged on a similar principle.

8. Probationers who leave College for Circuit work before ristmas Day in any year shall take the March Probationers' ımination of their year.

9. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be day, December 7, 1900, and Friday, March 29, 1901.

For the Fourth Year there will also be a paper in the evening of Thursday, March 28. The Conference directs that these days be kept free from Circuit engagements for the Probationers.

20. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the General Secretaries shall, in concert with the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed, make suitable provision for his Examination. In every case, notification should be sent to the Rev. James Hope Moulton, M.A., as early as possible. Permission for such postponement shall be given only on the ground of illness, or other serious emergency arising at the time of the Examination.

21. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

22. The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year. This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. The Conference directs that when the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. The list for the year 1900–1901 is as follows:

Lefroy Yorke, M.A., B.D., and the General Examination Secretaries.

24. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Board of Examiners for their services during the past year; and also to the Rev. George G. Findlay, B.A., G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., and James Hope Moulton, M.A., for their services as General Examination Secretaries.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XV. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. (1) No Candidate for the Ministry shall be received who does not possess a fair acquaintance with English Grammar, Orthography, Arithmetic, Geography, and History.

(2) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod.

Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District.

(3) A preliminary Examination by papers, which shall be prepared each year by the Tutors of the several Branches of the Theological Institution in turn, shall be conducted, before the session of the District Synod, by a Sub-Committee, who shall value the answers of the Candidates; the report of their valuation to be sent to the District Synod concerned. This Sub-Committee shall be appointed by the Conference. The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday, April 18, 1901.

The Sub-Committee for this year shall consist of the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Edward Brentnall, M.A., J. Henry Greeves, Henry Martin, M.A.

(4) Candidates who have matriculated at the London iversity, or have passed an equivalent entrance examination ıny other University in the United Kingdom, or have passed Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local Examination, or ained a Queen's Scholarship as Candidates for Admission ɔ a Training College, are exempt from the preliminary amination.

5) In order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity of uation, figures showing the number of marks obtainable a complete answer shall be placed at the end of each stion; and no Candidate shall be considered to have passed atisfactory examination who does not gain one-fourth of the ximum number of marks allotted to the whole of the papers.
Candidate shall be excused from the preliminary Examinaı on the ground that he has passed it in a former year.

6) No Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum nber of marks in the preliminary Examination shall undergo usual Examination by the District Synod unless, in the gment of the Synod, he possesses such special gifts as to tify an exceptional procedure.

ı. (1) Every Preacher who is recommended for Admission Trial shall, at or before the time of the May District ıod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the ıisters of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, lusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is posed; and a special report of the Sermon shall be made the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of ıdidates.

2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the trict, in addition to those who have heard him before his ommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall im-diately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter Thompson, , Commercial Road East, London, E. They are requested to fix marks of value.

3) In the case of Candidates from the Zetland District, arrangements shall be made by the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the second trial sermon to be preached in England.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(4) District Synods are empowered to examine by Special Committee those Candidates who, for exceptional reasons, are prevented from being present at the appointed time of Examination; every such case to be specially recorded in the Minutes of the Synod, and reported to the Conference.

3. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 14, 1901.

(1) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:

(i) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the PRESIDENT of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the London and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Robert Culley; together with twelve other Ministers of the three London Districts, four of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

(ii) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. T. Galland Hartley; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

N.B.—The Tutors of the Theological Institution shall conduct the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee.

(2) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows: one for the Southern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synod of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synods of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

Each Manuscript Sermon shall be read by two of the Ministers so appointed, and a meeting of the Sub-Committee thereafter held, when the Reports of the readers shall be considered and the valuation fixed which shall be recommended to the Committee.

(3) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(4) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(5) Candidates who are Graduates of any University in the United Kingdom shall not be required to take the Literary Paper.

(6) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows: the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester District Synods shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of the two Sections.

(7) In connexion with each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed, one of whom shall be a specialist on residence in a tropical climate.

(8) The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. PETER THOMPSON, are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(9) All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Synods, must be addressed to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E.

(10) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. Robert Culley are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. T. Galland Hartley to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

4. System of Marking in Examinations.—In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted: number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest. The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

5. Candidates from the Welsh Districts.

(1) The Conference directs that Candidates from the North and South Wales Districts shall be examined alternately by the two Sections of the Examination Committee, and that a Minister be elected to be a Member of this Committee by the North or the South Wales District Synod, according as the Examination is held at Didsbury or Richmond.

(2) Candidates from the Welsh Districts are required, if able, to preach two sermons in connexion with the Annual District Synod, one in Welsh and one in English.

(3) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work.

6. Candidates from Ireland for Foreign Mission Work.—(See Minutes, 1886, pp. 203, 204.)

7. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in three sections: (1) those who are unanimously recommended; (2) those upon whom a divided vote was taken, with the result of the voting (in recording the voting, the number of neutrals shall be given); (3) those who are unanimously declined.

N.B.—When a Candidate has been recommended by a divided vote in the Examination Committee, he shall be only provisionally accepted until the entire list of Candidates has been considered, when the Conference shall finally decide his case.

8. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

9. Training of Candidates for the Welsh Ministry.

(1) In cases in which Candidates for the Ministry recommended by the Welsh Synods possess exceptional qualifications, and in which the District Synod and the Examination Committee are of opinion that a course of training at a Welsh University College would be of special advantage to the Candidates and to our work in the Principality, such Candidates may be permitted to spend some time in connexion with a University College, without cost to any Connexional Fund, before they are formally recognised and accepted as Candidates for the Ministry by the Conference.

(2) While pursuing his studies at a University College, every such Candidate shall be placed under the special pastoral care of a Minister resident in the town in which the College is situated, who shall present a special report on his conduct and preaching work during the year to the District Synod and to the Welsh Assembly.

(3) At the close of his term of study at the University College, every such Candidate shall, on the recommendation of the District Synod, and provided the Conference be satisfied as to his continued fitness for our work, be fully accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and shall afterwards receive such training in our Institution as the Conference may direct.

(4) The Conference appoints Didsbury College as the place where Candidates who are members of the Welsh University may qualify for a degree in Theology.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Discipline Committees for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The General Discipline Committee shall consist of all the Members of the Local Discipline Committees, and shall meet at the least twice a year; the first Meeting to be in anticipation of the second Quarterly Meeting of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and the second to take place before the fourth Quarterly Meeting of the same General Committee.

2. Each Local Discipline Committee shall meet quarterly, and at every meeting inquiry shall be made whether there is any objection to each Student.

N.B.—This inquiry shall include all questions affecting his moral and religious character, observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competency for our work, and health.

3. In any case of discipline, when the Local Discipline Committee shall so decide, a Meeting of the General Discipline Committee shall be called to consider the case; and on receiving notice thereof, the General Secretary shall, in consultation with the President of the Conference, arrange for such meeting. The place and time shall be fixed by the President.

4. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Local Discipline Committees shall retain the power of summary action in urgent cases, and in cases of idleness or incompetence.

5. The Local Discipline Committee, on dismissing a Student from College, shall have power to determine all points concerning his status, employment, and maintenance until the next meeting of the General Discipline Committee, whose decision shall take effect until Conference.

6. All cases of discipline during the year, at any Branch of the Institution, shall be reported to the General Discipline Committee at its meeting immediately before Conference.

7. The Governor of the Institution House shall answer for the Students to the Conference.

8. All questions affecting the moral conduct, theological soundness, and general behaviour of the Students shall, in accordance with the custom observed from the beginning of the Institution, be referred to the Discipline Committee of the Branch, and the Discipline Committee shall report to the Conference; but in cases where the action of the Discipline Committee affects the residence of a Student, the action so taken shall be final, but shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

9. The Conference shall appoint from year to year for each Branch of the Institution ten Ministers, who, in addition to the Tutors and Secretary of such Branch, shall constitute the Discipline Committee. The Secretaries of the Missionary Society shall be ex officio members of the Discipline Committee of the Richmond Branch.

The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is the Secretary of the General Discipline Committee.

10. The following are the members of the Local Discipline Committees:

Richmond Branch.—The EX-PRESIDENT and the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Tutors and Local Secretary; the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Rev. James Chapman, Albert Clayton, Walford Green, Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, Dr. Waller, and J. Cornelius Wright.

Birmingham Branch.—The PRESIDENT, the Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. William Bradfield, B.A., Amos Burnet, Joseph Bush, Edward R. Edwards, Stephen Parkes, Joseph Posnett, Enoch Salt, Conrad S. Sargisson, John J. Twells, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Q. XVII. Who are the Members of the Missionary Society Committee of Discipline?

A. The Ministerial Officers and Members of the Missionary Committee, together with the following Ministers, being three from each London District: The Rev. George Charter, Frederick B. Cowl, George Denton, William Hawken, Jabez Ingram, J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., Samuel O. Scott, Alfred H. Vine, and Dinsdale T. Young.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.

Q. XVIII. Who is appointed the Ministerial Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and what Ministers are elected to that Committee at the ensuing Conference?

A. 1. The Rev. James Chapman.

2. Rev. Josiah Banham,
„ W. Langdon Brimmell,
„ William Burgess,
„ John Clegg,
„ William H. Clogg,
„ Henry E. Gregg, „ Joshua Haigh,
„ John T. F. Halligey,
Rev. James R. Imisson,
„ Jabez Ingram,

„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ Henry T. Smart,
„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ Peter Thompson,
„ William D. Walters.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on Book Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) The Book Committee shall consist (a) of the following ex officio members: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents residing in the London and adjoining Districts; the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Secretary of the Tract Committee, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union, the Secretaries of the Missionary Society, the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Tutors at the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Honorary Librarian of the Allan Library; and (b) of twenty-five Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident in the Metropolitan Postal and Police area.

(2) A Finance and Consultation Committee, consisting of fourteen Members, including the Officers of the Book-Room, shall be appointed by the Book Committee from its own Members at its first meeting after Conference.

(3) Readers shall be annually chosen by the Book Committee at its first meeting after Conference; and one or more of these shall be selected by the Book Steward to read any Manuscript offered for publication, who shall make confidential reports to the Book Steward and Editor.

The Book Steward shall report to the Committee, and the Committee shall have power to accept or reject Manuscripts.

(4) The Tract Committee shall consist of the Officers of the Book-Room and twelve other Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident within the same area as the London Book Committee. The names of the Tract Committee shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference.

The Tract Committee shall report, through its Secretary, to the Book Committee.

3. The Book Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; William Arthur, M.A., Dr. Rigg, Dr. Gregory, Dr. Jenkins, Richard Roberts, John Walton, M.A., Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Walford Green, Dr. Waller, William L. Watkinson, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Frederic W. The Rev. ARTHUR WOOD, B.A., is re-appointed the Secretary of the Tract Committee. Communications should be addressed to him at 9, Highbury New Park, N.

5. The old rule as to payment of Ministers' Book Accounts shall be observed; viz. that remittances be made quarterly, and all balances paid at the Conference.

6. For the future the Grants to Connexional Funds shall be paid out of the profits actually made during the Connexional Year then ending, and not out of profits to be made, in part or wholly, during the year then ensuing.

Future Management of the Book-Room.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Special Committee appointed by the Conference of 1899 on Book-Room Affairs.

2. The Conference provisionally adopts the following Resolutions :—

(1) The future management of the Book-Room shall be placed in the hands of a Committee, the constitution of which shall be determined as the Conference may direct after further and fuller consideration, and which shall be subject to alteration by the Conference from time to time. Such Committee for the first year shall consist of the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, two Ministers and three Laymen, who shall report at least once a quarter to a larger Committee, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, six Ministers and six Laymen, who shall report to both Sessions of the Conference.

(2) The Connexional Editor shall be a Minister.

(3) The three Funds now receiving Grants from the Book-Room shall, under any revised scheme of management adopted by the Conference, have as heretofore the first consideration in the distribution of the profits arising from the trade.

N.B.—The above resolutions are approved by the Representative Session of the Conference.

Q. XX. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. Order of Conference Sessions (see Minutes, 1899, pp. 241–243.)

Q. XXI. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at the May Synod, when Ministers only are present?

A. 1. The Future Management of the Book-Room (see p. 219).

2. Baptized Children in relation to the Church (see p. 226).

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful and hearty thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to its late President, the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, for the eminent ability and unfailing geniality with which he presided over the sessions of the last Conference, and for the distinguished services he has rendered throughout the year.

2. The respectful thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, for his eloquent, impressive, and inspiring Charge delivered to the newly ordained Ministers in Charles Street Chapel, Hanley, on Monday, August 6, 1900.

Retirement of Senior Ministers.

GEORGE W. OLVER, B.A.—In permitting the retirement of the Rev. George W. Olver, B.A., the Conference records its sense of the eminent services he has rendered to the Connexion as Pastor, as Secretary of the Education Department, and Principal of the Southlands Training College, and as one of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society. His high Christian character, inflexible loyalty to his convictions, his conscientiousness and prudence in the conduct of business of the Church, and withal his brotherly kindness, are gratefully remembered. "At eventide there shall be light."

CHARLES GARRETT.—The Conference deeply regrets that it is called upon to consent to the retirement of the Rev. Charles Garrett, whose long and eminently useful career has won for him the admiration and love of his brethren and of the whole Church of which he was a minister. Multitudes have yielded to Christ, and multitudes more have been edified under his colloquial, pathetic, and evangelical preaching. The Conference rejoices in the successful services Mr. Garrett has rendered for the amelioration of the lot of the poor, and, above all, in the cause of temperance. He was elected President of the Conference in 1882. For many years he was Chairman of the Liverpool District. His work as Superi[illegible] of the Liverpool Mission will long be rememb[illegible] Conference [illegible] hat the divine blessing may [illegible] Garrett t[illegible] of his useful and honour[illegible]

JOSEPH POSNETT.—After more than fifty years of almost uninterrupted service Mr. Posnett is allowed to become a Supernumerary. He retires in the full assurance of the respect and affection of his brethren. By the blessing of God remarkable success has attended his ministry of the gospel, his administration in the superintendency of important Circuits, and as the Chairman of a District. In his later years he has been instrumental in a remarkable extension of the work of God in Leicester. Sturdy, alert, enterprising and independent, his breezy speeches have been welcomed by his brethren in Synods and in the Conference. The Conference prays that he may be spared for many years to inspire and encourage his brethren, and to preach to multitudes the saving truths of Christ's gospel.

JOSEPH BUSH.—The Conference cannot permit the retirement of Mr. Bush without placing on record its deep appreciation of the distinguished services he has, by the divine blessing, rendered to the Conference and the Connexion. For forty-eight years he has travelled in our principal Circuits, twenty-eight years he has been Superintendent of Circuits, and twenty-one years Chairman of a District. He was elected President of the Conference in 1888. His knowledge of Circuits and of his brethren has given him a unique position in the important work of stationing. His hand may be traced in the Minutes of the Conference. Above all, under his edifying, methodical ministry and godly discipline, Circuits have prospered and believers have been built up in their holy faith. His brethren have trusted in him. In his piety, integrity, modest and strong character, they magnify the grace of God.

RICHARD GREEN.—After forty-seven years' work the Conference accedes to Mr. Green's request to be permitted to become a Supernumerary. The memory of his long service to the Connexion in Italy, in Circuit work, as Chairman of a District, and as Tutor and House Governor of the Didsbury Branch of the Theological Institution, will be long and gratefully cherished. His gentleness, refinement, humour, and sanctity have endeared him to a succession of candidates who have passed through Didsbury into the Ministry. The Conference prays that Mr. Green may, through many years, continue to enrich the Church with his chaste expositions of divine truth and the influence of his high Christian character.

JOHN JEFFREYS, FEATHERSTONE KELLETT, HENRY SOPER, and JOHN HOLMES.—The Conference reluctantly consents to the retirement of these venerable and beloved brethren. Contemporaries, Members of the Legal Conference, unblemished in character, enjoying the confidence of their brethren, faithful in offices of trust, successful in their ministry of the word of life, the Church can ill spare them from the ranks of Ministers in the full work. In addition to his superintendency, Mr. Kellett was for some years Chairman of a District. The Conference assures these brethren of its high regard, and prays that in their last days they may be permitted to bear effective testimony to the blessedness of those who walk in the light.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. ENOCH SALT is thanked for his services, and is re-appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

to report to the Representative Session of the next Conference on such of these as concern that Session.

5. The following is the Committee: The Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Dr. Bowden,
" Joseph Bush,
" Albert Clayton,
" George Fletcher,
" Richard Green,
" Charles H. Kelly,
" Dr. Henry J. Pope,
" Dr. Randles,
Rev. Dr. Rigg,
" G. Stringer Rowe,
" John S. Simon,
" Dr. Stephenson,
" W. Henry Thompson,
" Dr. Waller,
" Charles E. Wansbrough,
" Owen Watkins.

The Rev. JOHN S. SIMON is the Convener.

Baptized Children in Relation to the Church.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference provisionally adopts the following Resolutions:

(1) As all baptized children have been received into the Congregation of Christ's Flock to be trained as disciples of Christ, it is incumbent on the Ministers of the Church to extend to them a larger measure of pastoral care and systematic attention than they have as yet generally received.

(2) Such increased care and attention should be distinctly based upon the obligations which are recognised in their baptism, and should embrace full instruction in their duties and privileges as disciples of Christ. The Conference considers it eminently desirable that this effort should include any young people of our congregations who have not already been baptized, with a view to their Christian decision and admission into the membership of the Church.

(3) In order to facilitate such pastoral instruction and oversight—

(a) Pastoral Classes should be formed for all the children of our families who have been baptized but have not yet made open profession of faith in Christ, and also for other children who may join the Classes, with a view to Christian decision and reception into the Church: these Pastoral Classes to meet for six or eight weeks annually, at a time to be locally arranged, but preferably, on account of our itinerancy, in the spring.

(b) The age at which young people should ordinarily be invited to these Classes should be about twelve.

(c) The objects of such Classes should be religious instruction, especially with a view to personal decision and an open confession of Christ, together with the public baptism of such as have not already been baptized.

(4) After such a course of preparation, all members of these Pastoral Classes whom the Minister may deem fit should be introduced into suitable Society Classes, publicly recognised as members of the Church, and admitted to the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

(5) It is important that full advantage be taken of the opportunity afforded by baptism to impress upon parents their obligation to teach and bring up for Christ the children whom we baptize; and that a card be presented in every case to the parents as a remembrancer for the child in after years.

(6) In wide country Circuits where it may be practically impossible to observe all the details of these suggestions, the Superintendent of the Circuit should make the best available arrangements to carry out the spirit of these Resolutions.

3. The Committee is re-appointed to consider the suggestions of the District Synods on these Resolutions, and to report to the next Conference.

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

The Rev. CHARLES H. KELLY is the Convener.

Ossett and Horbury Circuit.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Commission.

2. The Commission is re-appointed, to watch the interests of the Circuit and to advise the Superintendent as he may need. The Commission is empowered to take any special action that may be required, if occasion should arise.

3. The following is the Commission: The Rev. John Shaw

Banks, John Hornabrook, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Randles, and ALBERT BISHOP, Convener.

Order of Conference Sessions.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference confirms the resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference. (See Minutes, 1899, pp. 241–243.)

The Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference adopts the following practical suggestions:

(1) It is desirable that this subject should be dealt with more frequently in the pulpit, so that our people may be reminded of their duty and privilege in this matter.

(2) The Lord's Supper should be administered once a month in all our principal Churches; and in order to provide for all classes of communicants, it is important that a morning Communion be arranged for, especially in connexion with our larger congregations.

(3) It is desirable that the Lord's Supper be administered in every Society at least once a quarter, either some time on the Lord's Day, or, where that is not possible, at some time during the week when the Minister visits the place.

(4) In order to secure intelligent and reverent participation in the service, a copy of our Form of Service should be provided for each communicant, and this form, which is sometimes neglected, should be faithfully used by our Ministers, and suitable hymns selected. In this way the service may be made more impressive and helpful to those who take part in it.

(5) A cheap booklet giving a practical exposition and explanation of the Lord's Supper, with a view to edification, shall be prepared for general circulation, and put into the hands of new Members on their joining the Church.

(6) In the interest of Probationers and Local Preachers an occasional administration of the Lord's Supper in connexion with the Quarterly Meeting or the Local Preachers' Meeting would be found helpful.

(7) In view of the difficulty of providing a proper administration of the Lord's Supper in some Circuits, the Stationing Committee shall every year consider the cases in which it may be desirable to allow probationers to administer the Lord's Supper. The power already vested in the President to deal with cases that arise during the year on the recommendation of the Chairman of a District shall still continue.

3. The Conference directs that these suggestions be specially brought before the Pastoral Session of the next May Synods.

4. The Conference appoints the Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, D.D., to prepare the booklet referred to in sub-section (5) above.

The Church Roll.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference recommends that a Roll of Membership, compiled from the Class-books, be kept for every Society, the names of members standing in their several classes; and that the lists be corrected, if possible, quarter by quarter, or at least once a year. The Superintendent shall be responsible for seeing that the Roll is duly kept.

Supernumeraries and District Synods. — Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our doctrines. A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of doctrine and discipline.

Evangelical Ministers' United Prayer. — The Conference rejoices in the proposal to unite the Ministers and Missionaries of all Evangelical Churches in a concert of prayer and special intercession in order to gain equipment for better service in the new century, and commends the effort to the earnest consideration of all our Ministers.

SECTION II.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES.

Q. XXII. What are the Committees for Guarding our Privileges during the ensuing year?

A. 1. The ORDINARY COMMITTEE: which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional or public interests, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below.

The Ordinary Committee shall meet whenever it is convened either by direction of the President of the Conference or by its Secretaries, and shall consist of:

(1) The ex officio members: the President of the Conference, Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D.; the Ex-President, Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD; the Secretary of the Conference, Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY; the Book Steward, Rev. Charles H. Kelly; the Connexional Editor, Rev. William L. Watkinson; two of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, Rev. Mr. Robert W. Perks, M.P.,
" Digby F. Shillington,
" J. Bamford Slack, B.A.,
Sir Clarence Smith,
Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
His Hon. Judge Waddy, Q.C.

(4) Eight Laymen from the Country:

Mr. John Cooper,
" Charles Heap,
" William Hunt,
" William Mewburn,
Mr. William Middlebrook,
" Ebenezer Parkes, M.P.,
" Walter Runciman, M.P.,
Sir George Smith.

The Rev. J. SCOTT LIDGETT, M.A., and Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

2. The EXTRAORDINARY COMMITTEE, which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional interests, and shall meet whenever the Ordinary Committee or the President of the Conference shall convene it, shall consist of all the Members of the Ordinary Committee; the Chairmen of Districts; the Lay General Treasurers of Connexional Funds, though not Members of the Ordinary Committee; with the following gentlemen selected from the Lay Representatives to the Conference elected by the several District Synods:

Mr. Ezra T. Wilks,
" Charles Penny,
" John Bloxham,
" Josiah Smart,
" John W. Cooper,
" James Beckett,
" Thomas E. D. Garrett,
" George W. Harding,
" Charles Spargo,
" Cornelius L. Duke,
" John Williams,
" William Crawford,
" John W. Gardner,
" Charles A. Willis,
" W. Rhys Davies,
" W. Marsden Davies,
" Henry Bisseker,
Mr. J. Wilcox Edge,
" Norval W. Helme,
" Alfred Brookes,
" John E. Bunting,
" William Butterworth,
" Moses Atkinson,
" William Turner,
" John E. Silverwood,
" Walter Shephard,
" Joseph Rank,
" John Thomas Allen,
" Thomas Spark,
" Robert Hastewell,
" Henry J. Turner,
" William Goldsmith,
" John Marshall,
" John James Brown.

The Rev. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., and Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

3. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee.

4. The Conference refers back to the Committee of Privileges the questions dealt with by the following Bills:

(1) Places of Worship (Sites) Bill.

(2) Rating of Places of Worship and Schools Bill.

(3) Bill to amend the Public Health Acts Amendment Act (1890), Part IV.

(4) Burial Laws Amendment Bill.

(5) Places of Worship Enfranchisement Bill.

And also

(6) The question of the formal recognition of Wesleyan Ministers as chaplains in Workhouses and Gaols.

5. The Conference again directs the Committee to consider during the year the electoral disadvantages to which Wesleyan Methodist Ministers are subject in consequence of the Itinerancy, and to take such legal action as may be advisable in order to the removal of such disadvantages.

6. The Conference directs that Rule 47 of Schedule I. of the Prisons Act of 1865 be printed in the Minutes:

If any prisoner is of a religious persuasion differing from that of the Established Church, and no Minister has been appointed to attend at the prison on the prisoners of that persuasion, the Visiting Justices shall permit a Minister of such persuasion, to be approved by them, to visit such prisoners at proper and reasonable times, and under such restrictions as may be imposed by the Visiting Justices to guard against the introduction of improper persons and prevent improper communications, unless such prisoner expressly objects to see such Minister.

7. Preaching in Open Spaces.—The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to communicate information to the Committee as to any existing or proposed bye-laws in their Circuits which conflict with the decision of Parliament in the Eastbourne and Rhyl cases.

8. Roman Catholic University for Ireland.—The Conference again directs the Committee of Privileges to co-operate with the Committee of Privileges appointed by the Irish Conference in opposing the Establishment and Endowment out of Public Funds of a Denominational University in Ireland.

9. The Use of Garrison Churches in India.—The Conference expresses its condemnation of the injustice done to the Wesleyan Methodist Church in India, by the consecration of the only Protestant Garrison Church to the exclusive use of one Denomination, in cases where such Church has been or may be built wholly or mainly out of Public Funds.

The Conference further protests against the ultimate appeal as to the use of such Churches being to the Metropolitan of the Church of England in India, instead of the Commander-in-Chief, or to the Civil Authority.

The Conference refers these aspects of the subject to the Committee for the ensuing year; and directs it to co-operate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, so far as the practical questions relating to proper provision for Wesleyan Methodist worship in the Indian Army are concerned, if such co-operation shall be found desirable.

10. Marriage Act, 1898.—The Conference again strongly recommends that the Act be immediately adopted in every Wesleyan Methodist Chapel in England and Wales which is registered for the solemnisation of Marriage.

By the provisions of the Act Nonconformists are not only relieved of the presence of the Registrar, but they can arrange their weddings at such times as may be most convenient to themselves, without consulting, as hitherto, the arrangements of that officer. The fees now payable to the Registrar are slightly reduced, and will in ten years entirely disappear. The only burden imposed upon the officiating ministers is the duty of filling up a register in duplicate, one copy to be kept at the chapel, and the other to be forwarded, when full, to the Superintendent-Registrar. Persons officiating under the Act are entitled to give to the parties marrying the usual certificates, for which they are entitled to make the customary charge; and they are also entitled to give certificated copies from time to time of entries in the chapel registers.

The Conference expresses its hope that such regulations of the Registrar-General as are unnecessarily strong and complex may be amended, and remits this question to the consideration of the Committee.

Forms by which the "Authorised Person" may give notice of removal, and by which Trustees may notify the name of his successor to the Registrar-General, may be obtained from the Book-Room.

11. Maltese Marriages.—The Conference directs the Committee to oppose any proposal which may be made to require six months' notice of Protestant or Mixed Marriages to be contracted in Malta.

Burial Laws.—The Conference expresses general approval of the Burial Grounds Bill, introduced by the Home Secretary, and passed by the House of Commons, as providing a remedy for some of the grievances of which Wesleyan Methodists have complained; and its hope that the measure may be passed into law during the present Session of Parliament.

MISSIONS.

Q. XXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of our Foreign Missions?

A. 1. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. JAMES H. RIGG, D.D., and Mr. WILLIAMSON LAMPLOUGH, the General Treasurers of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society.

N.B.—The Chairman of any District, who may be in London at the time of holding any Meeting of the General Committee, shall be entitled to attend and to vote with the Committee.

4. Retirement of Rev. George W. Olver, B.A.—The Rev. George W. Olver, B.A., having requested that he may become a Supernumerary, the Conference, while expressing its regret that the state of Mr. Olver's health compels him to take this step, places on record its high estimate of the eminent service he has rendered to the Missionary Society since his appointment as one of its General Secretaries in 1881. Whatever work the exigencies of the Office have from time to time required of him he has cheerfully accepted, and has ably performed the duties involved therein, serving the Society with scrupulous and unsparing devotion.

The Conference assures Mr. Olver of its sincere and respectful personal regard, and its grateful appreciation of his long and honourable service. It hopes for years to come to have the great advantage of his counsel in Committee, and will follow him with prayers and best wishes into the quiet of his retirement.

5. Day of Intercession.—(1) The Conference appoints the first Monday in October to be observed throughout the Connexion as an Annual Day of Intercession for Foreign Missions; and recommends that Sermons be preached on the previous Sunday, setting forth the duty of the Church to Christ and the heathen world.

(2) The Conference directs that the motto of the Students' Volunteer Missionary Union, "The Evangelization of the World in the Present Generation," be brought before the Methodist Churches on the Day of Intercession.

6. Synod Missionary Committees.—The Conference directs:

(1) The number of Members of the Synod Missionary Committees shall be increased to six Ministers and six Laymen, as in the Synod Home Mission Committees.

(2) The Synods are authorised to associate with the Committee Ministers and Laymen of known missionary sympathy and experience, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become Members of the Synod.

(3) The Synod Missionary Committees shall meet at least once a quarter for the transaction of missionary business.

N.B.—A Form of business shall be provided, and small schedules supplied for obtaining information from the Circuits.

7. West Indies.—(1) The Conference confirms the revised constitution of the West Indian Conferences, as now presented. (See Appendix XV.)

(2) The Conference, recognising the serious difficulties in which the West Indian Conferences are placed, and their urgent need of financial assistance, refers this matter to the favourable consideration of the Missionary Committee, and authorises a public appeal on behalf of these Conferences at such time and in such manner as may seem desirable to the Committee.

8. Women's Auxiliary.—Communications to be addressed to Mrs. WISEMAN, 25, Queen's Avenue, Muswell Hill, London, N.

(7) The thanks of the Conference are presented to the various Officers and Committees of the Fund, and to the District Treasurers of the Maintenance Section, for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices; also to Mr. Henry Whinnerah, Honorary Auditor of the Trinity Hall School Accounts.

(8) The General Committee shall meet during the ensuing year on Friday, November 16, in Manchester; on Friday, March 29, 1901, in Bath; and on Friday, June 21, in London.

2. Income of the Fund.

The Conference directs:

(1) The amounts to be raised in each District for the general purposes of the Children's Fund, Maintenance, and Education, shall be as set forth in Schedule B.

(2) Ministers in Departments, and those without pastoral charge, shall be assessed for the Maintenance Section of the Fund at £20 each, and shall pay the assessments for which they are liable in respect of this Section to the Rev. G. STRINGER ROWE.

(3) No children's allowances can be claimed by Ministers on whose behalf the ordinary assessment has not been paid.

(4) All Ministers in Full Connexion with the Conference shall subscribe half a guinea per annum; and the payment by Ministers in Circuits and Departments, having children at the Schools, of £2 for each child at school, shall be, as heretofore, in addition to the subscription of half a guinea.

(5) The Education Section of the Fund shall be made self-adjusting upon the lines already adopted in respect of the Maintenance Section. The extra charge upon each Circuit calling out an additional Minister is therefore £2 per annum during the period of probation, and £4 per annum afterwards.

3. Kingswood School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in January; and not later than November 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission must be sent to the Rev. WILLIAM FOSTER, B.A., Colwyn Bay, Denbighshire. Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than January. Boys shall not in general be admitted before the age of ten.

N.B.—In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governing Body under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than January, the parent may be required by the Governing Body to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £25. Such parents receive the privileges detailed in § 5 (p. 251).

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to boys of about the age of eleven. A graduated age allowance will be made for younger boys, while older boys will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard, and boys above the age of twelve will be expected to show some knowledge of Latin and French. A specimen examination paper will be sent by the Headmaster, Mr. WALTER P. WORKMAN, M.A., B.Sc., upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

(3) Residence. The ordinary time of residence shall be six years, provided that the education allowances have either not been received or have been returned (see § 5 (4), p. 251).

(4) Scholarships. The terms of election shall be fixed by the Governing Body. So far as is consonant with the trusts affecting them, the Scholarships shall be awarded as a general rule to boys in their seventeenth year. Some shall be reserved for those who have already held one Scholarship. The Exhibition upon the Foundation of the late John Fernley shall be tenable at any place of higher education.

(5) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows ...	£22
Boys recommended by the Governor and Headmaster as being "near to winning a Scholarship"	£25
For all others	£30

Such payments shall be due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day.

Ministers whose sons hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall not be liable for the additional Assessment (vide § 2 (4), p. 247).

Such Ministers shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. Parents having children at the School shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents not giving such notice, the officers of the Fund shall be authorised to withhold three months' allowances, which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children. If a boy to whom an extra year has been granted be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

(7) The School Year shall be divided into three terms.

(8) The application of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows shall be left to the discretion of the General Committee.

4. Trinity Hall School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in January, and not later than November 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent to the Rev. RALPH M. SPOOR, 90, Cheriton Road, Folkestone.

Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than January. Girls shall not, in general, be admitted before the age of twelve.

(2) Entrance Examination.

Reading: A few lines of poetry selected by the examiner.

Writing (Small Hand): Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading book. This will also be a test of spelling.

Arithmetic: The Four Simple Rules and the Four Compound Rules (Money and Weights and Measures).
Geography: Outlines of the Geography of Europe in general, and particularly of England.
Grammar: To parse simple sentences correctly and readily.
History: To have a fair knowledge of Bible History and of the History of England.
Plain Needlework.

The Examination shall be graduated according to the age of the girl, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body.

(3) Residence. The ordinary term of residence shall be four years for girls on whose behalf not more than two educational payments have been made previous to their entrance at School. Every such payment in excess of two shall diminish the time of residence at the School.

(4) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows ... £22
For all others £30

Such payments shall be due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day.

Ministers whose daughters hold Scholarships, or have secured an extra year, shall not be liable for the additional Assessment (see § 2 (4), p. 247).

Such Ministers shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(5) Notice of Removal from School. The Regulation for Kingswood School (§ 3 (6), p. 249) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to Trinity Hall School.

(6) Vacations. The School Year at Trinity Hall School shall be divided into three terms.

5. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.

The Conference directs:

(1) Payments shall be made at Conference for the kalendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents who have once begun to claim shall receive their payments annually. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Entrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

(4) Return of Educational Allowances. Any Educational Allowance may be returned within the kalendar year in which it is received. Educational allowances received in previous years may be returned, provided that Simple Interest is paid thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum for such period as they have been held.

(5) Circuit Schedules. Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, 14, St. Mary's Road, Cheetham Hill, Manchester, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. No claim to be entered upon this schedule for children at the Schools.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. XXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Conference receives the Report.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send to the several District Synods the particulars of those cases in which, in the opinion of the Committee, it is desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time, until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled.

The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

4. Mr. WILLIAM TUNSTILL, of Nelson, and Mr. JOHN COOPER, of Manchester, are re-appointed Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

5. The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK is the General Secretary of the Chapel Committee.

6. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurers of the Chapel Fund; the Secretary of the Chapel Committee; and the RELIEF AND EXTENSION FUND FOR METHODISM IN SCOTLAND.

1. The Conference receives and approves the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference directs that Annual Collections on behalf of the Fund be made in all our chapels in Scotland on the Lord's day, and recommends that the annual income be further augmented by Donations and Subscriptions; and also resolves that, in the May Synod of the Scotland District, the interests of this Fund shall be considered when the Connexional Funds are under review.

3. The General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Fund shall be appointed by the Committee at its Meeting to be held in connexion with the September Synod of the Scotland District.

The following persons, who have, in accordance with the Constitution of the Fund, been nominated by the Scotland District Synod, shall be the Committee for the ensuing year; viz. the Superintendent Minister of each Circuit in the Scotland District, the Rev. Walter E. Fletcher, and the following Laymen:

N.B.—1. The Officers of this Fund, as last appointed, were:

Treasurers, Mr. Herbert B. Law and Mr. William Ormiston; Hon. Lay Secretary (office vacant); Ministerial Secretary, Rev. Frederic Platt, M.A., B.D.

2. The Lay Treasurers and the Honorary Lay Secretary of this Fund, for the time being, are ex officio members of the Scotland District Synod during the transaction of the Financial and Statistical Business of the District.

The Late Mr. Charles B. Davidson, LL.D.—The Conference expresses its deep regret at the death of Dr. C. B. Davidson, of Aberdeen, whose services have been of inestimable advantage to this Fund and to the interests of Methodism in Scotland generally. The originators of the Fund were indebted to his legal knowledge in framing its constitution, but Dr. Davidson will be chiefly and most gratefully remembered as its first great administrator. As Honorary Lay Secretary and Deputy Treasurer, the affairs of the Fund were largely in his hands; and to his impartial fidelity, his sound judgment, his capacity for detailed organisation, quickened by his strong personal sympathy with the objects of the Fund, its incalculable benefits to the churches and manses of Scottish Methodism for the past quarter of a century are mostly due.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, showing an unusually large expenditure within a single year, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VI.)

2. The Conference, recognising the great benefits the Fund has conferred on Metropolitan Methodism and the cause of Christ generally, calls on all Metropolitan Methodists, and especially on the Trustees and all others interested in the one hundred and ten Chapels already aided by this Fund, to sustain it to the utmost of their power, that sufficient means may be provided for the further development of Methodism in this immense and ever-growing Metropolis. It trusts also that the Methodists of the Provinces will heartily assist their London brethren in this movement.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the General Treasurers, His Hon. Judge WADDY, Q.C., and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, D.L., and to the Committee of the Fund, for their services during the past year.

4. The following are re-appointed the Officers for the ensuing year: viz. His Hon. Judge WADDY, Q.C., and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, D.L., Treasurers; Rev. JOHN BOND, General Secretary; Sir CLARENCE SMITH, Rev. WILLIAM D. WALTERS, Rev. THOMAS E. WESTERDALE, and Rev. JABEZ INGRAM, Assistant Secretaries.

The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

1. The ex officio Members: viz. the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary of the Conference; the Treasurers, General Secretary, and Assistant Secretaries of this Fund; the Secretary of the Chapel Committee; and the Secretary of the Home Mission Fund.

2. The elected Members:

(1) By the Conference: fifteen Laymen of the London Districts who are Annual Subscribers, and such a number of Ministers as will equalise the number of Laymen and Ministers; including the Chairmen of the three London Districts, namely—the Rev. Josiah Banham, J. Willis Britton, William J. Cooke, Robert Culley, George Denton, Charles H. Kelly, Isaiah Parker, E. Lightwood Smith, Ralph M. Spoor, and T. Wynne Jones.

The following are the fifteen laymen:

Mr. Abraham J. Brook,
" Robert Carr,
" Samuel J. Cole,
" William Colman,
" John Gibbs,
" George W. Kilner,
" George W. Munt,
" Henry T. Northcroft,
Mr. Charles Penny,
" William R. Rider,
" James Smith,
" Henry Somerford,
" Charles J. Thomas,
" J. William Thomas,
" W. Lisle Williams.

(2) By the London District Synods: four Ministers and four Laymen in each District, at its September District Synod.

HOME MISSION FUND.

Q. XXVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Home Mission Fund, and other Home Mission Affairs?

A. I. Financial Statement.

The Conference receives the Treasurers' Account for 1898–99, and Report of Income and Expenditure to the Conference of 1900.

II. Grants.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee as follows:

1. In order to secure greater simplicity in the statement of the accounts of the Home Mission Fund, and to show more clearly the relation of each assisted Circuit to the Fund, the Committee shall in its recommendations to the Conference discontinue, as far as possible, the distinction between ordinary and special Grants, so that aid given to Circuits from the Fund shall in general take the form of either Grants to dependent Circuits, or Grants towards the support of Home Missionary Ministers working under the regulations of the Conference for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers.

2. The Committee has voted £9,809 to dependent Circuits, £4,251 5*s.* towards the support of Home Missionary Ministers for the ensuing year, and £3,320 5*s.* to District Home Mission Committees (for particulars, see Schedule A.).

3. The application for aid in one other case has been postponed pending further inquiry.

4. The previously existing arrangement, by which the East Anglia District was allowed to distribute double the amount of increase in the total contributions to the Fund raised in the District, has been terminated, and instead a specified sum has been voted, on condition that the income for 1900 be maintained.

5. The arrangement by which the North Wales Synod distributes the total amount raised in that District is continued.

6. The South Wales Synod is in future to receive a specified sum in addition to the amount raised in the District, such additional sum to be administered by a Committee of the Welsh Assembly for the benefit of Methodism in South Wales.

7. The special arrangement with the Cornwall District Synod is discontinued.

III. Pledges to provide for Married Ministers.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee as follows:

1. Seventeen Circuits were under obligation to provide for married Ministers at this Conference. Of these, eleven will duly fulfil their obligations according to promise; viz. London (Tottenham), London (Stratford), London (West Central Mission), Luton (Chapel Street), Liverpool (Bootle), Southport (Trinity), Burnley (Wesley), Blackburn, Yeadon, Hull (Great Thornton Street), Newcastle (Dilston Road).

2. The following will pay compensation to the Fund; viz. Brighton (Dorset Gardens), £10; Birmingham (Wesley), £40.

3. The following asks for one year's grace: Falkirk Mission.

4. The following fail to fulfil their obligations: Cardiff (Welsh), Dolgelly and Barmouth, and Leominster.

5. Additional houses will also be provided by the following Circuits: Northampton (Queen's Road) at the end of one year; Sheffield (Norfolk Street) at the end of three years; Newcastle (Heaton Road) at the beginning of the first year. Also, previously due: Reading, Bournemouth, Guernsey (French), Conway (Welsh), Buxton (Devonshire Park Mission), Southport (Mornington Road), Radcliffe, Amble.

IV. Furniture for Ministers' Houses:

The Conference resolves:

1. Circuits calling out additional Ministers shall pay annually to the Committee of the Home Mission Fund the sum of £40, until such period as a house be furnished and provision made for the support of a married Minister. When the house is furnished and such provision made, the sum of £210 shall be paid by the Committee towards the cost of furnishing, being the return of four years' payments, and a grant of £50 in addition.

2. Circuits that have already received the appointment of a probationer shall be invited to fall in with this arrangement; and those who consent to do so shall receive a grant of £50 (instead of £40 as at present) when the house is furnished.

V. Alteration, Amalgamation, or Division of Circuits.

The Conference adopts the following proposals:

The Leysian Mission Circuit to be united with the City Road Circuit, with a view to the erection of New Mission premises on a site acquired by the Trustees of the Leysian Mission. This union to take effect at the Conference of 1901.

The Poplar and Bow Circuits to be united, and to become a Branch of the London Mission, under the designation of the "Poplar and Bow Mission."

The Guildford, Alton, Petersfield, and Basingstoke Circuits to be united, and called the "Surrey and North Hampshire Mission." The District Missionary to reside at Godalming, in the new Mission Circuit.

The Thetford and Methwold Circuits to be united.

The Ipswich and Felixstowe Circuits to be united.

The Winchester, Romsey, and Eastleigh Circuits to be united, and called the "South Hampshire Mission."

The Portsmouth (Southsea) and Portsmouth (Pembroke Road) Circuits to be united.

The Gosport and the Civilian Section of the Portsmouth Garrison and Naval Port Circuits to be united.

The St. Columb, Newlyn East, and St. Agnes Circuits to be united, and called the "North Cornwall Mission."

The Pontypool and Abergavenny Circuits to be united.

The Cowbridge Circuit to be placed under Bridgend without a number.

The Brecon and Builth Circuits to be united.

The Llandrindod Society to be transferred from the Pontypridd Circuit in the South Wales District to the Brecon Circuit in the Cardiff and Swansea District.

The Carmarthen Welsh Chapel to be transferred from the Carmarthen Circuit in the Cardiff and Swansea District to the Llandilo Circuit in the South Wales District.

The Brighouse Circuit to be transferred from the Leeds to the Halifax and Bradford District.

The School Street Mission premises to be transferred from Leeds (Woodhouse Moor) Circuit to the Leeds Mission.

The Shadwell and Allwoodley Gates premises to be transferred from Leeds (Woodhouse Moor) to Leeds (Chapel Allerton) Circuit.

The Ebenezer Chapel to be separated from the Sheffield (Ebenezer) Circuit at the Conference of 1901, if a Committee to be appointed this year for the formation of a Sheffield Mission is prepared to take the responsibility for its maintenance. The Circuit, after the separation of Ebenezer Chapel, to be called the Sheffield (Burngreave Road) Circuit.

The Middleham, Hawes, and Bedale Circuits to be united, and called the "Wensleydale Mission."

The Clarence Street and City Road Chapels to be transferred from the Newcastle (Clarence Street) Circuit to the Newcastle (Blenheim Street Mission), which is to be called in future the "Newcastle Mission." The remaining places in the Newcastle (Clarence Street) Circuit to be designated in future the "Newcastle (Heaton Road) Circuit."

The Kendal and Ambleside Circuits to be united.

The Kirkby Stephen and Appleby and the Sedbergh Circuits to be united.

The Carlisle and Dumfries Circuits to be united.

The Peterhead, Banff, and Portessie Circuits to be united under the designation "The North of Scotland Mission," the union to take effect at the Conference of 1901.

VI. Connexional Evangelists.

The Conference consents, on the request of the Committee, to the re-appointment of four married and two unmarried Ministers as Connexional Evangelists, if the Pastoral Session of the Conference has a sufficient number of Ministers at its disposal for the purpose.

VII. Special Mission Committees.

The Conference authorises the Synods in the cases aftermentioned to appoint Special Committees to advise and assist in the management of these Missions, and directs the Quarterly Meetings concerned to act in harmony with the Committees so appointed:

Second London	Wandsworth Road Mission.
Second London	Surrey and North Hampshire Mission.
Third London...	Sussex Mission (East).
Third London...	Sussex Mission (Central).
East Anglia	East Suffolk Mission.
Portsmouth	South Hampshire Mission.
Cornwall	North Cornwall Mission.
Exeter...	Devon and Dorset Mission.
Bristol and Bath	Bristol Mission.

VIII. Reports of Commissions.

1. Chatham.—The Conference receives the Report and reappoints the Commission, as under, to consider and deal with the pressing need that exists for the establishment of a Central Mission: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Ministers and Circuit Stewards of the Rochester and Chatham Garrison Circuits, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Richard W.

Allen, John Bell (B), Walford Green, John Hornabrook, Jabez Ingram, W. Rodwell Jones, Charles H. Kelly, Peter Thompson; with Messrs. Alfred G. Curtiss, Henry Holloway, George Lidgett, James Osborn (Southend), J. Crowle Smith, James E. Vanner, Ezra T. Wilks, and Peter F. Wood. The Rev. James Fletcher, Convener.

2. Portsmouth District.—The Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the Commission to inquire into the condition of Methodism, and advise the Circuits and Synod thereon. In harmony with the request of the Synod, the Commission is further directed to act with a Committee representing the Wimborne, Blandford, Poole, Wareham, Swanage, Dorchester, and Weymouth Circuits in considering the geographical and financial position of these Circuits with a view to re-arrangement and alteration. The following is the Commission: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the members of the District Home Mission Committee, Rev. Richard W. Allen, John Bell (B), Thomas Cross, John Hornabrook, Dennis Kemp; with Messrs. George Curtis, Francis Darracott, William Hedges, John H. Lile, D.L., and John E. Stafford. The Rev. George T. Dixon, Convener.

3. Worcester.—The Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the Commission, as under, to consider and advise upon the position of Methodism in Worcester and the neighbourhood, and to promote the Scheme for Chapel Extension in the city of Worcester: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Treasurers and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, Rev. Joseph Bush, Wesley Butters, Richard Harding (B), James S. Haworth, John Hornabrook, Josiah Mee, Joseph Posnett, and Enoch Salt; with Messrs. Charles Akrill, Thomas Barnsley, William Bayliss, Joseph Beckett, Alban G. Buller, James Couse, W. Fiddian Green, W. Frank Green, William Hunt, J. Bayley Lees, John I. Parkes, and George H. Stephenson. The Rev. Enoch Salt, Convener.

4. Liverpool.—The Conference receives the Report of the Commission, rejoices in the prospect it gives of additional Chapel accommodation, and the provision of suitable premises for Mission operations on a much larger scale, and commends the further dealing with this important project to the Committee of the Liverpool Mission, which is enlarged and strengthened with a view to carrying out this resolution.

5. Whitby and Darlington District.—The Conference receives the Report, heartily approves of the work already done by the Commission, and re-appoints the same, as under, to inquire into the condition of all the dependent Circuits, and especially of Methodism in Wensleydale, with a view to devise methods for the more efficient working of the same, and also to visit any other Circuit in the District that might invite the Commission to advise as to the strengthening and extension of Methodism: The members of the District Home Mission Committee, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, Rev. Henry E. Gregg, William Griffiths, John Hornabrook, and Dr. Randles; with Messrs. Moses Atkinson, Thomas R. Ferens, Norval W. Helme, John R. Hill, and J. Cory Monkhouse. The Rev. Simpson Johnson, Convener.

6. Oxford District.—On the request of the Synod the Conference appoints the following Commission "to inquire into the state of our Church in the Oxford District, with a view to the more efficient organisation of some of the rural Circuits, and the suggestion of means for dealing with the special openings for extension in the large towns of the District": The District Home Mission Committee, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Josiah Banham, James Chapman, John Hornabrook, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., Enoch Salt, Dr. Stephenson, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.; with Messrs. Joseph Beckett, Arthur W. Black, J. Calvert Coates, William Hedges, Thomas Mace, John H. Mason, and William Mewburn. The Rev. William Bradfield, B.A., Convener.

IX. Methodism in Sheffield.

In view of the proposal to separate Ebenezer Chapel from the Sheffield (Ebenezer) Circuit and to place it under the management of a Mission Committee, the Conference appoints a Committee to arrange for the formation of a Sheffield Mission, with power to negotiate for the transfer of the Ebenezer Chapel and of any other old chapels in Sheffield that may need to be worked as Missions. The Committee is also empowered to select a site for and undertake the erection of central mission premises in Sheffield if it be thought desirable to do so. The following is the Committee: The Chairman of the District, the Superintendent Ministers of the Sheffield Circuits, the Ministers appointed to the Mission, Rev. Walter Ainsworth; with Messrs. John Aizlewood, Thomas Cole, T. Skelton Cole, John B. Eaton, Henry Emmerson, Joseph Goodall, John Gregory, John Hardcastle, Richard G. Holland, Samuel M. Johnson, James Lamb, Frederick W. Laycock, LL.B., William W. Meggitt, William F. Osborn, William Parkin, Abel Priestley, William Richards, William A. Roberts, John G. Shillito, Frederick Stacey, William Stephenson, Samuel E. Thompson, Benjamin G. Wood, W. Hall Wood, and Joseph Worrall. The Rev. Josiah E. Whydale, Convener.

X. District Home Mission and Chapel Committees.

The Conference provisionally resolves:

1. Instead of the appointment of small separate District Committees for Home Mission and Chapel affairs, one larger and united Committee shall be appointed for both purposes.

2. This united Committee shall be called the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and shall consist of ten Ministers and ten Laymen, to be chosen at the September Synod. The ministerial section of the Committee shall include the Chairman and the Financial Secretary of the District, who shall be members ex officio, and two Secretaries of the Committee to be appointed by the September Synod, one of whom shall have special charge of all schedules and documents relating to Chapel affairs. The Laymen so appointed shall during their tenure of office be members of the Synod.

3. The Synod shall also have power, if it be deemed desirable, to appoint as additional members of the Committee five Ministers and five Laymen, the latter of whom may be selected from members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the District, whether members of the Synod or otherwise, but this election shall not constitute such persons members of the Synod.

4. The Committee shall meet at stated intervals, to be determined in each case by the Synod, and at such other times as the Chairman shall see fit to summon it.

5. The Committee shall discharge the duties heretofore assigned to the District Home Mission and District Chapel Committees, respectively. Special consideration shall be given to all applications for grants to dependent Circuits and Home Mission Stations, and to all requests for additional Ministers, or for the reduction in the number of Ministers, and the Committee shall prepare recommendations to the Synod on all such applications and requests.

6. The Committee shall consider and advise the Synod respecting all proposals for the division or amalgamation of Circuits, or alteration of the boundaries of Circuits, and shall minutely inquire into the circumstances of our Churches, and of the population, and as to the number of effective local preachers, class-leaders, and responsible office-bearers, so as to avoid the creation of weak Circuits or of Circuits unable to deal with the needs of large and populous localities.

7. The Committee shall either itself, or by its Sub-Committees, at least once in every year meet the Ministers, Circuit Stewards, and Lay Representatives in the Synod of each dependent Circuit and Home Mission Station in the District, and shall receive such statements of accounts and such other information as will enable them to give suitable advice respecting the finances and conditions of work in such Circuits.

This direction shall also apply, as far as possible, to all Circuits having only one Minister, whether dependent or not.

8. In any case in which the Conference shall empower the Synod to appoint a Committee for the management of any special Mission in the District, it shall be competent for the Synod, if it deem such a course desirable, to appoint the Home Mission and Chapel Committee of the Synod to act as such Committee of Management.

9. The Committee may advise respecting the purchase of sites, and the promotion of schemes for the extension of Methodism, in both towns and villages.

10. The Committee shall be empowered to institute inquiries as to the best methods of reviving and extending the work of God in those Circuits which are stationary or declining or in which the growth of the population or the boundaries of the Circuit have made adequate efforts by the Circuit impossible.

11. The Committee shall have power to appoint a small Sub-Committee that can easily and promptly be called together to consider, in conjunction with the Chairman of the District, any ordinary applications intended for the Monthly Meetings of the Chapel Committee. All such applications, with the resolutions adopted thereon, shall be reported at the next meeting of the Committee. Any case which shall be deemed by the Chairman specially important and critical shall be considered in the first instance by the full Committee.

No sale of any Chapel for which a substitute is not to be provided, or respecting which there is a difference of opinion in the Circuit, shall be recommended without the sanction of the full Committee.

The examination and report on the Annual Chapel Schedules shall be made at a Meeting of the full Committee to be held prior to the May Synod.

12. Besides attending to the formal business of the Committee, it is hoped that all its members will take a personal interest in the Home Mission and Chapel schemes of the several Circuits, and will seek in every way possible to promote the interests of the General Funds in the District.

N.B.—A careful digest of all regulations affecting the work of the Home Mission and Chapel Committee shall be prepared for the use of the Members.

XI. Yearly Collection.

The Conference finally adopts the new legislation in the terms following:

1. A separate Fund shall be formed, to be called the "Connexional Fund," to meet Connexional charges. These charges shall for the present include:

(i) All items now described as "Connexional Expenses" not chargeable to Circuits.

(ii) Supplies for afflicted and deceased Ministers.

(iii) Circuit travelling for aged and infirm Ministers.

(iv) Aid grants to special cases for removals and afflictions, and grants for furnishing additional Ministers' houses.

2. The income of the Fund shall be derived from:

(i) Annual collections to be made in all our chapels not later than April, the amount to be forthwith remitted to the Deputy Treasurer and reported at the ensuing May Synods.

(ii) Special donations and bequests.

3. The Connexional Collection shall be made for the first time as soon as possible after the Conference of 1900, and the Yearly Collection in the classes shall be discontinued.

N.B.—The foregoing resolution as to the Yearly Collection shall not apply to the North and South Wales Districts, in which (upon the request of their own Synods and of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly) the Yearly Collection in the classes shall be made as formerly, and, in addition, the new Congregational Collection for the Connexional Fund shall be also made.

4. The Connexional Fund shall be administered by a Committee, to be annually appointed by the Conference, consisting (in addition to the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference) of twenty Ministers and twenty-two Laymen. For the present the Treasurers and Secretaries of the Home Mission Fund shall act as officers of the Connexional Fund.

5. In view of the balance of loss sustained by the Home Mission Fund in relinquishing the Yearly Collection, and the urgent need for the extension of our work in all parts of the kingdom, a Home Missionary meeting shall be held in every Chapel and Preaching-place in the Connexion.

XII. Name of the Fund.

The Fund shall in future be designated:

THE HOME MISSION FUND

(formerly "The Home Mission and Contingent Fund").

XIII. Officers and Committee.

1. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. JOHN BOND and Mr. THOMAS WALKER, Treasurers, and to the Committee, for their services during the past year.

2. The Rev. JOHN BOND and Mr. THOMAS WALKER are re-appointed the Treasurers for the ensuing year; and the Rev. HENRY J. POPE, D.D., is re-appointed Deputy Treasurer.

3. Any rules which require the appointment of a fixed proportion of members of the Committee to be selected from persons resident in London shall be rescinded after this year.

4. The following persons are appointed the Home Mission Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Fund; the Treasurers and Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism; the Treasurers and Secretary of the London Wesleyan Methodist Mission; the Foreign Missionary Secretaries.

The Rev. EDWARD GREEVES is the Convener.

LIVERPOOL MISSION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference adopts the following Resolution:

Rev. Charles Garrett.

The Rev. Charles Garrett having received permission to become a Supernumerary, the Representative Session of the Conference places on record its high appreciation of his long-continued and devoted services to our Church. Not only has his work in Liverpool during the last twenty-eight years been greatly owned of God in the conversion of sinners and in the rescue and salvation of great numbers of the lapsed masses, but he has also exercised a most beneficial influence upon the public life of the city, and has done much to promote the social and administrative reforms of the last few years. The Conference regrets that affliction and increasing age have prevented him from attending its sessions; and prays that his health may be speedily restored, and that God's richest blessings may be with him through many years of honourable and useful retirement.

3. The following are appointed the Committee for the [redacted]ning year:

WORN OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XXIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference is glad to learn from the Financial Statement of the Treasurers that every item of income shows a gratifying increase, and that after meeting all the liabilities for the year there is a credit balance of £2,890 17*s.* 2*d.*, which has been carried to the Suspense Account. There has been received, including interest, £1,092 13*s.* 2*d.* on account of Special Effort.

3. The Conference desires to note with thankfulness to God that this is the sixtieth year of the contributions in the classes; it rejoices in the loyalty of the Methodist people to the arrangement which, with unanimous consent, was made in the centenary year of Methodism; and in view of the fact that the liabilities which are coming upon the Fund are continually increasing, the Conference renews its declaration as to the necessity of maintaining this source of income, and again directs the Ministers to bring the claims of the Fund before the members of our Church at the time of the visitation of the classes.

4. The Conference resolves that the scale of allowances made to Widows for the present year be ten shillings for each year the husband spent in the full work of the ministry, with a bonus of fourteen pounds.

5. The thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who have made special donations; to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies; and to the District and Circuit Treasurers for their services during the year.

6. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER for their assiduous and valuable services as General Treasurers, and they are re-appointed for the ensuing year.

7. (1) Allowances are paid half-yearly, in advance; the dates of payment being August 10 and February 10.

(2) Funeral allowances are paid for Supernumerary Ministers and for Widows of Supernumerary Ministers, when needed.

8. The Conference directs that Collections in aid of the Fund be made in all our chapels; that the claims of the Fund be specifically brought before the Members during the visitation of the Classes in September; and that efforts be made to obtain new annual subscriptions.

9. In consideration of the fact that the Yearly Collection will be taken out of the classes, the Conference directs that after this year the contributions for the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund be made in the classes at the December visitation.

10. The following are appointed the Committee of Management for the ensuing year: The Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. JOHN L. BARKER, the General Treasurers; together with the

Rev. Josiah Banham,
" J. Willis Britton,
" Joseph Bush,
" James Chapman,
" George Charter,

" Charles H. Kelly,
" William Perkins,
" Dr. Henry J. Pope,
" Dr. Rigg,
" Alfred Sargent,
" Ralph M. Spoor,
" Dr. Waller,
" William L. Watkinson,
" J. Cornelius Wright,
Mr. Edward Aston, Stockport,
" Moses Atkinson, Leeds,
" Arthur Baines, Hanley,
" Thomas Barnsley, Birmingham,
Mr. William Bayliss, Wolverhampton,
" James W. Brown, Bolton,
" James Burnley, Bradford,
" J. Calvert Coates, London,
" Thomas Cole, jun., Sheffield,
" William Howell Davies, Bristol,
" William H. Greenwood, Halifax,
" T. Morgan Harvey, Tunbridge Wells,
" George E. Hine, London,

" Herbert Sharp, Bingley,
Sir Clarence Smith, Shooter's Hill,
Mr. Thomas Walker, Bolton,
William H. Walker, London,
" J. Tudor Walters, Leicester.

The Committee shall superintend the general working of the Fund, and also consider and decide upon such peculiar cases of affliction and distress among the Supernumerary Ministers and Ministers' Widows as may be recommended by the District Synods for special and occasional relief.

11. The following are appointed the Sub-Committee for the Invalid Ministers' Rest Fund:

Rev. John Shaw Banks,
" Thomas J. Choate,
" Charles Garrett,
" Walford Green,
" John Hornabrook,
" Dr. Randles,

N.B.—For the Discipline Committees of the several Branches of the Institution see p. 216.

12. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) Wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Institution; and these Collections shall be made, if possible, in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all Subscriptions and Collections for the Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by inquiry at the May Synod, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and education; and it directs the General Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

(4) A minimum charge for maintenance shall be made, which every Student shall be expected to defray; it being, however, distinctly understood that the General Committee shall be empowered to remit the charge wherever, and in so far as, it may be found on inquiry that any Student is unable to pay. And further, all Students who are able, either themselves or by their parents and friends, to add, to the payment for maintenance, payment on account of education, should be urged to do so.

(5) The Conference directs that information be given to the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Probationer, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept of those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their Institution training.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges, Day Schools, Sunday Schools, and the Connexional Sunday-school Union; and directs that an Abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix III.)

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, to Mr. THOMAS BARNSLEY, and to Mr. WILLIAM VANNER, for their services as Treasurers of the Education Fund.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. WALFORD GREEN, Mr. THOMAS BARNSLEY, and Mr. WILLIAM VANNER,* Treasurers of the Education Fund.

The special duty of Mr. William Vanner shall be the charge of the Sunday-school Union branch of the finance.

5. The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Day-school premises.

6. Administrative Resolutions.—The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of [redacted]rking of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3) The Conference directs that in all cases of difficulty in carrying on our Connexional Day Schools that are likely to result in the closing or transfer of such Schools, before such action be initiated the District Education Committee shall be consulted; it being understood that such consultation shall not interfere with the direction of the Conference requiring consultation with the General Education Committee.

(4) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee.

When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect, the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee, and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz. that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(5) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School, so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(6) (i) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council—to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing,—the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto: the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School Management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

7. The Conference further directs as follows:

(1) All who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools shall communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(2) The Managers of every School shall require from the Teacher, at least once a year, a report as to the nature and extent of the Religious Instruction given in the School, in order that they may be satisfied that the truths of Scripture are regularly taught to the children.

(3) It is deemed desirable that the Managers shall arrange, in conjunction with the Teacher, for regular examinations of the School in Religious Knowledge; such examinations to be conducted, as to time and method, as circumstances may require.

(4) A General Report on the Religious Instruction given in the Day Schools, founded upon the Teachers' Reports from the several Schools, as well as upon the personal visitation of the Ministers, shall be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings, when the Returns as to the Day and Sunday Schools of the Circuit are presented.

(5) The October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

8. Resolutions of 1891, 1895, and 1899.—The Conference directs that its declaration made in 1891, and repeated in 1895, be reprinted as follows:

(1) That the primary object of Methodist policy in the matter of Elementary Education is the establishment of School Boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area, and the placing of a Christian unsectarian school within reasonable distance of every family. This is of special importance in rural districts, where our people have no alternative to the compulsory attendance of their children at Anglican schools.

(2) That there should be no increased grant of public funds, whether from the local rates or from the imperial taxes, to denominational schools, unless that increased grant is accompanied by adequate and representative public management.

(3) That no National System of Education which shall exclude from the Day Schools the Bible, and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers, suited to the capacities of children, will meet the necessity of the country.

(4) That our Connexional Training Colleges should be maintained in full vigour and efficiency.

(5) And, lastly, with respect to our Connexional Day Schools, the Conference repeats its often declared sense of the great services they have rendered to Methodism, and to the sacred cause of National Christian Education; and it emphasises their special importance in those localities where it is impossible to establish School Boards acting in districts of sufficient area, and having under their control Christian unsectarian schools.

(6) That in any National System of Education, the Bible and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers suited to the capacities of children will meet the necessity of the country, and that the introduction of any Catechism into the Board Schools is highly objectionable.

9. Sunday Schools.—The third Sunday in October in each year shall be observed as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday Schools and young people.

10. The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of Catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our own Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.

11. The Conference resolves that, while it may be well to provide a separate service for very young children, it is most undesirable that scholars of eight years of age and upwards should be kept from the services in our chapels.

12. The Conference directs that the District Education Committee shall be consulted before a Sunday School is closed.

13. Day and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

14. The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 20 in each year.

15. District Sunday-school Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

16. The New Code and Higher Elementary Education.—The Conference approves the action of the Education Committee in reference to the New Code and the Minute establishing Higher Elementary Schools, and adopts the resolutions of the Committee contained in a Memorandum sent to the Board of Education.

17. Voluntary Schools Act, 1897.—(1) The following is the Constitution of the Wesleyan Day School Associations as amended and approved by the Board of Education, November, 1899:

(i) The Managers of each School in the Association shall elect one representative for each School Department under a separate Head Teacher; such election to take place in the month of February before the close of each third financial year. The representative need not be a member of the Managing Committee.

(ii) Representatives of the Managers shall elect from among themselves, not later than March 1 in each third financial year, the members of the Governing Body of the Association; one such member being elected for every four, or fraction of four, Schools or Departments, to serve on the Governing Body for the three financial years next ensuing.

(iii) The elected members of the Governing Body shall co-opt an additional number of members, not being more than one-third as many as the elected members, for the three financial years next ensuing.

(iv) The Governing Body shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, and a Secretary. All vacancies on the Governing Body, during the three financial years next ensuing, shall be filled up by co-option. The Governing Body shall be arranged so as to provide that, as far as practicable, at least half the Governing Body shall consist of Laymen.

(v) The Governing Body shall be empowered to prepare a scheme in each year, to be submitted to the Education Department, for the distribution of the Special Aid Grant allocated under the Voluntary Schools Act, 1897; but Central and Local Committees, consisting of members of the Governing Body and others, may be appointed for the purpose especially of obtaining the information necessary for the preparation of such Scheme.

(vi) The Governing Body may in no case interfere with the management of any associated School, but may advise with the Managers.

(vii) The Governing Body, elected not later than March 1 in the third financial year, shall enter upon office on April 1 next following.

(viii) The Governing Body shall vacate office at the end of the third financial year, viz. March 31 of that year.

(ix) The Secretary of the retiring Governing Body shall communicate with the Managers of each School in the Association, not later than February 1 in the third financial year, requesting the Managers to elect one representative for each School Department under a separate Head Teacher. The Secretary shall also convene the elected representatives of the Managers who shall elect the Governing Body.

(x) The Voluntary Schools Act became law on April 8, 1897, and the State financial year, for which Aid Grant is annually paid, runs from April 1 to March 31: hence the first triennial period of three financial years, for the purposes of this Constitution, will end with the financial year 1899–1900, i.e. upon March 31, 1900.

(2) The Associations are as follows:

(i) London and South-east Association.—Including all the Wesleyan Schools in the following Districts: First London, Second London, Third London, Bedford and Northampton, Kent, East Anglia, Oxford, and Portsmouth. The Rev. Dr. Waller, Chairman; Mr. George Frederick Baker, Vice-Chairman; Mr. Joseph H. Cowham, Secretary.—Wesleyan Training College, Westminster, S.W.

(ii) South-west Association.—Including all the Wesleyan Schools in the following Districts: Devonport and Plymouth, Cornwall, Exeter, Bristol and Bath, and Cardiff and Swansea Sir George Smith, Chairman; Mr. Albert Petter, Vice-Chairman; Mr. J. S. Winsor, Secretary.—16, Hammet Street, Taunton.

(iii) Midland Association.—Including all the Wesleyan Schools in the following Districts: Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Macclesfield, Sheffield, and Nottingham and Derby. Mr. Thomas Barnsley, Chairman; Mr. John Hall, Vice-Chairman; Mr. William Parkin, Secretary.—The Mount, Sheffield.

(iv) North-west Association.—Including all the Wesleyan Schools in the following Districts: Liverpool, Bolton, and Carlisle. Mr. William Oulton, Chairman; the Rev. Albert Bishop, Vice-Chairman; Mr. Joseph S. Horn, Secretary.—18, Nicholas Street, Burnley.

(v) North Central Association.—Including all the Wesleyan Schools in the following Districts: Manchester, Halifax and Bradford, and Leeds. The Rev, Dr. Randles, Chairman; Mr. J. Haigh Wice, Vice-Chairman; Mr. Joseph Grundey, Secretary.—11, Warren Street, Stockport.

(vi) North-east Association.—Including all the Wesleyan Schools in the following Districts: Lincoln, Hull, York, Whitby and Darlington, and Newcastle-on-Tyne. Mr. Thomas C. Hutchinson, Chairman; the Rev. Thomas Jenkin, Vice-Chairman; Mr. David A. Holdsworth, Secretary.—22, Eldon Square, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

MIDDLE-CLASS EDUCATION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and expresses its thankfulness for the success of the movement for Middle-class Education.

2. The Conference receives with pleasure the favourable reports of the Schools at Truro, Penzance, Camborne, Bury St. Edmunds, Woodhouse Grove, Congleton, Trowbridge, Canterbury, Folkestone, Jersey, Queenswood, Clapham, and Bromyard.

3. The Rev. Edward J. Brailsford and the Rev. J. Charles Trafford are appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. Dr. Waller, the Rev. Edward J. Brailsford, the Rev. William Arthur Labrum, and the Rev. E. Blanshard Keeling are appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist Girls' School Association, Limited. The Rev. Dr. Waller and the Rev. John Gould are re-appointed Directors of the East Anglian Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. Marshall Hartley and Mr. Samuel Wright are re-appointed Directors of the Woodhouse Grove School, Limited. The Rev. H. Epworth Thompson and the Rev. James Kent are appointed Directors of the Cheshire and North Staffordshire Wesleyan Middle-class School Association, Limited. The Rev. Dr. Waller and Mr. W. Howell Davies are re-appointed Directors of the Western Counties Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. Dr. Waller and the Rev. Ralph M. Spoor are appointed Directors of the Kent Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. John James Brown and the Rev. Philip G. Adair are re-appointed Directors of the Jersey Ladies' College Company, Limited. The Rev. Dr. Waller, the Rev. Marshall Hartley, and Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A., are re-appointed Directors of the Queenswood

School, Limited. The Rev. Dr. Waller and Mr. John W Sankey are re-appointed Directors of the Bromyard Wesleyan Methodist High School for Girls, Limited.

4. The Education Committee shall have charge of Middle-class Education. A special Sub-Committee shall be appointed in the interests of Middle-class Schools, which shall report to and through that Committee to the Conference.

5. The Conference does not recommend that when educational matters are under consideration in the District Synod any report on the numerical and financial condition of the Middle-class Schools should be given, but is of opinion that these Schools should be commended to the cordial sympathy and support of the members of Synods.

Special Committee on Secondary Education.—The Conference re-appoints the following Special Committee on Secondary Education:

The Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; and the

Mr. J. Wesley Walker,
" Walter P. Workman, M.A., B.Sc.

The Rev. Dr. WALLER and Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., are the Conveners.

Joint Committee of Inquiry.—The Conference re-directs the Middle-class Education Committee and the Special Committee on Secondary Education to meet together during the year to inquire and report as follows:

1. As to the constitution and equipment of the Connexional Middle-class Schools; and to invite, if thought desirable, representatives of the various Boards of Directors, and the Head Masters and Head Mistresses.

2. As to all matters affecting Wesleyan Secondary Education.

Government Grants to Secondary Schools.—In view of the proposed legislation in reference to Secondary Education, the Conference declares itself opposed to grants of public money being made to denominational Secondary Schools without the protection of a conscience clause; and also records its strong opinion that in cases where public educational authorities establish Secondary Schools no formularies distinctive of any particular denomination should be permitted to be taught therein, and no dogmatic or ecclesiastical tests should be introduced.

The Conference receives with pleasure the Reports of WESLEY COLLEGE, SHEFFIELD, and QUEEN'S COLLEGE, TAUNTON, Limited. Although not Connexional Schools, these were established primarily in the interests of Methodism, and are under Methodist management. Each has rendered invaluable service to the cause of Christian education and to the Methodist Church.

The Conference appoints the Rev. J. Agar Beet, D.D., and Mr. Obed Hosegood, jun., to be Directors of Queen's College, Taunton, Limited.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XXXII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the Children's Home and Orphanage?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IV.)

2. The Conference hereby authorises the President to affix his signature as Representative of the Conference to any sale of property recommended by the General Committee of the Children's Home.

3. The Conference rejoices that there is again a substantial increase in the income of the Children's Home, and once more heartily commends the work to the generous support of our congregations and Sunday Schools.

Retirement of Dr. Stephenson.

4. The Conference hears with profound regret of the resignation of Dr. Stephenson. The Conference expresses in the most emphatic terms its sense of the inestimable service Dr. Stephenson has for so many years rendered, and of the great loss which his retirement must be to the work of the Children's Home. The Conference could not bring itself to entertain the idea of Dr. Stephenson's retirement, were it not for the strongly expressed judgment of his medical advisers that this step is inevitable, and that his release from the cares and anxieties of the Home may, by the blessing of God, secure to him restored health, and power to render further service to the Church. The Conference remembers with devout thankfulness how this work was founded by Dr. Stephenson, and has grown from the very smallest beginnings under his fostering care. His courage, perseverance, and enthusiasm secured for the Home the support and affection of the Methodist Churches at home and abroad, and not of the Methodist Churches alone, but of many others to whom this beautiful and blessed enterprise has commended itself as one of the most admirable of the philanthropies of the time. Dr. Stephenson's breadth of view and varied genius have given to the Children's Home a character altogether different from, and incalculably superior to, that of the ordinary charitable institution. By the adoption of the "Family System," and by instituting an order of consecrated Christian women for the service of the orphan and the destitute, he has taught British philanthropists the best and most effective way of dealing with the children of sorrow. It is impossible to express in the compass of any resolution the value of such service as Dr. Stephenson has rendered to the Church and to the country. But the Conference is confident that the Institution he has so successfully established will, for many generations, do its beneficent work on the lines laid down by its founder. The Conference trusts that in the providence of God Dr. Stephenson may yet be spared for many years of fruitful service in the Church on earth. It trusts that he will still preserve a close and happy association with the Home, and assures him that his counsel will always be valued by the Committees, and that his presence will ever be welcome in the gatherings of the children and officers. The Conference prays that the remainder of his life may be full of joy and blessing, and that the memory of the thousands of young lives saved from sorrow, shame, and sin by his instrumentality may be to him a constant source of comfort and inspiration.

5. The Conference appoints the Rev. Dr. Stephenson Honorary Principal of the Children's Home.

6. The Conference sanctions the formation of a "Board of Trustees for Children's Home Purposes," and hereby approves the draft of the Deed which has been prepared by Mr. John Cooper and approved by the Committee of the Home.

7. The Conference appoints the following persons to be [redacted] Board of Trustees for Children's Home Purposes :

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the Religious Observance of the Lord's Day?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report, and re-affirms its steadfast belief in the divine authority and perpetual obligation of the Lord's Day, and the conviction of the necessity that all effectual defence and assertion of the Lord's Day rest must proceed on that basis.

2. The Conference rejoices in the closing of the Crystal Palace on the Lord's Day during the past year, and places on record its warm approval of the steps taken by the Temperance Committees of the three London Districts, in concurrence with kindred organisations, to secure this result.

3. The Conference repeats the recommendation of last year that special attention be drawn in all our Chapels and Sunday Schools during the ensuing year to the serious increase in worldly diversions, and in unnecessary cycling and railway travelling on the Lord's Day, and that an earnest protest be offered against them. The Conference also directs that the Temperance Committees of the various Synods be urged to make a vigorous use of the powers recently assigned to them in order to a more direct oversight of the Lord's Day question (see Minutes, 1899, p. 406).

4. The Rev. JAMES FINCH and Mr. PERCY W. POCOCK are re-appointed Secretaries; and the following is the Committee for the next year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., Temperance Secretary; and the Secretaries of the Committee.

(2) Ministers and Laymen residing in or near London:

Rev. Josiah Banham,
„ William J. Cooke,
„ George Denton,
„ Walter Hawkins,
„ William Middleton,
„ Joseph Nettleton,
„ Isaiah Parker,
Sir George Hayter Chubb, Bart.,
Mr. J. Calvert Coates,
„ William Hedges,
„ George W. Munt,
„ Robert W. Perks, M.P.,
Sir Clarence Smith.

(3) Ministers and Laymen residing in the Country:

Rev. Thomas J. Choate,
„ Charles W. L. Christien,
„ Samuel F. Collier,
„ James Crabtree,
„ John T. F. Halligey,
„ John Hornabrook,
„ William Kendrew,
„ George Latham,
„ Joel Mallinson,
„ John Nancarrow,
„ Dr. Randles,
„ Thomas Sanderson,
„ John C. Stuart,
„ Sampson Weaver,
„ Silvester Whitehead,
Mr. John R. Byrom,

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XXXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix V.)

2. The Conference recommends that, on the last Sunday of November in each year, special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance.

3. The Conference, while adhering to its oft-repeated declarations in relation to entire Sunday Closing and Local Option, nevertheless declares its strong conviction that the Minority Report of the Royal Commission on the Liquor Licensing Laws provides a satisfactory basis for a large and efficient measure of Temperance reform; and urges all the friends of the Temperance cause to unite in seeking to obtain legislation upon the general lines of that Report. A Memorial in this sense, signed by the President and Secretary of the Conference, shall be sent to the Marquis of Salisbury, and a copy of the same to the Leader of the House of Commons, to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, and to Sir William Harcourt.

4. The Conference expresses its great disappointment that facilities have not been afforded in this Session of Parliament for passing the Sunday Closing Bill for Monmouthshire, and the Bill for preventing the sale of intoxicating liquor to children under sixteen years of age.

5. The Conference again calls attention to its recommendation that in all our Bands of Hope the Quarterly Ticket of membership shall be used, and that this ticket shall be given not only to those who are members of the Band of Hope in the ordinary way, but also to any young people in our Sunday Schools who may for various reasons be unable to attend Band of Hope Meetings, but who are willing to enrol themselves in the Sunday-school Teacher's Pledge-Book.

6. The Conference commends to the interest and co-operation of our people the Twentieth Century Pledge-Signing Crusade of the Free Churches.

7. The Conference recommends the appointment of a Circuit Temperance Secretary in every Circuit; and Superintendents are directed to send the name and address of such Secretary to the Secretary of the Temperance Committee of the Conference not later than the end of September; but where no Circuit Temperance Secretary is appointed, the Superintendents of Circuits are directed to send to the Connexional Temperance Secretary by the same date the names and addresses of all the Secretaries of Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies in their respective Circuits.

8. The Conference deeply deplores the widespread prevalence of betting, gambling, and kindred practices, and expresses its grief that the newspaper press of this country stimulates these vices by the publication of sporting items. It declares its hope that before long there may be some effective legislation for the suppression of these evils, and especially for prohibiting the publication of betting items by the newspapers. And the Conference urges all our people to exert themselves in all possible ways for the suppression of this vice, and especially to seek to influence Parish, District, and County Councils to use their powers against the practice of gambling in public places.

9. The Conferenee recommends that, in places where it is impossible to form an adult society holding frequent meetings, a society shall be formed by the appointment of a secretary, and by keeping a roll of abstainers.

10. The Conference declares its strong conviction that the laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors to natives in the Orange River Colony and in the Transvaal should be maintained, and vigorously enforced; and resolves that a Memorial in this sense shall be sent to Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Alfred Milner.

11. The Conference also resolves that a copy of the Memorial relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors to natives in the Orange River Colony and the Transvaal be sent to the President of the South African Conference, accompanied by a letter expressing the hope of the Conference that throughout our Empire in South Africa steps may speedily be taken to secure effective prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors to natives.

12. The Conference deplores the great peril to which her Majesty's soldiers and sailors are exposed by the common habit of indiscriminate treating, especially those who are proceeding to or returning from active service, and heartily sympathises with the efforts the Army Temperance Association is putting forth to check this evil. The Conference further earnestly entreats our people to do their utmost by their personal influence, through the press, and in every possible way, to discountenance this practice. And the Conference also resolves that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Secretary of the Army Temperance Association.

13. The Conference declares its profound sorrow and humiliation on account of the lamentable connexion of the British nation with the importation of opium into China, and, in view of the deplorable events now transpiring in that country, re-affirms its oft-repeated protest against the growth and sale by the Indian Government of opium for purposes other than medicinal; and it respectfully urges her Majesty's Government to take into consideration some method by which India may be administered without revenue from this objectionable traffic.

14. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Committee, the Book Steward, the together with three Representatives each, to be chosen by the Wesley Societies at Oxford, Cambridge, and Edinburgh.

3. The Rev. WALFORD GREEN is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. JAMES HOPE MOULTON, M.A., Secretary.

4. The Conference gives power to the Committee to meet occasionally for purely educational purposes, and to add to itself for these purposes persons interested in other Educational Institutions, their number not to exceed six.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Social Purity?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference reaffirms its unflinching opposition to every form of State Regulation of vice, and will strenuously withstand any policy for counteracting the effects of vice which involves such regulation.

3. The Conference directs the Committee to watch the operation of the rules and regulations laid down for the Army by the Government of India, and to take such action as may be desirable to oppose anything of the nature of State Regulation, should it be attempted.

4. In presence of growing laxity of thought and practice in many quarters, the Conference urges upon all Methodists, and especially upon those who have to do with young people in Bible-classes, Guilds, and other Societies, the duty of exercising watchful care over all moral interests, and of exercising an influence which may tend to lessen temptation to evil by the strengthening of sound principles, the discreet communication of necessary information, and the repression of all social customs which are hostile to a high-toned morality.

5. The Conference reminds Wesleyan Methodists throughout the country, that the return of the troops from South Africa will be attended with serious temptation of various kinds to the men, and urges upon them the duty of seeking, especially in regard to declared Wesleyans, to surround them with friendly and healthful influences, in order to lessen these dangers, as far as possible.

6. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Committee.

CONCERTED ACTION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference resolves that a Tabular View of Methodist Statistics, similar to that found in the Methodist Kalendar, be included in the published Minutes of the Conference. (See Appendix XVII.)

3. In order to the further promotion of concerted action the Conference agrees:

That a United Committee be annually constituted by the appointment of Representatives by the several Conferences for the purpose of mutual defence, in the following proportions: viz. Wesleyan Methodists, 16; Primitive Methodists, 8; United Methodist Free Churches, 6; Methodist New Connexion, 4; Bible Christians, 4; Methodist Reform Union, 1; Independent Methodists, 1.

4. The members appointed by this Conference, as its proportion of the United Committee, are the following: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; John Bond, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, Dr. Stephenson, Silvester Whitehead; and Messrs. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., John Cooper, S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., T. Morgan Harvey, William Hunt, Williamson Lamplough, Robert W. Perks, M.P., and H. Arthur Smith, M.A.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The following is the scheme as finally adopted by the Conference.

A. The District Local Preachers' Committee.

(1) At the September Synod of each District a Local Preachers' Committee shall be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Financial Secretary, four other Ministers, and six Local Preachers. If any Local Preachers be chosen who are not already Members of the Synod, they shall by this appointment become Members.

(2) Each Synod shall have power to associate with the Members of the District Local Preachers' Committee other Ministers and Local Preachers interested in the subject, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become Members of the Synod.

(3) Each Synod shall appoint a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(4) At the September Local Preachers' Meeting in each Circuit, a Local Secretary shall be appointed, who shall forthwith forward his name and address, with the names and addresses of all the Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(5) The Local Secretary shall, immediately after the March Local Preachers' Meeting, report to the District Local Preachers' Committee, on prepared forms, the various statistical facts relating to the Local Preachers in that Circuit. The required statistics shall be furnished by the Superintendent to the Circuit Secretary, and the schedule signed by both.

(6) The District Local Preachers' Committee shall prepare a Report based upon the statistics so furnished, and relating to the work of the year, to be presented to the May Synod.

(7) Immediately after the May Synod the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees shall be sent to the Lay Secretary of the Connexional Committee, which shall report thereon to the Conference.

(8) It shall be the duty of the District Local Preachers' Committee to inquire whether the directions of the Conference with regard to the mental and theological culture of Local Preachers have been observed in the various Circuits of the District, and to take necessary steps to assist in carrying out those directions.

(9) The District Local Preachers' Committee is empowered to establish and conduct Voluntary District Examinations of Local Preachers in Theology, Biblical Study, and Homiletics.

(10) Subject always to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee shall endeavour to promote the interest and efficiency of Local Preachers' Meetings in all practicable ways, by suggesting subjects for discussion, providing deputations to visit such Meetings, and otherwise.

(11) Subject to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee may initiate and promote arrangements providing for the ministrations of Local Preachers in Circuits other than their own, especially with a view to the advantage of the neediest and poorest Circuits; and may also undertake arrangements for Special Missions and Services where desired.

B. The Connexional Local Preachers' Committee.

(1) The Connexional Committee shall consider the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees received from the May Synods, and prepare thereon a Report for presentation to the Conference. It shall also furnish a List of Books for guiding the Studies of Local Preachers, and prepare a scheme of Voluntary Examinations with the necessary Examination papers.

(2) A Lay Treasurer, a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the Connexional Committee shall be annually appointed by the Conference.

(3) The following is the Connexional Committee:

(i) The Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Officers of the Committee; with

Rev. William Bradfield, B.A.,
" Joseph Bush,
" James Chapman,
" J. Alexander Clapperton, M.A.,

" Barrow Rule,
" William E. Skinner,
" H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
Sir William H. Stephenson,
Mr. William Tonkin,
" George Wain,
" J. Wesley Walker.
" J. Tudor Walters,

(ii) Mr. MOSES ATKINSON is re-appointed Treasurer of the Committee, and the Rev. JOHN BELL (2) and Mr. J. BAMFORD SLACK, B.A., are re-appointed Secretaries.

3. The subject of the Theological Reading of Local Preachers shall be dealt with by this Committee, together with the working out of the scheme of the Committee which reported to the Conference in 1894 on "A Course of Reading for Local Preachers."

4. A Circuit Plan, containing the full postal address of each Local Preacher, shall be forwarded every quarter by the Secretary of the Circuit Local Preachers' Meeting to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

5. A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a Bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his Creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher, until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan.

6. The following changes are made in the Order and Form of Business for Local Preachers' Meetings as set forth in the Minutes of Conference, 1894.

Page 457, after Question I., for paragraph 2 substitute the following:

The Meeting has authority to make these inquiries. Should an objection affecting his standing on the Plan be formally made against a Local Preacher, the Meeting may proceed to consider it; and if, in its judgment, the objection is sustained, the Superintendent shall determine and pronounce the sentence; subject, however, to the right of appeal against the sentence on the part either of the persons accused, or of the Local Preachers' Meeting, to the District Synods and the Conference.

For paragraph 3, under the same question, the following:

A Local Preacher who has been aggrieved in any matter affecting his standing as a Local Preacher by a Superintendent acting in conjunction with an ordinary Local Preachers' Meeting shall have a right of appeal to a Local Preachers' Meeting specially convened to reconsider the case; and the finding of that Meeting as to matters of fact shall be final. The right to determine the sentence in this, as in all other judicial cases of discipline, is within the exclusive province of the Superintendent, after consultation with his colleagues. And against this sentence all parties shall have a right of appeal to the District Synods and the Conference. Any action, however, which may be taken by the Local Preachers' Meeting cannot interfere with the jurisdiction of the Leaders' Meeting, which is the Court charged with the consideration of questions which affect Church Membership.

7. The statistics required for the annual return to the District Local Preachers' Committee shall be furnished by the Superintendent to the Circuit Secretary, and the schedule shall bear the signatures of both.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Executive Committee of the Twentieth Century Fund, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes.

2. The Conference records its gratitude to the Head of the Church that, throughout the distractions and anxieties of an eventful year, manifold tokens of the divine blessing have attended the progress of the Fund. The Conference learns with satisfaction that contributions amounting to £300,000 have been received and that additional promises have been recorded by many Circuits.

3. The Conference again acknowledges the services rendered by Ministers and Laymen, and especially by Officers and Members of District, Circuit, and Local Committees, and confidently relies upon their continued co-operation.

4. The Conference learns with regret that in a considerable number of Circuits the direction of the last Conference "That arrangements be made in all our Circuits for a systematic appeal to all adherents and friends of Methodism for their support" has not been carried out.

The Conference again directs:

(1) That complete Circuit and Local Registers be made of the names of all "Members of our Church, Teachers and Scholars in our Sunday and Day Schools, Communicants, Seat-holders, or other worshippers and adherents or friends of Methodism" who may be expected to subscribe to the Fund.

(2) That suitable persons be appointed to wait upon all who have not yet contributed.

(3) That renewed efforts be made to secure the assistance of Leaders, Local Preachers, and Sunday-school Officers and Teachers.

(4) That the services of those who have contributed be enlisted as collectors.

The Conference also requests that the special attention of Superintendent Ministers be given to the above regulations, and that in conjunction with their colleagues and Circuit and Local Committees they arrange for a thorough canvass on behalf of the Fund.

5. The Conference is gratified to learn that the Annual Synods have so fully recognised the necessity of a renewed canvass to complete the Fund, and that several Synods have resolved to use their utmost endeavours to raise amounts commensurate with their obligations to this Connexional enterprise. The Conference recommends that the course taken by these Synods in May be followed by all other Synods in September, and that they then determine, with due regard to the claims of the Connexion, the amount which the Districts they represent may be expected to contribute towards the balance still needed to complete the Fund.

6. In order to promote united District action the Conference recommends that wherever possible District Conventions of members of the Synod, District and Circuit Officers of the Fund, and others whose presence may be helpful, be held as soon as possible after the September Synods.

7. The Conference also directs that the General Committee be convened immediately after the District Conventions have been held, to receive the reports of the September Synods, Circuit Committees, and District Conventions, and to take such steps as may, in its judgment, be necessary to complete the Fund. (For names of members of the General Committee, see Appendix XIV.)

8. The members of the General Committee shall be members of the Twentieth Century Fund Committees of the Districts to which they respectively belong.

9. The Conference resolves that the time for the payment of subscriptions towards the amount still required to complete the Fund may be extended to December 31, 1901.

10. The following are appointed the Executive Committee for the ensuing year: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Mr. ROBERT W. PERKS, M.P., Acting Treasurer; the Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON, General Secretary.

Q. XXXIX. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Representative Session, and sent to the annual District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. 1. Order of Conference Sessions, etc. (see Minutes, 1899, p. 349).

2. The New Connexional Fund (see Minutes, 1899, p. 350).

Q. XL. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Synods, when Ministers and Laymen are present?

A. District Home Mission and Chapel Committees (see pp. 266–269).

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to its President, the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., for his able, impressive, and helpful sermon, preached in Burslem Chapel, on Sunday morning, July 29, 1900.

2. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, for his chaste, luminous, and evangelical sermon, preached in Burslem Chapel, on Sunday evening, July 29, 1900.

3. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to its President, the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., for the able services rendered by him as Representative from this Conference to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America.

4. Mr. S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Conference in Ireland, to be held in Cork in June, 1901.

5. Mr. Norval W. Helme is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly, to be held in Llanidloes in June, 1901.

6. The Rev. Walford Green is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers, the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various Connexional Funds in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Minutes, 1889, pp. 413–415.)

7. The Rev. Ralph M. Spoor is directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1901.

N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1901.

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Legal Conference, resident in Great Britain, who is unable to attend the Conference.

8. Mr. William Middlebrook is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference; and, as such, is an ex officio member of the Representative Session.

9. The Rev. George Denton is appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, is an ex officio member of that Session.

Nomination Committee.—1. The Nomination Committee shall consist of (a) the sixteen Lay Representatives elected by the Conference who retire in 1903; viz. Messrs. Joseph Rank, J. Wilcox Edge, T. Morgan Harvey, James Lovatt, Sir Clarence Smith, John R. Hill, Norval W. Helme, George Lidgett, B.A., Henry Bisseker, Major-General A. H. E. Campbell, Peter F. Wood, Ezra T. Wilks, William Hedges, John Broxap, W. Howell Davies, George W. Munt; (b) sixteen Ministers appointed by the Conference in its Pastoral Session (see p. 217); and (c) two Secretaries, one Minister and one Layman.

2. Mr. PETER F. WOOD is re-appointed Lay Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and is directed, in conjunction with the Rev. JAMES CHAPMAN, the Ministerial Secretary, to prepare lists of the persons recommended by the Committee for service on the several Connexional Committees.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries: (a) to convene the Meeting of the Nomination Committee, and to summon to it persons entitled to attend its Meeting; (b) to receive from the Committee of each Connexional Department a list of persons, ex officio and otherwise, who are proposed for appointment upon by the Conference; (c) to present the lists so received to the Nomination Committee; (d) to keep the record of the proceedings of the Committee; and (e) to report to the Conference on its behalf.

4. The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Monday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Session of the Conference. At that Meeting the President of the Conference shall preside, or in his absence some Ex-President or other Minister whom he shall depute; and the Secretary, or some other deputed Representative, of each Connexional Department shall attend to give such information as may be necessary.

5. The Nomination Committee shall consider the lists sent forward by the several Committees of Connexional Departments; it shall take care that the Constitution of each Committee nominated is in accordance with the regulations of the Conference; it shall have power to amend the lists sent forward, as it may deem desirable, and to make any change in reference to Ministers recommended for nomination which the action of the Ministerial Conference may have rendered necessary: but only in cases of necessity shall it make any change in reference to either the Ministerial or Lay nominees of a District Synod, and every change shall be reported to the Conference.

6. The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall be printed in the Conference Agenda, as far as possible: the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and postal address of each Layman.

N.B.—A complete List of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes.

7. Secretaries of Departments shall duly inform all new members, ministerial and lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees.

The Wesley Guild—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Council, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix X.)

2. The following are the Officers and Council:

3. The Rev. WALFORD GREEN is re-appointed Custodian and Registrar, and also Convener of the Committee.

Office of the Theological Institution, Children's, and Auxiliary Funds.—1. The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VIII.)

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Walford Green for his services as Secretary during the year, and he is re-appointed.

Common Cash.—1. The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IX.)

2. The Committee is re-appointed, and consists of the Officers of the various Connexional Funds included in the arrangement.

3. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Walford Green for his services as Secretary during the year, and he is re-appointed.

Admission to the Conference Chapel.—1. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; John T. F. Halligey, William D. L. Slack, D. William Barr; Messrs. William H. Allen, Utrick A.

Brown, LL.D., Arthur R. Shaw, Sir William H. Stephenson, Mr. George Summers.

The Rev. William D. L. Slack is the Convener.

2. The Committee is instructed to reserve the front seats in the gallery of the Conference Chapel for Representatives.

Financial Appeals by Strangers.—Considering the many abuses to which the Connexion is continually exposed by applications from unauthenticated strangers from abroad to use our Trust property for financial ends, the Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the credentials of all such; and to express an opinion as to the advisability or otherwise of allowing the use of our Trust property for the contemplated appeals; the PRESIDENT of the Conference the EX-PRESIDENT; the SECRETARY; with

Rev. Josiah Pentham,	Mr. J. Calvert Contes,
" Albert Clayton,	" Isaac C. Griffith,
" Charles H. Kelly,	" Henry Holloway,
" Allen Rees,	" George W. Hunt,
" Dr. Waller,	" Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. ALLEN REES is the Convener.

Order of Conference Sessions.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference confirms the Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference (Minutes, 1899, p. 349).

The Theological Institution.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Special Committee.

2. In view of the wide differences of opinion with respect to the important issues involved, the Conference re-appoints the Committee, for the further consideration of the entire question of the efficient training of Candidates for our Ministry.

3. The following is the Committee: the members of the General Committee of the Theological Institution (see pp. 287, 288), together with

Rev. William Bradfield, B.A.,	Mr. John Barnsley,

The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is the Convener.

Compulsory Supernumerayship. — 1. The Conference reappoints a Committee to negotiate with certain Supernumeraries with a view to their retirement from the Ministry.

2. The Committee is empowered to make financial arrangements to that end.

3. The following is the Committee:

Rev. Walford Green,	Mr. John L. Barker,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,	„ Williamson Lamplough,
„ G. Stringer Rowe,	„ Thomas Walker.
„ Peter Thompson,

The Rev. PETER THOMPSON is the Convener.

Open-air Preaching.—1. In view of the great place which open-air preaching has held in the formation and growth of our Church, and of its supreme importance as an agency for reaching the masses of people who are as yet outside the influence of the Churches, the Conference appoints a Committee to consider the subject, and to devise means for improving the character of our open-air services, for bringing the arrangements for this work into more definite organisation, and for developing and extending this agency throughout the Connexion.

2. The following is the Committee: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., President of the Conference; FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

The Rev. GEORGE DENTON is the Convener.

Lay Representatives to Conference. — The Conference recommends the Synods to re-elect annually, when practicable, one-third of the total number of Lay Representatives from among such of the Lay Representatives elected at the previous May Synod as shall be eligible and shall offer themselves for re-election.

Conference Arrangements.—1. The Conference appoints its Secretary to be, year by year, an ex officio member of the Arrangements Committee for the next Conference.

2. The Conference directs the Arrangements Committee to consult the President for the year in relation to the Public Meetings proposed to be held in connexion with the Conference.

Free Churches Simultaneous Mission.—The Conference hears with satisfaction that, under the arrangements of the National Council of Evangelical Free Churches, a simultaneous Mission is to be held throughout the country, by which it is hoped to reach the masses of the people by the preaching of the gospel; and the Conference expresses the hope that such Mission will be eminently successful in securing the conversion of many persons and in quickening the spiritual life of the Churches, and commends it to the hearty sympathy and co-operation of our people.

United Free Church of Scotland.—1. In view of the approaching union of the Free and the United Presbyterian Churches of Scotland, the Conference resolves to share in the general congratulations which, on the day of their union, will be offered to our brethren of these Presbyterian Churches.

2. The Conference appoints the Chairman of the Scotland District, and the Rev. George Jackson, B.A., to prepare a suitable address, which shall be signed by the President and Secretary on behalf of the Conference.

3. The Conference further appoints the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, Ex-President, to present the address to the United Free Church of Scotland.

Assassination of the King of Italy.—The Conference having received the lamentable intelligence of the assassination of the king of Italy, cannot refrain from expressing its profound abhorrence of so great a crime, and its sorrow at the cruel removal by death of a ruler who deserved well of his country, and was ever the friend of the throne and people of the United Kingdom.

The Conference desires further to express its respectful and heartfelt sympathy with her Majesty the queen of Italy in her terrible bereavement, and earnestly commends her to the protection and care of Almighty God, and to the consolation which the Father of mercies can alone supply.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. Supplies, List of Reserve, Students.

1. Supplies for Ministers—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister, when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits.

2. Payment of Supplies.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connexion with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

3. List of Reserve.—(1) The retiring President shall furnish to the Committee on Transfers, etc., a report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on the List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(2) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet during the Sessions of each Conference.

(3) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

4. Students.—(1) Accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution, unless the Conference otherwise directs.

(2) The term of residence in the Institution shall be, except in special cases, three years.

(3) Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Local and General Discipline Committees, shall be regarded as commencing his probation at the Conference next ensuing.

If he receive an appointment at the Conference, or be sent by the President as a Supply before Christmas, the year shall count as the first of his probation, and he shall be entitled, after being received into Full Connexion, to the usual allowances of a Minister in Full Connexion.

But if he be not so appointed by the Conference, or sent out by the President as a Supply before Christmas, or if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately after he has been received into Full Connexion, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This resolution does not carry any disability with regard to any other funds than the Connexional Fund.

(4) In the case of Students who have not completed their term at the Institution (whether in their first, second, or third year of residence), but are called out by the President to supply before Christmas, the year shall, in accordance with our ancient usage, be reckoned as the first of their probation.

(5) Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution to complete their term.

(6) Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a degree in any University of the United Kingdom or have passed any equivalent Examination—e.g. the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society, or of the Royal College of Surgeons —shall not of necessity spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of their Tutors and Local and General Discipline Committees, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such cases, their probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing, but subject to the regulations in regard to the probation of Students who have completed their term of three years. (See above, Section 3.)

(7) When it is decided by the Local and General Discipline Committees that, on the ground of unsatisfactory progress, or for reasons of discipline, the full period of three years' training at the Institution should in the case of any Student be shortened, the ministerial probation of such Student shall not be reckoned as beginning until the Conference at which he would have completed his three years' training.

(8) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(9) The Representative of each Branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(10) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall, if no other course be open to them, return to the Institution, and there await the call of the President.

(11) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(12) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment.

(13) The employment of Students as Supplies, otherwise than by the President, during their vacation, shall continue as heretofore to be matter of private arrangement, in regard to which neither the President nor the Home Mission Committee shall have responsibility; except in those special cases in which the Home Mission Committee may grant Supplies, for short periods, to Chairmen of Districts.

(14) A proportion of the Missionary Students shall be trained in the Home Branches of the Theological Institution, and the vacancies so created at Richmond shall be filled by Candidates for the Home Work. Not more than one-third, nor fewer than one-fourth, of the Candidates allocated in each year to the Richmond Branch shall be Candidates for the Home Work; and an equal number of Candidates for the Foreign Work shall be distributed among the Home Branches. All Students for the Foreign Work who, having completed their term, may be placed on the List of Reserve, shall be provided for at the Richmond Branch.

(Minutes, 1812, 1857, 1876, 1879, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1891, 1897.)

II. The Connexion.

5. Title of the Connexion.—Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of the Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Minutes, 1891, p. 321.)

6. Ministerial Members of Connexional Committees. — No Minister, who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

7. Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—(1) A certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation; the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

(2) A complete list of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 319.)

8. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

9. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

10. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any legal opinion obtained from time to time by [redacted]tion of the Conference; and a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may hereafter direct. (Minutes, 1882, pp. 287, 288.)

III. The Conference.

11. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull. (Minutes, 1898, p. 354.)

12. Two Sessions Daily.—With a view to the dispatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily. (Minutes, 1886, p. 297.)

13. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held at the opening of the Representative Session, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises, and the Conference Arrangements Committee is instructed to make the necessary provision for the Service. (Minutes, 1898, p. 360.)

14. Open Session.—An open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the evening of the first day of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1890, p. 422.)

15. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

16. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be ex officio the Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Minutes, 1895, p. 216.)

17. Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.—In response to the inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this regulation. (Minutes, 1887, p. 289.)

18. Disciplinary Inquiries.—The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

19. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher, excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class-leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

20. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 234.)

When a Minister who becomes a Supernumerary for one year is not a member of the Annuitant Society, the extra Grant from the Auxiliary Fund shall be less by the amount which would have been due to him from the Annuitant Society. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

21. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212; revised, 1895.)

22. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any other reason than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund in both its branches.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Minutes, 1896, p. 321.)

23. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his re-appointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218; 1899, p. 246.)

24. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the full work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had supplies during the year. (Minutes, 1897, p. 244.)

25. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connexion with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without pastoral charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215.)

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without pastoral charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

26. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office of emolument of any kind, during his residence abroad, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding, unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(7) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215; 1893, p. 362.)

27. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

28. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The consideration of the records of deceased brethren shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees shall meet.

(2) The obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee; and the official reading of these records shall be discontinued.

(4) The obituary notices of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee; and, if possible, be printed and presented at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods.

(5) The Conference shall, as a rule, transact this solemn business on the Tuesday morning of the third week of its Sessions.

(6) The list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

29. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

30. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 15 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Sessions; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels a copy of the Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 291.)

31. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion (1) all cases needing further inquiry touching the character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon; (2) any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto; or (3) any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 202.)

32. Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—No appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 229.)

33. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst continuing to be employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connexion with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the Districts now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, were intended to be absolutely subject to the jurisdiction of their respective Affiliated Conferences. The Conference declares that they are so subject to the Affiliated Conferences, and that they have ceased to be in connexion with the Yearly Conference; and directs that complete lists of those Ministers shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 231.)

34. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and that Committtee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

35. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 211.)

36. Native Ministers and the Yearly Conference.—For the Resolutions of the Conference on this subject see Minutes, 1895, pp. 217–220.

IV. The Stationing Committee.

37. Election of Representative in District Synod. — The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. i. [1791], p. 256; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

38. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) As soon as possible after the Annual District Synod, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Representatives to the Secretary of the Conference not later than June 1; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

(2) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 25 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete lists of—

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

Also, a list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be [illegible]shed to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1875], p. 709.)

39. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First Draft and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First Draft and the Final Draft, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

40. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

41. The Ex-President and the Stationing Committee.—The retiring President shall be, ex officio, a Member of the Stationing Committee during the sittings of Conference. (Minutes, 1888, p. 316.)

42. Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

43. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, vol. xvi. [1866], p. 589.)

44. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193, 194.)

45. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor of Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1893, pp. 227, 228; 1895, p. 225.)

46. Numbering of Circuits and Stations.—(1) Except those in which no Minister's House is provided, all Stations appearing in the Minutes shall be numbered.

(2) The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meetings and in the Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204.)

V. Departments.

47. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the names of three Ministers in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. The Pastoral Session of the Conference shall designate for appointment one of the three nominated by the Representative Session. A similar course shall be pursued in cases of emergency arising before the Conference, which involve immediate appointment. In case of an emergency arising after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1890, p. 423.)

48. Method of Nominating Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) On the presentation of three names by the Committee of any Department, according to rule, for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall take at least one ballot; and then, if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session.

(2) When a ballot is taken, the Committee of Scrutineers shall consist of not less than twenty persons, and shall make all arrangements for the collection and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 312.)

49. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

50. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

51. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 105.)

VI. Army and Navy Work.

52. Instructions to Chairmen and Superintendents in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

53. Reports and Returns to District Synods.—All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors:

(1) The number of declared Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(2) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(3) The average attendance at divine Service during the year.

(4) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

54. Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

55. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

56. Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties. — Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives, and families to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

VII. Synods.

57. District Synods, 1901.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 12 and 19, with the exception of those of the North Wales, South Wales, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1837], p. 224.)

58. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the September Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations concerning certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Minutes, 1885, p. 285.)

59. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—(1) The election shall be by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to provide for himself, his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

60. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference, or by the May Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference, or nomination in the Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a Member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a Member of a Synod. Any Layman nominated in a Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 420.)

The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 421.)

61. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Minutes, 1895, p. 325.)

VIII. Chairmen.

62. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of a Chairman of a District, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. See Standing Order, No. 49. (Minutes, 1886, p. 295.)

63. Resolutions on Pastoral Work and Probationers in their First Circuit.—A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

64. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of discipline specified in the first Section of the Answer to Question XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1825], p. 65.)

65. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May Synods whether the Regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1862], p. 327.)

66. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Journal, 1894.)

67. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges appointed by the Conference between Ministers residing in various Circuits shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the Synod. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

68. Neutrals in Voting.—The Conference resolves that in all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry, in the Synods, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Minutes, 1894, p. 226.)

69. Trial Sermons of Candidates for Ordination.—Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May Synod, preach in the presence of three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

70. Examination of Candidates for Ordination.—(1) Before any Probationer, having travelled four years, is recommended by his Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, vol. iv. [1815], p. 122.) This oral Examination may be omitted if the report on the paper on Wesley's Works (see p. 201) is satisfactory.

(2) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our discipline.

71. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Probationers who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

72. Probationers' Reading.—The Examination Committee shall prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. (Minutes, 1897, p. 221.)

73. Probationers and the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Probationers shall preach during the Synods. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

74. Probationers returning from the Mission-field.—The Conference directs that if a Probationer enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a report upon each year of the probation which has been spent abroad. This report shall be laid by the Chairman before the May Synod. (Minutes, 1896, p. 229.)

75. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution, but, on the recommendation of their Tutors, the term of their residence may be shortened. And in such case, their Probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203; see also Minutes, 1895, p. 334, § 8.)

76. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—Any application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 219.)

77. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his colleague or colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

(2) Those Candidates for the Ministry who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], p. 91.)

(3) Arrangements shall be made by the May Synods for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. PETER THOMPSON, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E. (Minutes, 1889, p. 194.)

N.B.—Three different trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

(4) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

78. System of Marking in Examinations.—The Conference resolves: (1) that in future, in valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 be adopted, number 1 being the highest value and 7 the lowest.

(2) That the seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Minutes, 1888, p. 214.)

80. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

81. Circulars to Members of the Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of his Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the May Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402.)

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the September Synod.

All ministers who are members of the Synod shall also be summoned thereto by circular. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

82. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—Circuit Stewards are recommended to have an inspection of every Minister's house by an independent sanitary expert, at every change of Minister, and to hand a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the incoming Minister.

The Synods shall inquire, at their September meetings, whether this recommendation of the Conference has been carried out. (Minutes, 1893, p. 327; 1894, p. 323.)

83. Suggestions to Conference from the Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion relating to a Connexional Department from a Synod to the Conference shall be sent immediately after the Synod to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Minutes, 1891, p. 323.)

84. Copies of District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON, 5, Jackson's Lane, Highgate, London, N., not later than June 15, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1799], p. 24; vol. vii. [1835], p. 554; vol. xx. [1877], p. 514; 1881, pp. 307, 308; 1890, p. 326.)

84. Minor Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 94; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1894, p. 217.)

In the case of the trial of an appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit, the two members of the Minor Synod added by the legislation of 1894 shall be nominated by the President of the Conference. (Minutes, 1897, p. 241.)

85. Substitute for the Chairman of a District.—When the Chairman of a District is unable to attend any meeting of his Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

86. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference to either his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as Convener of the meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them. If the guilt of the accused be proved, the meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Minutes, 1894, p. 217.)

IX. Superintendents.

87. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers appointed to the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1806], p. 348.)

88. Reading of Resolutions on Pastoral Work. — These Resolutions, as far as the words "counted for a forest," shall be read in the stead of the Liverpool Minutes at each May Synod, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. And the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356–366.)

89. Probationers and the Lord's Supper. — Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this holy Sacrament. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], pp. 91, 92.)

90. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Probationers appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

91. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1838], p. 360.)

92. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the members of our Church in village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that in connexion with these Services the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

93. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Minutes, 1896, p. 230.)

94. Quarterly Fast-days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are Fridays, October 5, 1900; January 4, March 29, and June 28, 1901. (Minutes, vol. i. [1767], p. 73; vol. v. [1821], p. 249.)

95. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation. (Minutes, 1880, p. 265.)

96. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–454.)

If, upon inquiry, it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278.)

97. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—The Conference directs that, where practicable, the numbers for each Society be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each quarter day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

98. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. HENRY J. POPE, D.D., Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

99. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 541; vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

100. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt, the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a colleague, and cannot therefore consult a weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

101. Trial of Trustees.—If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

102. Orthodoxy of Office Bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1807], p. 405.)

103. Examination of Local Preachers.—Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History, and (when necessary) in the Elements of English Grammar. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 455.)

104. Junior Society Classes.—In connexion with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. (Minutes, 1894, p. 218.)

105. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402; 1885, p. 276; 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319.)

106. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in and approved by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Minutes, 1895, pp. 435, 438; 1898, p. 360.)

107. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Minutes, 1898, p. 361.)

X. Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

108. Election of Representatives to the Synods.—(1) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, who represent especially the financial interests of the Circuit, each Circuit shall, at the March Quarterly Meeting, elect as members of the Synod either one or two Laymen who are considered suitable on general grounds to take part in the counsels of the Synods in the May and September following.

(2) Circuits employing one or two Ministers shall elect one Representative to the Synod; Circuits with three or more Ministers shall elect two Representatives.

(3) At these elections the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319.)

109. Church Membership and the Synods.—No one is eligible for a seat in a Synod, or upon any committee thereof, who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Minutes, 1892, p. 309.)

110. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

111. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the May Synod; also, a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

112. Candidates for the Ministry.—In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the Synod. (Minutes, 1895, p. 204.)

113. Division of Circuits.—Before a Synod consents to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to debts existing thereon. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270–273.

114. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall in future be fully stated in the Minutes of the Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits.

These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

115. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) The Conference is decidedly of opinion that wherever sums, large or small, are collected avowedly for the Foreign or Home Missions, the whole amount should be remitted to the Treasurers of those Funds, respectively, to be administered under the direction of their Committees; and that sums so remitted to the Home Mission Fund should entitle a Circuit to favourable consideration if it requests a Grant for any effort within its boundaries which may be a legitimate object for the application of moneys collected for Home Missions.

(2) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(3) A return of the gross amounts collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of such amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Synods. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 528; and vol. xx. [1877], p. 398; also 1885, p. 195.)

116. The Weekly Offertory. — (1) The Conference recommends that in every chapel in which the Offertory System has been introduced, as well as in all other chapels, the Connexional Collections be made on Sundays set apart for the purpose, be duly announced beforehand, the objects and need of the Fund concerned distinctly stated, and an appeal made; and the whole sum so gathered strictly devoted to the stated purpose.

(2) The Conference recommends that where the aggregate results of the Weekly Offertory System show an increase of Circuit income (derived from the same sources) over that of years antecedent to the introduction of the System, the Connexional Funds, whether they have suffered or not, shall equitably share in such increased income; and that this object shall be secured by Offertories specially appropriated for this purpose, or otherwise.

(3) The Conference expresses its strong objection to the practice of allotting to the Connexional Funds any average sum; i.e. a proportion of the yearly receipts from the Offertory, calculated upon the average Collections for a given Fund during a number of years preceding the introduction of the Offertory—in lieu of making Collections for each Fund according to rule. Such a practice is unfair to the several Funds, which are thus precluded from sharing in the general life and progress of the Circuit, and is further liable to the fatal objection that it shuts out all opportunity of bringing the various Funds and their claims before our congregations.

(4) The Conference is of opinion that the Offertory System should not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286, 287.)

117. Auxiliary Fund.—Whilst anxious to secure separate and accurate returns of the amounts raised in the Classes, the Conference urges upon the Circuits the necessity of the average of Sixpence per Member being made up in each Circuit; and sanctions this being done in such a way as may be approved in the respective Circuits—provided that the Public Collections, usually made in July, be separately returned. (Minutes, 1890, pp. 265, 266.)

118. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221, 222.)

119. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds see pp. 398–401.

120. Statistics of Day and Sunday Schools.—The statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

121. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have [redacted]rity to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 111.)

(2) Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 367.)

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) The Conference directs that Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. ENOCH SALT, St. Elmo, Sandon Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham, not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference. (Minutes, 1889, p. 285.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 368.)

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 424.)

XI. Sunday and Day Schools.

122. Sunday-school Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; and also at all meetings of the Committee, and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman; except in the case of a Teachers' Meeting, when one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Minutes, vol. xvii. [1868], p. 384.)

123. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan [redacted]odist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The senior Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member ex officio of the Quarterly Meeting.

N.B.—Where there are more Superintendents than one, should any difficulty arise as to which Superintendent should be counted the senior, the point may be determined at the meeting when the election of Representatives takes place. The word "senior" is intended to refer to seniority as Superintendent of the school, not to seniority in age.

(3) In schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex officio Representative, a special Representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the school at the annual Teachers' Meeting.

(4) In schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special Representative shall be elected in like manner. The special Representative or Representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for Representatives.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any school Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the annual Teachers' Meeting, elect from among their own number as a Representative some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when Representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Minutes, 1894, pp. 313, 314.)

124. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 176; 1882, pp. 224, 225; 1890, p. 279; 1896, p. 230.)

125. Correct Returns from Sunday Schools.—With a view to securing more correct returns from Sunday Schools, it is an instruction to the Secretary or Secretaries of each School that, wherever practicable, the Schedule of Returns be submitted to the Local Committee before such Returns are presented to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1885, p. 278.)

126. Examination of Pupil Teachers.—The Annual Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March. The questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; the Examination held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September Synods, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and the written answers forwarded to the General Secretary, to be valued by a Central Board of Examiners elected by the General Committee. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], pp. 534, 535; vol. xx. [1877], p. 409.)

The Conference recommends that, in connexion with Central Examinations, meetings of Teachers and Pupil Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Education Secretary.

XII. Miscellaneous.

127. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire Proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property be carefully preserved therein.

128. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed for the purpose by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting.

129. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book, are to be revised annually by the Superintendent Minister. (Minutes, 1891, p. 259.)

130. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that in some places a desire has been expressed to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference expresses the conviction that any such use of the premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Minutes, vol. vii. [1834], p. 420; 1885, p. 185; see also Resolutions on Parish Councils, Minutes, 1894, p. 323.)

131. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings, etc.—At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting.

In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings the Conference re-affirms its regulation of 1884. (Minutes, 1893, p. 319.) "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Minutes, 1884, p. 191.)

132. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for the purposes of mutual conference and prayer, in order to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 281.)

133. London Mission.—The number of Members at each Place in the Mission, with the amounts received as Ordinary Income, shall be printed, year by year, in the Agenda of the Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 262.)

134. Lord's Day Observance.—The Temperance Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of the Lord's Day Question. (Minutes, 1896, p. 331.)

SECTION VI.

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

ADDRESS TO HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Great Britain and Ireland, desire to approach your Majesty with the assurance of our continued and deepened attachment to your throne and person. We deplore the bereavement which has befallen your Majesty in the sudden death of his Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. We deeply sympathise with your Majesty in this the latest of so many griefs which your Majesty has been called to bear. Realising our privilege and duty daily to crave the blessing of Almighty God upon your Majesty's person and family, we are offering special prayer that in this hour of your sorrow you may be sustained by all the consolations of our holy religion.

We are, on behalf of the Conference,

Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects and servants,

THOMAS ALLEN, President.
MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

The Annual Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

BRETHREN BELOVED IN THE LORD,—

We "bless you out of the house of the Lord"; "the Lord that made heaven and earth bless you out of Zion." Upon your homes, upon your business and daily walk, upon all your assemblies and Church transactions, and upon your own heart and spirit, may the light of God's fatherly love shine through the coming year.

"One thing is needful," beloved—always the same thing, for us and for you. With intense solicitude we crave for you the sure personal knowledge of God in Jesus Christ. The world unceasingly grows upon us—in its magnitude and complications, in the swiftness of its movements, in the keen and passionate interest of its pursuits. Never were things seen and temporal so absorbing as in the present age; never before have they claimed so imperiously to occupy and satisfy the soul. The tide of time swells to its height, and the floods lift up their voices. With clamour and sound of trumpets, with an uproar of many voices and a rushing as of mighty waters, the century is passing. Who will give us wisdom to "discern this time" and to read its strange signs? "Lord, Thy hand is lifted up, yet they see not: but they shall see Thy zeal for the people, and be ashamed." As we watch the grand and dread spectacle of human history, let our faith perceive the Supreme Actor and learn to trace His steps, "who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will."

For in secularism—not its theory indeed, but its temper and habit—our chief danger lies, both without and within the Church. It is not so much this doctrine or that, this institution of our faith or that, which is imperilled, but religion in its very being. With multitudes of the peoples of Christian Europe God and the eternal are mere nonentities. Art and science, literature and the press, the great instruments and factors of civilised life, are largely un-Christian in their animus. The secular atmosphere that we breathe in this age of universal intercourse is laden with the infection of materialism; it has spread an impalpable haze over all things divine, and thrown out a heat and glare of sensuous excitement that penetrate our most sheltered circles. The old seclusion and separateness are broken down. You are in the world, brethren, steeped in its affairs, conversant with its ideas, and affected by its fashions and maxims to a degree that would have shocked your fathers. It behoves you to guard with increased vigilance the sanctities of home, and to seek more assiduously the refreshment and solace of the means of grace. Most of all, we bid you, in the words of Jesus, "Enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret." That you should be in the world and not of the world is a thing which, however difficult, is "possible with God"—possible by a continually growing knowledge of God, by a close and ever closer walk with God. Through daily individual resort to the heavenly places where we sit together with Christ and His saints you will grow strong and calm amidst the tumult, you will show yourselves proof against the miasma of the world's low levels, and will bring from those sunlit heights of communion a radiant joy and a fragrant, wholesome air to cheer the gloom and disturb the stagnating corruptions of modern society.

The work of God has assumed in these latter days shapes and aspects unknown to a former generation. The leaven is thrust deeper into the meal; and while the world invades the Church, the Church makes aggression upon the world in provinces from which she has hitherto held aloof. The mission of the gospel, as we are taught of God, is to make all things new. Our Methodist centres in the large cities have become the foci of manifold forms of social beneficence, and no man foresees whereunto the movement that has given them birth will grow. Educational, economical, municipal, and civil questions have, as you perceive, a religious root and a moral bearing and issue; they come under the rule of the kingdom of God. It is for you to ponder and study these questions as you have opportunity, and to discover the application of the law of Christ to every branch of outward life. Our Church has been awakened in recent years to a more active sense of national and imperial responsibility. With its wide diffusion, its fraternal spirit, its unique organisation and power of corporate action, Methodism holds a place of vantage amongst the English-speaking peoples. She has played a silent but important part in the knitting of those ties, evident now to the whole world, which bind our colonies and daughter nations to the mother country. We realise, as never before, that the future of the English race depends upon the public spirit of its Christian men; of those Christian men the people called Methodists form the largest and most compact division.

But this widening of our earthly horizon, while it brings fresh opportunities, brings also hazards and temptations. God's great calls carry with them trial as well as promise; through the fiery darts of the wicked one Christ's soldiers advance to conquest. Public action tends to become political, and political differences are a standing menace to our religious unity. Only by the exercise of constant forbearance and tolerance, by a firm control of personal temper and the full subordination of all interests and opinions to the glory of God and the welfare of His Church, only by "giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace," shall we escape those outbreaks of dissension and those smouldering feuds which, though they fall short of schism, bring scandal on the Christian name and raise lasting hindrance to the work of God.

Other perils arising from the present situation are still more easily besetting. Public usefulness tends to encroach upon private devotion. The practical duties and outward activities of religion can be made into a screen to hide God from us; they may become a veritable idolatry. Christian workers may be so busy as to lose sight and touch of Christ Himself. In our eager philanthropies and our plans for the relief of physical evils we may forget that our one business is to save souls. We may narrow ourselves into specialists in Christian service, partisans for this or that particular interest and institution, till our grasp of spiritual principles and our sympathy with the general communion of Christ's people fail us altogether.

It is possible so to diffuse and spend ourselves upon the widening circumference of the Lord's world-field that the centre ceases to hold us. Such dangers are indeed inevitable, and will be fatal if the multiplication and diversification of outward duties be not balanced by an increase of vital inward piety. As the tree of the Lord's planting spreads its branches to the air and takes on new grafts to bear more various fruit, its roots must strike more deeply and sensitively into the life that is hid with Christ in God. Let us be jealous lest even the work of God should sever us from God, lest we should be found more humanitarian in our spirit than religious, more ethical in our doctrine than theological, more æsthetic and sentimental in our worship than contrite and adoring, and lest, in our eagerness to realise for a suffering world the Christian promise of the life that now is, we should miss its goal and fruition in the promise of the life to come. Of all gifts of grace there are two that we especially desire for ourselves and you at this juncture of the times, and these two are one,—a quickened sense of the presence and majesty of the living God, and a quickened longing for the "eternal life which God that cannot lie hath promised." "Oh for that tenderness of heart which bows before the Lord!" Oh for those visions of immortality that transport the spirit and lift us above time and grief and care!

While we bid you draw nigh to God, we invite you, dearly beloved, to a more intimate and hearty fellowship in the things of God. Our Church has an eminent and acknowledged calling in this respect—a trust held for the Church universal. It has been given us, since our foundation as a separated people, to reassert and apply the principle of spiritual fellowship. We address you from year to year as "the Methodist Societies"; and there is nothing more vital to our existence and usefulness than the safeguarding of our Societies in every place, and the maintenance of the plan of Church membership and connexional Church life which is based upon them. Many circumstances make against our system of stated local fellowship; and we ask for your loyal assistance in its conservation and perfecting. The migratory life of so many of our people, the diversity of social conditions, and the wider separation of classes in our towns and cities, together with the less exigent and less definite terms of membership in some other Christian bodies, render it increasingly difficult, and yet for these very reasons increasingly necessary that we should cling to the bonds of love and discipline by which we have been held together and built up until now. We note with sorrow the large number of Church members who slip from us in removal from place to place. Where there is a true cleaving of heart to the Church of God, the ties of communion cannot be thus lightly broken. Manifestly the duty of Church membership needs to be more strongly inculcated and felt amongst us. It is strange that Christian men will allow their Church relations to be affected by trifling considerations, such as they would scorn to entertain as between themselves and their family or country. Let us realise, both as ministers and laymen, the sacredness and august dignity which clothes the Church of the living God in its lowliest forms, and attaches to every company of two or three where Christ is in the midst. Let us cultivate sincerity, magnanimity, and gentleness in all our intercourse, a constancy of affection and charity of judgment and readiness of self-effacement and self-devotion worthy of Him who has sealed our brotherhood in His own blood. Most loyally, most devoutly let us keep the two sacraments of Jesus Christ, the appointed signs and seals unto the end of time of the great covenant between Himself and the household of His faith.

In the year 1800 the Conference, addressing the Societies on "the present state of our finances," and appealing for help in the straits to which the rapid extension of the work of God had then brought the Connexion, observed, "We are fully persuaded there is not a more generous, affectionate people upon earth." The Conference of 1900 can repeat to you, dear brethren, with emphasis this observation. Your affectionate generosity has shown itself in the raising of the Twentieth Century Fund during the last two years in a manner that calls for continual thanksgiving to the Giver and Fountain of good. For this we glory on your behalf among the Churches. You will not allow this great undertaking to come short of its mark, nor fail in accomplishing the liberal things you have devised. The unforeseen difficulties and distractions of the year should rouse us to increased faith and resolution. Christ's service makes testing demands upon us; they must look to be continual disbursers who are stewards of Him that giveth to all men liberally. Tens of thousands of our people of all degrees—not a few "out of the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty"—have laid their stone of offering upon this historic Ebenezer. Others to whom the same Lord has been rich in mercy have still the opportunity to bring their sacrifice; many outside of our Church ranks, but indebted to the grace of God in Methodism, wait to be asked for the help it is in their heart to give. But when all is done that financial effort and organisation can accomplish, let us remember that visible extension is for us a vain show without larger faith and zeal, that Church plant and machinery are worth just so much as the men are worth who handle them. New methods, better appliances, multiplied resources only create new need for the power of the Spirit from on high; they supply new channels for His supernatural energy. Our Fund will be a burden and a shame to us unless God, who "worketh all things in all," shall be pleased to act through the agencies which it sets on foot, unless those whose service it calls forth shall prove equal to their calling, equipped for the work of the coming times, and full of faith and of the Holy Ghost. As the twentieth century approaches, let us await in prayer the full outpouring of the Spirit promised by our Lord, and the revealing of the glory of God to all flesh. Surely our redemption draweth nigh. Let us look up for the dawn of Christ's millennial day and the coming of the Son of man in His Father's kingdom.

His Advent tokens are repeated at this epoch—war and famine, "distress of nations, with perplexity." The conflict in South Africa has filled our hearts and yours with grief before God. Our Societies have been scattered, our prosperous work suspended, and many of our peaceable fellow churchmen, both amongst colonists and natives, have suffered in person and property. We mourn with you over the thousands of brave men who have fallen upon both sides. May the God of the fatherless and widow, the God of the childless, who have spared not their own sons, extend His pity to every English and Dutch home desolated by this awful scourge! You will watch with strict attention the measures that may be adopted in the approaching settlement. It concerns ourselves especially to befriend the native races, to whom God has opened for our Church a great and effectual door, and who have been already raised by the gospel in large numbers out of heathenism and savagery into God's marvellous light. We must see to it that their just rights be secured and their moral interests guarded against the pride of colour and the greed of commercialism, and that no system of veiled slavery be tolerated anywhere in her Majesty's dominions. Our country has tasted in this struggle of the cup of humiliation: let us remember this in the hour of victory, and be careful in our international dealings, with the weak and strong alike, to "do justly and love mercy and walk humbly with God." If by arrogance and abuse of power, by unscrupulous pursuit of gain, by lust and luxury, by vaunting of the arm of flesh, we become an offence unto the Father and Ruler of men, a smoke in His nostrils, the wealth and dominion that He has given us by so signal a train of providences will be shattered by strokes of judgment no less signal, and our empire will go the way of the empires of Babylon and Rome, and be made an astonishment and a hissing. "Now therefore be wise, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth"—we speak as to citizens of an empire holding sway in five continents. "Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and ye perish in the way, for His wrath may soon be kindled. Blessed are all they that put their trust in Him."

We rejoice at the ardent patriotism that this crisis has elicited, at the readiness of devotion shown by all classes of our countrymen, and from all parts of the empire, in the hour of need. This is indeed an example to the people of Christ: when will the Church be ready to pour out blood and treasure for the winning of His kingdom as a great nation does when empire and existence are at stake? We honour the courage and endurance of our soldiers, and the humanity with which they have sought to soften the calamities of war. There is amongst them a large and spreading leaven of true Christian men; our Methodist chaplains, along with others, have ministered devotedly to their spiritual needs, in both peace and war. Let us give to our troops a happy and a sober welcome home on their return. The British soldiers and sailors deserve that their well-being should be better studied and cared for than in time past. The Army and Navy Department is amongst the most vigorous branches of our work, and the augmentation of the military forces will necessitate its strengthening and extension. The morale of these great Services reacts upon the civil population, and affects our influence and reputation throughout the world. The special temptations to which they are exposed must be combated by honourable and religious means. Continual vigilance is necessary to prevent expedients which involve the licensing of vice, and must lead to the fatal corruption of British manhood.

The renewed famine afflicting India has awakened your strong compassion; you have sent through the hands of your missionaries a gracious measure of relief, which will bring upon you the blessing of those that were ready to perish. The events transpiring in China call for pity of another kind, blended with horror and with national self-reproach. In the sins of Europe against China this country has a melancholy share. The iniquity of the opium traffic forced upon her in the name of British interests, against which this Conference has repeatedly testified, has aggravated the hatred of that vast and proud people toward the foreigner and has sapped our moral influence with its government. While the fate of Christian missions and of our beloved Chinese brethren trembles in the balance, let us humble ourselves before the Almighty Judge of the nations, praying that in just wrath He will remember mercy, that the way of the Lord in the Far East may be opened by this fierce convulsion, and that the unspeakable horror of war between the European powers involved in it may be averted. Endless will be the mischief if the tragedy enacted at Pekin should evoke in Christian breasts the thirst for vengeance. Shall we not rather pray, "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do"? Let us be more urgent to send the gospel of peace where human need is so dire, and where Satan, who is "a murderer from the beginning," vaunts his power against the kingdom of our Christ.

In this time of unexampled distress and anxiety for our Foreign Missions in Africa South and West, in China, and in India, your sympathy and your supplications will be redoubled on their behalf. Well we know that God's work of chastisement is a work of salvation. By "the spirit of judgment and the spirit of burning" doth the Lord cleanse Jerusalem and prepare His way among the peoples. "The gates of death shall not prevail" against His Church. The floods that sweep over her visible fabric leave her foundations unshaken, and her Maker and Builder undismayed.

The Reports issuing from the Conference and printed in our annual Minutes will make you acquainted with the details of our general work and the principal features of our commercial position. We ask your close attention to all these proceedings. [redacted] question of the Order of Conference Sessions has been settled in the manner which will give to the Representative Conference increased prominence and complete control of all matters of joint responsibility.

We have been cheered by the increase in the sum of our membership, which is more considerable than for some years past. Amid the religious apathy of the times, there are signs of reawakening which raise our hopes for the immediate future. The problem is not merely how to gather but how to keep those who are added to us by the Lord. Our large yearly accessions are too nearly balanced by large yearly withdrawals from the ranks of membership. Our Home Missions in most of the great centres of population are conspicuously owned of God. In country districts weak and isolated circuits are being grouped together and concentrated—a policy which promises to bring about the revival of Methodism in regions where it has decayed. The operations of chapel-building in town and country proceed on a gratifying and a growing scale.

We are seeking to improve the method of training pursued in the Theological Institution, so as to give to our candidates for the ministry a more adequate equipment for the arduous tasks lying before them. Gifts for teaching, as well as for evangelism, have been conferred on Methodism from the beginning: let us make full proof of both. You cannot afford to have your children educated under influences that are openly or insidiously hostile to your own Church and blighting to evangelical faith and sentiment. Any attempt of the sacerdotal party to capture the schools of England must be foiled. We mark with satisfaction a revived interest in our Elementary Day Schools throughout the country. Our Secondary and High Schools appeal at this time for your enlightened support. On every account it is necessary that Wesleyan Methodists should take their part in the development, now in progress, of the national system of Secondary Education, and should make the utmost use of the new facilities that will be available in this direction.

Our Temperance organisation and the work of the Social Purity Committee call for your united and practical help. Lose no opportunity of doing good to all men by aiding not only in our Church action in these vital matters, but also by exerting your influence as citizens to promote the moral health of the community, and by joining hands with all who strive for purity and righteousness. Against licentiousness, drunkenness, and gambling, against commercial dishonesty and pecuniary corruption in all their forms, you have an incessant and stern war to wage. The evils bred by an idle, dissolute wealth on the one hand, and by crowded, desperate, festering poverty on the other, acquire a concentrated virulence under modern conditions of life. The Great Physician puts His remedial instruments into your hands, and expects from you greater works in the healing of the world's sores and maladies.

We thankfully hail the growing harmony of faith and works manifest in the Evangelical Churches, and encourage you to bring your best wisdom to their common counsels. The Simultaneous Mission to be held in the month of February next will have your active and prayerful co-operation. Its success, under God, rests largely with our Methodist people. Let us make the allied campaign against the powers of evil thoroughly our own.

"Finally, brethren, pray for us." We cast ourselves anew upon your supplications, and upon the all-sufficient grace which your prayers can command on our behalf. "Pray the Lord of the harvest, that He would thrust forth labourers into His harvest"—labourers multiplied in number, strong to wield the sickle, and patient to bear the day's burden and heat. Pray for our young ministry, that it may be replenished with men wise to win souls, tender and skilful in the shepherding of Christ's flock. Pray for us that with ripened experience of human life there may be joined fervour and buoyancy of spirit and deep knowledge of the mystery of God which is Christ, so that in old age we may bring forth choicest fruit. Venerable and beloved men amongst us are now "sitting down" from the active pursuance of their ministry. Their names you will cherish, and their retirement you will cheer by your filial affection and care. May life's decline for them be full of light and evening peace.

"Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THOMAS ALLEN, President.
MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1899

TO THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 1900.

HONOURED AND BELOVED BRETHREN,—

It is with unfeigned pleasure we send to your General Conference, as our fraternal Representative, the Rev. Thomas Allen, the Governor of the Handsworth Theological College and Tutor in Pastoral Theology and Church Organisation, the Chairman of one of our largest District Synods, and a Minister greatly beloved and trusted amongst us. In selecting Mr. Allen for the distinguished and honourable service of bearing to your great Conference our greetings and loving salutations, we do so with the utmost confidence that he will fulfil his mission with credit both to himself and to the Church of which he is the Representative. He will tell you how God is greatly blessing the Mother Church of Methodism in Great Britain and also in foreign lands, and he will report the remarkable and encouraging success which has attended the effort to raise a million guineas with which to equip British Methodism for the new century. Of this movement—as also of our evangelical, educational, and philanthropic work—our Representative, with his comprehensive knowledge of our affairs, will give you full information.

We have heard with deep gratitude to God of the much larger scheme which you have inaugurated so that you may be enabled to reap the harvests of your wonderful achievements in the past, and that, with your enlarged opportunities, you may achieve still greater things for Christ. The development of Methodism during the closing century is phenomenal. Methodism is now the largest Protestant Church in the whole world. The religious movement which began with John Wesley is recognised, even by secular historians, as one of the greatest in modern times—a movement which is "felt by every Protestant community speaking the English language." The past success of Methodism has devolved increased responsibility upon us and upon you, and we are devoutly thankful to God that, in both hemispheres, Methodist Churches are seeking, by the consecration of themselves and their substance, for larger usefulness in the century which is at hand.

Since your last General Conference, we have had the joy and honour of receiving, as a fraternal embassy from you, Bishop Fowler and Dr. Hamilton. We greatly enjoyed their visit, and their addresses and sermons made a profound impression which will long be remembered. We were thankful most of all to hear from your Representatives of the great and widespread work that God is doing by the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, in both your own country and throughout the world. We believe that the Head of the Church has yet, by the means of universal Methodism, great purposes to accomplish in the regeneration of mankind.

These fraternal interchanges are of real value, and we attach special importance to them. The various branches of the Methodist family constitute one spiritual tribe in the Israel of God, and by the expression of brotherly unity the heart of Methodism beats more in unison, which is in itself a benediction to mankind.

And now, dear brethren, we pray that the God of grace may unite us by His Holy Spirit in love and power, so that in the new century we may be "perfect in every good work to do His will," and "that through the ages all along" we may be the messengers and ministers of salvation to countless millions of the human race.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, President,
MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

We gladly greet you in the name of our common Master, and heartily avail ourselves of this opportunity of cementing more closely the ties that unite us.

The President and his companions have come amongst us as old and valued friends. By his able and courteous conduct in the chair of the Conference, as well as by the timeliness and brilliancy of his public utterances, the President has heightened our admiration for his splendid gifts. The Ex-President has done much by his spiritual, powerful, and enthusiastic deliverances to stimulate and encourage us. The Rev. Walford Green, a former esteemed President, and the Rev. Edward J. Brailsford have further endeared themselves to us by their various services. We have also much appreciated the presence of Mr. J. Bayley Lees, your honoured Lay Representative.

The mention of these names reminds us of the contemplated retirement from active service amongst you of men eminent for their leadership in Evangelism, Foreign Missions, and Philanthropy. We have learned to value highly the work and influence of the Rev. Charles Garrett, George W. Olver, B.A., and Dr. Stephenson. An unusually large number of our own brethren seek their well earned rest, but we are thankful that the supply of suitable candidates for our Ministry does not fail.

We rejoice to report a considerable increase in our membership. The rate of our numerical progress corresponds closely to yours of this year, but ours is gained in spite of a declining population and the ceaseless stream of emigration which carries many of our most promising sons and daughters to other shores. The difficulties of our work may alter in character, but scarcely diminish in extent. Recent changes in local government are likely to still further restrict our opportunities in some districts of the country. Romanism is eagerly grasping power to close every door of office and emolument against Protestants. Political considerations make it exceedingly difficult to gain the ear and win the heart of our fellow countrymen. Yet we toil on in confidence and hope, remembering the far-reaching and essentially missionary character of our work, and the clamant necessity for the warmth, vigour, and earnestness of the type of Christian character we seek to produce.

We look back upon the century about to expire with profound gratitude to God for our present strong and hopeful position, and for the abundant evidences of devotion, zeal, and enterprise in our Church. The years have confirmed our conviction that the gospel of God's grace is the sovereign remedy for the ills of Ireland. Our faith in it, and the pledge of its practical application, are found in the wonderful success attending the effort to raise a Twentieth Century Fund of 52,000 guineas for absolutely aggressive purposes. This financial enterprise, unparalleled in Irish Methodism, has evoked the enthusiasm and liberality of our people to an unwonted degree, so that we are confident of bringing this unique undertaking to a triumphant conclusion.

We have shared in the strain and burden placed upon the Foreign Missionary Society by the calamitous famine in India and the devastating war in South Africa, as well as the momentous troubles in China. Yet we doubt not that, after this time of gloom and strife, a richer harvest will be reaped.

Our Home Missionary activities continue to prosper. Open-air work is being prosecuted with self-sacrificing devotion and earnestness. Colportage effort is quietly leavening the less educated sections of the people, and gives promise of more apparent results.

Radical changes in our systems of primary and intermediate education, which will demand vigilance and effort on our part, are foreshadowed. We are determined to do everything in our power to discharge our responsibilities to the young of our land. We are united in our strong opposition to the State endowment of the Roman Catholic University. We desire the complete nationalisation of Dublin University, as most in harmony with the principles of religious equality.

We ardently desire to see enacted such legislation as will restrict the Drink Traffic, and we gladly join with you in seeking the passing of measures based upon the minority report of the recent Royal Commission.

During the year we have been favoured with a visit from our gracious and beloved Sovereign, which has been a great gratification to multitudes and an untold advantage to the country. We believe that such evidences of interest in Ireland, as an integral part of the United Kingdom, are calculated to produce the happiest results.

We send you as our Representatives four highly esteemed brethren—the Rev. William Crawford, M.A., whom we nominate as the Irish member of the Delegation, the Rev. Joseph W. R. Campbell, M.A., the General Secretary of our Home Mission Department, the Rev. James M. Alley, and Mr. George Hadden. They are fully acquainted with our affairs, and are charged with the conveyance of assurances of our unabated loyalty and affection.

We pray that you may be enabled to prosecute your hallowed toil in the coming century with increased devotion to God and with multiplied evidences of His approval, so that speedily your island and ours may "become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ."

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1900.

BELOVED AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Once more the assembling of our Conference gives us the valued opportunity of returning your greeting. In the growing pressure of business which the manifold claims of a great Church bring upon us, it is a joy to turn aside awhile and interchange with you, our nearest of kin, notes of progress in the work which to you and to us alike is dear beyond everything. We have listened with delight and profit to the voices of friends old and new who have come to us from you; and we hope that they will bear away with them some sense of the warmth with which our hearts have gone out towards them, not only on account of their own personal worth, but even more for the sake of a Church to which we are bound with ties of special affection.

It is a matter of deep thankfulness to us that you have been spared such losses among your leaders as you had last year to deplore. To us likewise God has been merciful. It is indeed a rare experience to begin our Pastoral Session without a single vacancy by death in the ranks of the Legal Conference; and though brethren greatly beloved are compelled by advancing years to seek a lightening of responsibilities and labours, we are thankful to God, as you are, that He still spares to most of them a measure of health and strength for continued service in His cause. We are encouraged by your assurance that a supply of suitable candidates for the Ministry does not cease. We are not at present equally happy in this respect, for with us the demand is heavy and the supply limited to an extent that threatens to restrict our work in many fields already "white unto harvest." You will join us in prayer to "the Lord of the harvest that He may thrust out labourers into His harvest."

Our membership, like yours, shows an increase, but an increase far from representing the real progress that is made. Among us, now as ever, "he that is wise winneth souls," and men gifted with this wisdom are at work with blessed results in the crowded city and over the green countryside. The results are largely beyond the reach of any statistics, but they are there; and while wasted lives in thousands continue to be born anew for God in Christ, while the children continue to be drawn from the perils of the world by the gracious attractions of love divine, we shall not complain if those who can only judge by tables account our work a comparative failure. At the present time our thoughts are much turned towards a great aggressive movement in which we shall heartily join the other Free Churches, who seek to mark the opening century by a great simultaneous mission. The intense evangelistic enthusiasm of John Wesley is in these days happily shared by many Churches with which we stand on terms of cordial and fraternal alliance, and we look for a great and general outpouring of the Spirit, from which every Church will benefit according as its members are prepared by faith.

We sympathise deeply with you in your continued struggle with priestcraft and superstition. We need not inform you that a like struggle is going on in our own country, even if we have not the peculiar difficulties which surround you. But while with you the enemy is at the gate, with us he has entered what has for centuries been regarded as a citadel of pure reformed faith. He has mastered the passwords, and his emissaries have even received commissions in the army of defence. Our brethren who hold the Protestant faith within the Established Church are hard pressed, and not a little hampered in their brave endeavours by the ecclesiastical conditions they have inherited. But we believe the heart of the nation to be soundly Protestant, and in the new unity of the Evangelical Free Churches we see a powerful guarantee that England will not be unfaithful to the freedom with which Christ set her free at the Reformation.

We warmly congratulate you upon the success attending your Twentieth Century Fund. Such success can only have been won by a very strong and general realisation among you of the stewardship to which the Master calls His servants, rich and poor alike. If it is true that "the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil," it is also true that those who are "ready to distribute" find giving a most fruitful means of grace, by which they may often learn to "lay hold on the life which is life indeed." This has been our constant experience throughout the gathering of the immense sum which we have set ourselves to raise for aggressive work in the new century, a sum which the secret self-denial of numberless poor brethren, no less than the splendid gifts of very many wealthy men among us, now seems to have made almost an assured fact—doubly assured indeed since the memorable conversation on the subject at this Conference. All over the country, and in the foreign field, new enterprises are awaiting the successful termination of this unparalleled enterprise, and we have too much confidence in the hallowed enthusiasm of our people to believe that they will for a moment think of allowing it to fail.

This great enterprise has been hampered most seriously by the exceptional calls upon the liberality of our people. In Central India our missionaries have been battling for months with the combined horrors of famine and pestilence, and large sums have been sent through our Mission House to relieve the distress amid which they have heroically toiled. The claims of those who suffer most directly from the war in South Africa have not found Methodists less responsive than their fellow citizens. The third great trouble upon the horizon admits at present of no remedy so easy as the giving of money. Our eyes are still turned with eager anxiety to the land where, since your Address was written, an almost unprecedented self-revelation of heathenism has staggered humanity. So far, our own missionaries are safe; but we are full of fear lest the land for which the saintly David Hill and many another noble missionary gave their apostolic labours may for a season be closed to the gospel.

The successes of your Home Mission work call out our heartfelt thankfulness. They have been won in fields like those in which our own aggressive movements have gained signal triumphs. Our Representatives have been greatly struck with the success of your efforts to win and retain the young. The reward of your labours comes back to you in a ministry second to none for the combination of culture and enthusiasm, and a membership worthy of your high traditions. You will rejoice with us in the progress we have made in the same work. Our Wesley Guild movement has prospered abundantly, so that at the Conference of 1901 we propose to set apart a Minister to take charge of a work that has grown too heavy to be combined with pastoral cares.

We have again recorded our unanimous opposition to the endowment of a Roman Catholic University out of public funds. We are equally at one with you in our ardent desire to see the tyranny of the Drink Traffic restricted by such legislation as that recommended in Lord Peel's Report. You will share our grief and indignation at the failure of the Legislature to pass into law such obviously salutary reforms as the restriction of the sale of liquor to children and the extension of Sunday Closing. But in this, as in the other great social evils of gambling and impurity, we believe that no legislation can take the place of a passionate earnestness within the Church of Christ, which must train all who come within the range of Christian influence to make no compromise [redacted]h deadly evils that devastate mankind.

The visit of our dearly loved and venerated Queen to Ireland was to us also a source of great thankfulness. It was well merited by the gallantry of her Majesty's Irish troops in South Africa, where their devotion, with that of our British and Colonial troops, has brought touches of light into the lurid darkness of war. We can well believe that you anticipate the happiest results from this effort, in a sphere untouched by party politics, to cement a true union of mutual respect and sympathy between races long and sadly estranged.

We have appointed the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald, Ex-President, the Rev. Enoch Salt, and the Rev. William Burgess, with Mr. S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., to accompany the President to your Conference in 1901. They will account it a privilege to meet with you in the first Methodist Conference of the new century; and they will bring, we trust, tidings that, after the offerings have been laid on the altar, the windows of heaven have opened upon you and outpoured a blessing, "that there shall not be room enough to receive it." We pray that the Lord, "who alone worketh great marvels," may send upon you and us, and upon Methodism throughout the world, in mighty abundance, "the healthful spirit of His grace," that He may so "cause His face to shine upon us, that His way may be known upon earth, His saving health among all nations."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900.

BELOVED AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Your noble Address to our Conference was listened to with great satisfaction. Your intelligent appreciation of our situation and of its difficulties, as well as your deep and kindly sympathy with our labours and sorrows, strengthen us to persevere in our work of faith and patience. We missed the presence of the genial Representative who has for several years been the bearer to us of your greetings. It was with pleasure that we learned that you had invested him, last year, with the highest honour which your Conference can bestow; and we perfectly understood that the incessant duties of his office prevented him from paying us his customary visit. The cordial reception which you accorded to the Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D., our delegate to your last Conference, is a further proof of the affectionate interest which you take in our affairs.

The numerous organs of the press, secular and religious, keep you fully informed as to the restlessness which has characterised the political and social life of the French nation during the last twelve months. You are fully aware of the acts of intolerance and violence for which the Roman Catholic clergy are responsible. Nor do we need to dwell upon the chilling influence of a widely spread rationalism on the rise and progress of true religion, nor upon the increase of dissipation, of intemperance, and of other vices antagonistic to the triumph of the kingdom of God. You are well acquainted with the difficulties of our situation, and prepared to rejoice with us in any success which we may obtain, and to sympathise with us in any reverses which we may encounter. We will confine our Address to a brief enumeration of the leading features of the last Methodist year, referring, almost exclusively, to the work of God in the older section of our field of labour, and not to the extensive work in the north of France founded by the late Rev. William Gibson, and now carried on under the direction of the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A.

Last year we reported the death of two of our oldest Ministers. This year another of our veterans, the Rev. Matthieu Audibert, was suddenly called to enter into the Master's joy. A few hours previously, after a brief illness, his wife had entered into rest. Husband and wife were borne together to the grave. Of the Ministers who took part in founding the first French Conference in 1852, three only remain. But, though God buries His workmen, He carries on His work. We have proof of this in the fact that two young brethren who have completed their term of study in our Theological Institution have this year been appointed to circuits, and several likely candidates are being brought forward. An ex-priest, who has been for some time employed as an evangelist, has been received as a probationer and appointed to a circuit.

The Governor and Theological Tutor of our Institution bears hearty testimony to the activity of the students under his care in evangelistic work at Paris and in the promotion of temperance. There is a growing need in France for earnest temperance effort, and several of our Ministers display a zeal in that work which would rejoice the heart of such valiant apostles of that cause as Richard Tabraham, Charles Garrett, Thomas Champness, and many others.

We have no distinctively Methodist school for the education of boys, but our Young Ladies' School at Nîmes is prosperous both educationally and financially. Our pupils have again taken an honourable place in the public examinations, and an excellent moral influence has reigned in the establishment during the year.

Our missionary in Kabylia cannot yet rejoice "with the joy of harvest." But he sees, with thankfulness, the upspringing of the seed which has been sown during years of preparation and toil. The prejudices of the natives are being overcome. They manifest a touching attachment to the missionaries; and the children who have received instruction at the Mission House inspire well founded hope as to the approaching success of the gospel in this part of Northern Africa.

Our Conference has been held this year at Bourdeaux, in Dauphiny. The natural surroundings might well call to mind the words of the 125th Psalm: "As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about His people." In this small and out-of-the-way meeting-place we were received with great cordiality. Lodgings more than sufficient were offered for Ministers and laymen. And in some of the public services a gracious influence was felt. The ordination service especially produced a deep impression upon the large congregation assembled to witness it.

In the Conference itself we felt, on more than one occasion, a special influence from on high. Sorrow fell upon our hearts when we found that we had a considerable decrease of members. Searching inquiry was made into the causes of this decline; and to some extent our spirits were revived on finding that the declension was due, in a considerable degree, to unavoidable circumstances, such as a high percentage of deaths and the withdrawal of a Minister from a post formerly occupied. But we cannot reconcile ourselves to an unprogressive condition. We long for continuous and glorious success.

We have appointed as our Representatives to your Conference the Rev. Jules Guiton and the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A. The second name is well known to you, respected and beloved by both you and us. The former is the son of one of the founders of the French Conference, upon whose ministry in certain circuits there rested a remarkable blessing. We heartily recommend Mr. Guiton to you as filled with a spirit which you so greatly appreciate, that of evangelistic zeal.

Our Conference has again chosen as its President a brother well known to you and highly esteemed by us, the Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D. We have no doubt that you will cordially ratify our nomination.

Earnestly praying that the presence of God may in an especial manner hallow your assembling and crown you with living fire, we commend you to the care and grace of the great Head of the Church.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ÉMILE BERTRAND, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1900.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

You need no protestation of ours to convince you of our loving sympathy with you, and our lively interest in your great work; and it is as no mere formality that we send you this our yearly greeting, and assure you of our thankful appreciation of the Address we have received from you, and of the hearty welcome we give to your worthy Representatives, the Rev. Jules Guiton and the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A., who have brought it to us.

It seems but a little thing to say that we watch with deepest interest the whole of the work in which you are engaged. As fellow workers in the Church in the one mission of the gospel it could not be otherwise. But we are anxious that you should know how solicitously we acquaint ourselves at every opportunity with the circumstances and events which create conditions altogether peculiar to your service. We have long since learned to estimate thus, at their right value, the results you are able to report; conscious as we are that your progress has been no unopposed march over smooth roads, and that it would long ago have come to an end had you depended on the sanction and encouragement of popular favour. Although the ecclesiastical hostility with which you have to contend has no longer the power it once had, you have ever present evidence that its spirit and purpose are the same as when it drove your Protestant forefathers into exile or persecuted them to the death.

As we note the crossing currents of policy, which sometimes make the state of your national affairs a perplexing problem to those who look upon them from the outside, and while we try as best we can to understand the origin and tendency of those conflicting forces, our love for your Church makes us instinctively watch their bearing upon its well-being and prospects. If at times such a survey suggests gloomy forebodings, we are kept from despondency on your account when we recollect the history of Methodism in France and Switzerland. Though that history may not be illuminated by brilliant achievement as judged by popular sentiment, it tells of a gracious and most beneficent work steadily wrought out in the face of difficulties which would have disheartened any but the most heroic fidelity.

There are those in France who have made it part of their avowed policy to stir up ill will against the British nation and government. We would not give undue importance to this attempt, or regard it as by any means representing the sentiment of the French people generally. Yet we cannot contemplate without grave concern anything whatever that would seek to interrupt the international concord which has existed for a long period. Any breach of that concord would be a European calamity. We rejoice to know that all the operations and influence of your Church are for the maintenance and promotion of unity between the two peoples, as they are for the furtherance of political and social righteousness within your own borders.

Your missionary enterprise in Northern Africa, among the Kabyles, is of great interest, and of importance out of all proportion to its present extent, carried on as it is in the face of determined opposition and unscrupulous misrepresentation. We share your hope and faith that this patient sowing will yet lead to the joys of harvest.

We have heard from time to time ominous tidings of the spread of intemperance in France, especially in the large urban populations. Amongst us the curse of drunkenness rages terribly; and we have been accustomed to look with admiration, and almost with envy, upon the conspicuous sobriety of your people. We all the more lament now to hear of the growth of this destructive mischief around you. At the same time we thankfully recognise the alert readiness with which you have set yourselves as a Church to meet the peril; and in this your holy endeavour we heartily wish you God speed.

Dear brethren, in the temporary decrease of your membership, and in all things which cause you sorrow and disappointment, we mourn with you. In your struggle against difficulties we admire your patience of faith and undaunted energy, and bless God for the grace which is thus shown forth in you. The powers arrayed against you are many and mighty, and sometimes the odds seem to be overwhelming. But they that be with you are more than they that be with them. As the word of God is your inspiration and confidence, so the help of God is your sure strength.

Nothing is more cheering in the history of French and Swiss Methodism than the unbroken continuity therein of faithful witness to the truth—the truth of the gospel. And we know confidently that we may reckon upon your standing fast in the same faith, and upon your persevering service as messengers of the truth. The mass that is to be changed is indeed vast, and the leaven seems to be relatively exceedingly small; but the whole shall be leavened. In helping on the salvation of your fair country, you have your own appointed part; and, being workers together with God, your work cannot ultimately fail.

We pray for you, brethren, that your own souls may be abundantly enriched and strengthened by the grace and love of God, and that such endowment of the Holy Spirit may be yours as shall inspire your ministry with a new fervour, and clothe it with a new power, compelling those who now affect to despise your work to acknowledge that the Lord God is verily with you as He was with your fathers.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1900.

HONOURED AND DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our eighteenth Conference, under the presidency of the Rev. William B. Rayner, at Pietermaritzburg, Natal, we give you cordial and affectionate greeting in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Your appointment of the Rev. William B. Rayner to be our President has afforded us great satisfaction. During his thirty-seven years in this country he has laboured in some of our most important circuits, and by his faithfulness, energy, and devotion has rendered to our Church invaluable service, and won our esteem and affection.

This has been the most memorable year in the history of South African Methodism and the most momentous in the annals of this country. The war now being waged by Great Britain against the Transvaal and the Orange Free State—a war which we believe to be as just as it was unavoidable—has greatly affected our Church. Some of our Border Circuits have been broken up for the time being, our places of worship closed, and our people driven from their homes, suffering privations, and in some cases indignities and cruelties at the hands of the Boers, while several of our Ministers have been commandeered and others thrown into prison.

Three of our senior European Ministers have died during the year. We greatly mourn their departure from our ranks, but we reverently bow to the will of God.

The Rev. Edwin Gedye, after forty-three years of laborious and faithful service, passed home to God on June 25, 1899. He was an earnest and useful Minister and missionary, and in his earlier ministry endured great trials and perils. His work among the natives, both spiritual and educational, was of great value, and he is remembered by them with affectionate regard.

We have suffered irreparable loss through the death of our beloved brother the Rev. James Thompson, M.A., who passed into the eternal peace of God on November 13 of last year in Kimberley, during the siege. He was a distinguished preacher, a man of wide and varied culture, and possessed of large experience in Connexional affairs. The beauty and saintliness of his life and character will keep his memory fragrant for many years to come. He was a great intellectual and spiritual force amongst us, and his influence was felt far beyond the bounds of our own Church.

The removal by death of the Rev. John E. Parsonson is also a great loss to our Connexion. For ten years he honourably filled the position of Head-master of the Queenstown Grammar School, while for some years he was the active and efficient Secretary of our Conference. He was possessed of considerable attainments, and was an able preacher and a kind and genial friend. During the twenty-five years of his ministry he rendered excellent service in many branches of our Church work. We had hoped for him a life of fuller and richer service; but he was not, for God took him.

Our Educational and Industrial Institutions are in a flourishing condition. The High School for Girls in Grahamstown still maintains its high standard of excellence; and Kingswood College, in the same city, is fulfilling our brightest hopes. Both these schools are not only good centres of education, but they are also centres of spiritual life and power.

The Institutions at Healdtown, Bensonvale, Clarkebury, and elsewhere are becoming more thoroughly equipped for work, and are doing good service in preparing teachers for the increasing number of native schools established in connexion with our Church. Notwithstanding the serious difficulties under which we have laboured during the past year, we are grateful to Almighty God to be able to report a membership of 58,206 full members, 25,871 on trial, and 15,340 junior members, showing a total of 99,417, and a net increase of 4,296. Of this large number of persons, amounting to nearly 100,000 connected with us in fellowship, more than 80,000 are pure aborigines. We view with wonder and gratitude the extraordinary growth of the native work during the last fifteen or twenty years. We deeply feel the great responsibility thus laid upon us, and ask you to pray earnestly for us as we pray for ourselves, that we may have divine aid and guidance to duly fulfil it.

The Wesley Guild movement is very successful in many of our circuits, and we trust will promote the highest interests among the younger members of our Churches.

We regret that, owing to the outbreak and long continuance of the war, and the consequent disorganisation of our Church life and Circuit work in several districts, the progress of the Twentieth Century Fund movement has been seriously interrupted; and we have resolved, in view of the extraordinary financial needs of the Connexion which the resources of the Missionary Society are not able to meet, to commend this Fund afresh to the sympathy and liberality of our people. Its main object is the sustentation and extension of our European and native work in every department. Under the circumstances we have deemed it necessary to extend the time one year, that is until December 31, 1901, when it is hoped that the Fund will be closed. So far, our people, English and native, have responded generously in all cases where appeals could be made.

We have received into Full Connexion three English probationers who have given full proof of their worthiness to be raised to this honourable position. We have also admitted on trial five English and two native brethren. We are sending to the Theological Institution five men as students, and one native to the Institution at Lesseyton.

We thank you for your appointment of the Rev. William B. Rayner as our President. He has conducted the business of the Conference with ability, tact, and courtesy, and has justified the appointment. We respectfully nominate the Rev. Alfred T. Rhodes to be our next President. During his long term of service he has endeared himself to all the brethren, and his exceptional powers as a preacher and administrator mark him as a worthy successor of the previous occupants of the chair of the Conference.

In this season of great anxiety and trouble we earnestly desire an interest in your prayers. We know that you do pray for us, but we entreat you to offer yet more frequent and fervent intercession on our behalf to Almighty God, that He may be pleased to give peace and rest to this afflicted land. It is the sphere in which we have been called to live and labour, and we regard it with deep affection, though our attachment to the motherland, from which most of us come, has not diminished. We love the various peoples who inhabit the country, and will do what in us lies for their salvation. Again we say, "Pray for us," that our humble labours may contribute to the extension and speedy triumph of the kingdom of Christ in this continent.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ALFRED T. RHODES, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1900.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We have received the Address of your Eighteenth Annual Conference with much interest and great sympathy. Our hearts have gone out to you, in the fellowship of suffering, in your sorrows, losses, and bereavements, which have come upon you in connexion with the war in South Africa. We have noted with great thankfulness the sublime courage, devotion, and patience of your Ministers and people, both English and native, amid the calamities which have fallen upon your families and Churches. Our own work in the Transvaal and Bechuanaland has suffered with yours in all the horrors of this war. Churches have been closed, our people have been scattered—many have suffered the loss of all things, even of life. Your sorrows and sufferings have called forth our deepest sympathies and love. The generosity of our people has been aroused on behalf of the sick and wounded, the widows and orphans, wives and children, who are suffering from the effects of this war. In thousands of our homes prayer unceasing has been, and is being, offered every day on your behalf.

We thank you for the great kindness and help which the Methodists of Cape Colony and Natal have shown to our Ministers and people, refugees from the Transvaal. We thank you too for the noble services of the Ministers whom you have sent as Chaplains to our troops; while your loving, thoughtful care of our sick and wounded, sent to the hospitals in the Cape and Natal, has aroused our deep and lasting gratitude.

We pray that this war may come to a speedy end, and that a peace may be established, founded in righteousness, which shall insure freedom, justice, and equal rights to all the people of South Africa.

We thank God on your behalf that, amid all the distractions of war, you have been able to devote yourselves with such great zeal to your own proper work of caring for the souls and bodies of men. We rejoice with you in the large success that has attended your labours during the past year, which is evidenced by the increase of 4,296 to your Church membership.

With great thankfulness to God we note that more than 80,000 of your members are natives. We pray that your Church may continue to grow in power and in numbers, for the good of Africa and to the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We mourn with you in the loss the Church in Africa has sustained by the deaths of the Rev. Edwin Gedye, who for so many years rendered faithful service to your Church; the Rev. James Thompson, M.A., the scholar, eloquent preacher, and able administrator, honoured by you being twice elected as your President, whose pathetic death amid the terrible circumstances of the siege of Kimberley has touched the hearts of all our people; and the Rev. John E. Parsonson, your Representative to our last Conference, whose sudden death while in this country has deprived your Church of a singularly able Minister. May God comfort the families of our departed brethren; and may He bless the Church by raising up many Christlike successors to carry on their work.

We greatly rejoice in the attention you give to Education, and that the results amongst the children of your people are so gratifying.

We realise with you the great importance of the training of native agents and Ministers for the work amongst the native races of South Africa. We pray that God will greatly bless your efforts in this department of service, and that He will continue to raise up men for this work full of zeal and of the Holy Ghost.

We are glad that you are giving increased attention to the question of training men for the English Ministry. We realise how important this is to the future success of your Church. May God pour out His Spirit upon your young men, and call many labourers into His vineyard.

We note with much satisfaction that the Wesley Guild movement is very successful in many of your circuits. Where the Guild is properly worked, and its spiritual aims kept in the forefront, it is sure to be a blessing to the Church and a means of gathering our young people into the fold of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We are glad to know that your Twentieth Century Fund has made so much progress, notwithstanding your great losses consequent on the war. We think, however, that you are well advised in extending the term for another year. We trust that your effort may prove a great success, and result in much blessing.

Our own fund has excited great interest amongst our people. We are confident we shall, by the blessing of God, raise the Million; but our greatest gain is not the money, but the intense spiritual devotion to Christ and His Church which this movement has evoked.

We have unanimously approved your nomination of the Rev. Alfred T. Rhodes as your President for 1901. His attractive personality and his great gifts as a preacher and administrator are not unknown to some of the members of this Conference. You have called him to this high office in a time of great difficulty and anxiety in South Africa. We earnestly pray that he may be endued with the spirit of wisdom and of power, and trust that his year of office may be one of unbounded blessing and great spiritual prosperity to all your Churches and peoples.

And now, brethren, we commend you to the Lord to "make you increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end He may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.

HONOURED AND BELOVED BRETHREN,—

The Address of your Eighth General Conference, held at Auckland, New Zealand, 1897, was to us a "word of good cheer." We rejoice in your growth and prosperity. We greatly admire your fidelity and zeal. We cherish towards you feelings of the highest esteem and most brotherly love.

The pioneers of Methodism in Australasia, whose names are familiar to us in this country are passing one by one to their well deserved reward. They were men endowed with special gifts for their work, and consecration to God was written upon all their powers. As wise master-builders, they laid the foundations of the Methodist Church under the constellation of the Southern Cross upon the impregnable rock of divine truth and love. God honoured them with success, and you are building upon the same foundations. We praise God for your love and loyalty to Methodist doctrine, your missionary enthusiasm and adventure, your profound interest in all the branches of education, your aggressive work amongst the masses of your cities, your patient care for the scattered populations of the interior of your island continent, and your one-hearted zeal for the universal prosperity of the kingdom of God.

There has been no more important event for many years past than the passing by the Legislature of this country of the recent Act federating the Australian colonies. We are assured that in your vast country, with its unlimited resources, with a people speaking the English tongue, living under the English flag, and mainly Protestant in religion, you are building a Commonwealth that will be "great, glorious, and free." In the moulding of the great future of Australia the Methodist Church will have an important part to play in forming the national, civic, and family life; and this new federation will knit your colonies to the empire in closer bonds of union.

The whole world has appreciated the object-lesson which, in common with other British colonies, your sons have given recently in rallying to the assistance of the mother country in South Africa, thus demonstrating by their patriotism the solidarity and loyalty of the British Empire.

The care which you have manifested for the religious welfare of the Australian Methodist soldiers engaged in this distressing war is very gratifying to us.

Last year we were refreshed by the visit of Dr. Fitchett, whose literary achievements, public addresses, and pulpit ministry roused the enthusiasm of our people, and raised their estimate of, and esteem for, Australian Methodism.

We have welcomed with honour your distinguished missionary, the Rev. Frederick Langham, who is now completing in London the final revision of the Bible in the Fijian language, under the auspices of the British and Foreign Bible Society. His long and faithful service, and his testimony as a living witness of the remarkable changes effected by the gospel in Fiji, have confirmed our faith and brightened our hope.

We have watched with sympathetic interest your care for the old mission-fields in Polynesia, which were our "first love," and also the extension of your work in New Guinea and Torres Straits. In this work you have proved to be aggressive and enterprising beyond the expectations of some, and you have rebuked their fears. We are confident that your new Organising Secretary will do all that is possible to maintain and increase your missionary income, so as to meet the demands which your success will create.

We hail the establishment of a separate Annual Conference for Western Australia as an additional proof of your progress and expansion.

We deeply appreciate your expressions of sympathy with us in the trials that have come to our Churches in South Africa through the disturbances occasioned by the conflict of arms which we so much deplore.

Not only in South Africa, but also in China, our Foreign Missionaries are living in troublous times, and the position of our brethren in China especially is giving us the gravest anxiety, and leading us to fervent prayer on their behalf.

The Twentieth Century Fund, which we are raising to inaugurate the new epoch that will shortly dawn, has been retarded by various and altogether exceptional causes during the last twelve months; but Methodist generosity and enthusiasm, which have been so conspicuously exemplified during our present Conference, will now enable us to accomplish our great object of placing one million guineas at the feet of Jesus for progressive work during the next century. The noble response of our people is at once the promise and prophecy of the great future of our Church at home and abroad. We heartily desire that a great success may attend the spirit of enterprise with which you also have entered upon a Century Fund scheme. We are satisfied that, not only in your Commonwealth, but here also, the gifts of our people on this special occasion will only serve as a stimulus for the ordinary contributions of the Church. We have regarded with keen interest the growth of Methodist Union in Australia, and rejoice in that unity of the spirit which is the bond of peace. Organic union may not be possible everywhere, even amongst those who hold the same doctrines and have similar Church polity; but when it can be achieved, it will, we believe, accelerate the accomplishment of our Saviour's prayer—"that they all may be one."

It is an unspeakable joy to us to believe that the days of disruption in Methodism are gone for ever, and that, although we may form different branches of the one Church, we have a common religious experience, and desire to spread scriptural holiness through the land, and heartily co-operate with all who are seeking to win the world for Christ. The difficulties which face you, in the vice of intemperance, a weakened regard for the sanctity of the Lord's Day, the pernicious spirit of gambling, and the evil spirit of impurity, are those with which we have to struggle. Our preachers to-day have an evangel which is awakening, convincing, and persuasive. In proportion as we are alive to the danger of the sinner and the value of the human soul we shall exercise a ministry of rescue.

We are deeply thankful for an increase of over five thousand members this year, and the demand in our Circuits for additional Ministers is beyond our available supply of trained and suitable men. We are anticipating the privilege and joy of greeting some of you at the Œcumenical Conference in London next year, and we pray for the blessing of God upon that great representative gathering of the world's Methodists.

By our successful Wesley Guild movement we are thankful to know that we are attaching our young people to Church work and inspiring them with an intelligent personal love and loyalty to the Head of the Church.

You will, with us, regret the retirement of Dr. Stephenson from the control of that great philanthropy, the Children's Home, which he founded and has conducted for forty years with such conspicuous blessing to the friendless youth of this and other lands. It is all the more solemn that failing health should be the cause of his retirement; but we trust that for many years to come he may, in renewed strength, be spared as a pastor in our Circuit life.

We regret that the Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., cannot visit Australia this year. But if the General Conference should request it, the British Conference will be glad to appoint him to visit the Colonies during the year 1902. He will bear to the Methodist Churches of Australia our fraternal greetings, and assure you of our continued affection for you and our intense interest in your work and welfare.

May you realise the blessings of another Pentecost during your gatherings at Brisbane, and may "the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end He may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

BURSLEM,
August 3, 1900.

IV. CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2 AND 3, LUDGATE CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

THERE are some important features in the annual statistical returns which give cause for thankfulness, and which must be regarded as vital to the prosperity of our Schools. In addition to an increase of 46 in the total number of Sunday Schools, there is an increase of 631 full Church Members, and of 977 in our Junior Society Classes from among our Scholars. The Conference Catechisms are used in 71 more of our Schools than we reported last year, and 50 additional Schools are connected with the Sunday-school Union.

The Committee, however, regrets to report a decrease in the total number of Scholars of 5,380; a decrease in the average morning attendance of 8,460, and in the afternoon of 7,042.

The total number in the Adult Bible-classes and Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Classes is 61,527, a net increase, taking the returns of both organisations, of 4,329. The Manchester District suggests that the remarkable increase of 8,195 in the Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Classes may in some degree account for the decrease in the number of Scholars reported this year. Thirteen Districts report an increase of Scholars; twenty Districts report decreases. Compared with the gross total of Scholars on the register the decrease of less than six Scholars per 1,000, though unsatisfactory, is not so serious as a first glance at the figures might suggest. The present number of Scholars compared with the totals in 1890, ten years ago, shows an increase of 34,158. Most of the Districts in which decreases are reported indicate that there is no apparent decline in sympathy or interest in the work of our Schools.

Oxford, Portsmouth, and Leeds Synods urge the Circuit Quarterly Meetings to give greater attention to their Sunday Schools. Bristol recommends a more general use of the Star System of marking. Halifax and Bradford District regards the modern craze for popular pastimes as injuriously affecting our Sunday Schools. Carlisle emphasises the importance of Catechetical teaching, and better attendance at Public Worship. Leeds recommends the introduction of the New Brief Catechism, and Bolton suggests the improvement of the Sunday Morning School by brief addresses, Catechetical instruction, and more singing; the brightening of the Sunday Morning Service in Chapel, and the better indoctrination of our Teachers in Methodist principles and polity by gathering them together in groups for this purpose.

The Committee feels deeply the importance of keeping up the Morning School, and of how great moment it is to all our Scholars above eight years of age that they should be regularly accustomed to attend the house of God. Methodism was never made by a race of half-timers, and can never be worked by such, and the Committee affectionately appeals to our Officers and Teachers to take an increased interest in the Morning School, and to set before their Scholars the example of regular attendance at Public Worship.

There are in the judgment of the Committee three ways by which the morning attendance and the numbers of our Scholars may be immediately increased; viz. visitation, canvassing, and registration—the visitation of irregulars, canvassing for new Scholars, and a strict and conscientious attention to the registration of all who attend.

The Committee reports with pleasure the demand for a new edition of Mr. James Bailey's Manual on Sunday-school Teaching, the first edition having sold off very rapidly; and the preparation and issue of a book of Notes on "The New Brief Catechism," by Elsie, as well as a continuous demand for Miss Anna M. Hellier's invaluable work, entitled "Talks on the Catechism."

These three books should be in the hands of all our Teachers.

The Special Examination for Teachers and Senior Scholars, which the Conference committed to the Union, has had an encouraging beginning.

Essays have been invited during the year, and are now in the hands of the adjudicators, Messrs. J. ROBERT BARLOW, B.A., THOMAS WALKER, and EDWARD DINGLEY, and it is hoped they will embody valuable suggestions upon the Morning School, attendance at Public Worship, and other aspects of our work which are giving our most devoted Teachers in the Northern Midlands and elsewhere serious concern.

Children's Day was one of great blessing, and was observed with spiritual earnestness and remarkable results throughout the Connexion. The Secretary has conducted a large number of Conventions, and has been generously and sympathetically supported everywhere.

The Business Department is satisfactory, and the Lantern Work is greatly on the increase. In its own special line, in preparing subjects for Children's Services and Mission Work among neglected children it has had unlooked-for success.

The Committee commends its work to the prayers and practical sympathy of all our Schools.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

WE have first to thank God and His people for the year's income. In gifts for current necessities it has reached £23,431 4*s.* 6*d.*, which is £2,225 11*s.* 3*d.* in excess of the year before. That was an advance of £1,195 4*s.* 7*d.* upon the previous year. And this has occurred when the Twentieth Century Fund, the War Funds, and other important claims have been specially urgent. The increase is mainly in Subscriptions and Donations, but all our methods of gathering have been crowned with success.

The Young Leaguers' Union has been organised during the year, and promises to be a valuable auxiliary to our work. By means of this Union it is hoped that we shall unite the young people of Methodist homes in Christian service on behalf of their less fortunate brothers and sisters. Where the Young Leaguers' Union has been established, it has proved itself a valuable agent in strengthening the connexion of its members with our Church, and it gives them a sense of partnership in the work of the Children's Home. A large number of young people belonging to our own Church are connected with similar organisations associated with other charitable institutions. Whilst recognising the value of such work, we cannot but feel that the Children's Home has the first claim upon the children of Methodism.

Meanwhile the number of children and young people touched by our enterprises has also grown. Including Homes, Schools, Cripples' Mission, and Girls' Protection Agency, not less than 1,435 have been under our care. To this must be added a most important branch of work—the systematic visitation and guardianship of about 500 young people who have left our doors but yet need in the years of their adolescence guiding and guarding influence. If these be added, a total of 1,932 souls have occupied our thought and attention, and have in varying degree cost us something. Of course the bulk of our expenditure has been upon those in residence; but the balance has not been less worthily spent.

We are caring for the waif child as we did at first. The wild lads of the New Cut who were our earliest care have never been without their successors. During the past year many exceptionally sad cases of this class have been admitted.

There has been a marked increase in the number of crippled or otherwise physically disadvantaged children who have come under our care. We cannot but recognise in this a providential call to go to those who want us most. We have also in our care a few epileptic girls.

Meantime, our efforts to intercept the orphan children of godly parents on the steps of the Workhouse School is proving both practicable and desirable. One hundred and fifty-five such children are now in our hands. Many more might have been had we been able to house them. The prominence given to this effort in meetings on behalf of the Twentieth Century Fund having led to a large increase of such applications, the Committee has been compelled to make temporary provision to meet the demand by hiring a few additional houses.

Many Boards of Guardians have shown great willingness to promote our wishes; and the children—even those who have actually for a time been in the Workhouse School—when they have come under the influence of our system, have with rare exceptions quickly become undistinguishable in manner, bearing, and look from our other children.

One other class of our little clients deserves at this moment a specially tender mention. Long before the present war commenced we were receiving the orphan children of soldiers and sailors. No sooner did hostilities break out than we declared our willingness to meet such cases as might arise in the hazards of the South African battlefields. We have received several such children, and the applications are steadily increasing; but we do not yet know how many more may come to our doors.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

We report this year 4,733 Bands of Hope, with a membership of 426,041, an increase of 3 Bands and a decrease of 14,139 in their membership. We also report 1,637 Temperance Societies, with a membership of 94,653, an increase of 73 Societies and of 3,977 members.

We rejoice that the increase in our adult organisations and their membership is steadily maintained; but we view with grave concern the considerable decrease in the membership of our Bands of Hope, although we console ourselves that in all such statistics fluctuations of this kind are very common, and that the change in the form of our Schedule this year has not improbably had some influence upon the returns in this column. We are convinced that much might be done to extend our work amongst the young if the Sunday-school Teachers' Pledge-Book were in more general use, and if there were more definite efforts made to organise distinct Temperance work in the Sunday School itself. The example of some Sunday Schools in which a Temperance Secretary of the Sunday School has been appointed to look after this matter in the School might be copied with advantage. In ten years we report an increase of 1,164 Bands of Hope, and of 55,360 in their membership; and of 985 Temperance Societies, and of 51,172 in their membership. We are again compelled to note the large number of Societies that are allowed to lapse. This year 227 Bands of Hope and 159 Temperance Societies have gone out of existence. This ought not to be, especially with our Circuit system; and this leakage would be largely ended if Circuit Unions were generally established.

The past year has been one of exceptional activity in relation to Temperance legislation. The Committee, after serious deliberation, adopted a very carefully prepared body of Resolutions which were sent, not only to the press, but also to the Ministers, the Circuit Secretaries, and others throughout the Connexion. These Resolutions are strongly in support of legislation upon the general lines of the Minority Report. A Manifesto in the same sense was also issued, signed by the President, all the Ex-Presidents, and all the Chairmen of Districts except one, who would undoubtedly have signed it if he had not been absent from the country at the time of its preparation. A memorial asking the Government to initiate legislation upon the basis of Lord Peel's Report was adopted by all the Synods except Nottingham and Derby, Zetland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, the two latter having no connexion with the British Parliament. A Board has been established, under the name of the Central Temperance Legislation Board, for the purpose of promoting legislation upon the lines of Lord Peel's Report. We, in common with most of the principal Temperance organisations of the kingdom, have associated ourselves with this Board.

The Committee did its utmost within the limits of its financial resources to aid the Sunday Closing Bill for Monmouthshire and the Bill for preventing the sale of drink to children. All the Synods, with the exception of the Channel Islands, Isle of Man, and Zetland, petitioned Parliament in support of these measures.

The Committee has joined the Temperance Committees of the other Free Churches in beginning to arrange for a Pledge-signing Crusade early in the New Century. The Crusade is to be formally initiated on Temperance Sunday of this year (November 25), to be carried on during the year, and to culminate in a number of central meetings in October and November, 1901, and united Gospel Temperance Missions throughout the country during the week commencing on Temperance Sunday, 1901. The object of the Crusade is to secure at least a million new pledges, and to awaken general interest in the Temperance question.

We have witnessed with unfeigned satisfaction the failure of the effort to obtain a licence for the Crystal Palace on the Lord's Day, and very much rejoice in the honourable part that the Temperance Committees of the three London Districts took in that important matter.

The Committee has laid its plans for an extension of its work in the following directions: (1) The establishment of a Home for Inebriates; (2) the establishment of Scientific Lectureships for our Day Schools and Colleges; (3) the formation of a Connexional Band of Hope and Temperance Union; (4) the appointment of Police Court Missionaries. For the initiation of these enterprises the Committee is looking to a grant from the Twentieth Century Fund. If work upon such a scale is to be maintained, a largely increased annual income is necessary.

Church bring upon us, it is a joy to turn aside awhile and interchange with you, our nearest of kin, notes of progress in the work which to you and to us alike is dear beyond everything. We have listened with delight and profit to the voices of friends old and new who have come to us from you; and we hope that they will bear away with them some sense of the warmth with which our hearts have gone out towards them, not only on account of their own personal worth, but even more for the sake of a Church to which we are bound with ties of special affection.

It is a matter of deep thankfulness to us that you have been spared such losses among your leaders as you had last year to deplore. To us likewise God has been merciful. It is indeed a rare experience to begin our Pastoral Session without a single vacancy by death in the ranks of the Legal Conference; and though brethren greatly beloved are compelled by advancing years to seek a lightening of responsibilities and labours, we are thankful to God, as you are, that He still spares to most of them a measure of health and strength for continued service in His cause. We are encouraged by your assurance that a supply of suitable candidates for the Ministry does not cease. We are not at present equally happy in this respect, for with us the demand is heavy and the supply limited to an extent that threatens to restrict our work in many fields already "white unto harvest." You will join us in prayer to "the Lord of the harvest that He may thrust out labourers into His harvest."

Our membership, like yours, shows an increase, but an increase far from representing the real progress that is made. Among us, now as ever, "he that is wise winneth souls," and men gifted with this wisdom are at work with blessed results in the crowded city and over the green countryside. The results are largely beyond the reach of any statistics, but they are there; and while wasted lives in thousands continue to be born anew for God in Christ, while the children continue to be drawn from the perils of the world by the gracious attractions of love divine, we shall not complain if those who can only judge by tables account our work a comparative failure. At the present time our thoughts are much turned towards a great aggressive movement in which we shall heartily join the other Free Churches, who seek to mark the opening century by a great simultaneous mission. The intense evangelistic enthusiasm of John Wesley is in these days happily shared by many Churches with which we stand on terms of cordial and fraternal alliance, and we look for a great and general outpouring of the Spirit, from which every Church will benefit according as its members are prepared by faith.

We sympathise deeply with you in your continued struggle with priestcraft and superstition. We need not inform you that a like struggle is going on in our own country, even if we have not the peculiar difficulties which surround you. But while with you the enemy is at the gate, with us he has entered what has for centuries been regarded as a citadel of pure reformed faith. He has mastered the passwords, and his emissaries have even received commissions in the army of defence. Our brethren who hold the Protestant faith within the Established Church are hard pressed, and not a little hampered in their brave endeavours by the ecclesiastical conditions they have inherited. But we believe the heart of the nation to be soundly Protestant, and in the new unity of the Evangelical Free Churches we see a powerful guarantee that England will not be unfaithful to the freedom with which Christ set her free at the Reformation.

We warmly congratulate you upon the success attending your Twentieth Century Fund. Such success can only have been won by a very strong and general realisation among you of the stewardship to which the Master calls His servants, rich and poor alike. If it is true that "the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil," it is also true that those who are "ready to distribute" find giving a most fruitful means of grace, by which they may often learn to "lay hold on the life which is life indeed." This has been our constant experience throughout the gathering of the immense sum which we have set ourselves to raise for aggressive work in the new century, a sum which the secret self-denial of numberless poor brethren, no less than the splendid gifts of very many wealthy men among us, now seems to have made almost an assured fact—doubly assured indeed since the memorable conversation on the subject at this Conference. All over the country, and in the foreign field, new enterprises are awaiting the successful termination of this unparalleled enterprise, and we have too much confidence in the hallowed enthusiasm of our people to believe that they will for a moment think of allowing it to fail.

This great enterprise has been hampered most seriously by the exceptional calls upon the liberality of our people. In Central India our missionaries have been battling for months with the combined horrors of famine and pestilence, and large sums have been sent through our Mission House to relieve the distress amid which they have heroically toiled. The claims of those who suffer most directly from the war in South Africa have not found Methodists less responsive than their fellow citizens. The third great trouble upon the horizon admits at present of no remedy so easy as the giving of money. Our eyes are still turned with eager anxiety to the land where, since your Address was written, an almost unprecedented self-revelation of heathenism has staggered humanity. So far, our own missionaries are safe; but we are full of fear lest the land for which the saintly David Hill and many another noble missionary gave their apostolic labours may for a season be closed to the gospel.

The successes of your Home Mission work call out our heartfelt thankfulness. They have been won in fields like those in which our own aggressive movements have gained signal triumphs. Our Representatives have been greatly struck with the success of your efforts to win and retain the young. The reward of your labours comes back to you in a ministry second to none for the combination of culture and enthusiasm, and a membership worthy of your high traditions. You will rejoice with us in the progress we have made in the same work. Our Wesley Guild movement has prospered abundantly, so that at the Conference of 1901 we propose to set apart a Minister to take charge of a work that has grown too heavy to be combined with pastoral cares.

We have again recorded our unanimous opposition to the endowment of a Roman Catholic University out of public funds. We are equally at one with you in our ardent desire to see the tyranny of the Drink Traffic restricted by such legislation as that recommended in Lord Peel's Report. You will share our grief and indignation at the failure of the Legislature to pass into law such obviously salutary reforms as the restriction of the sale of liquor to children and the extension of Sunday Closing. But in this, as in the other great social evils of gambling and impurity, we believe that no legislation can take the place of a passionate earnestness within the Church of Christ, which must train all who come within the range of Christian influence to make no compromise [redacted] deadly evils that devastate mankind.

The visit of our dearly loved and venerated Queen to Ireland was to us also a source of great thankfulness. It was well merited by the gallantry of her Majesty's Irish troops in South Africa, where their devotion, with that of our British and Colonial troops, has brought touches of light into the lurid darkness of war. We can well believe that you anticipate the happiest results from this effort, in a sphere untouched by party politics, to cement a true union of mutual respect and sympathy between races long and sadly estranged.

We have appointed the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald, Ex-President, the Rev. Enoch Salt, and the Rev. William Burgess, with Mr. S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., to accompany the President to your Conference in 1901. They will account it a privilege to meet with you in the first Methodist Conference of the new century; and they will bring, we trust, tidings that, after the offerings have been laid on the altar, the windows of heaven have opened upon you and outpoured a blessing, "that there shall not be room enough to receive it." We pray that the Lord, "who alone worketh great marvels," may send upon you and us, and upon Methodism throughout the world, in mighty abundance, "the healthful spirit of His grace," that He may so "cause His face to shine upon us, that His way may be known upon earth, His saving health among all nations."

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900.

BELOVED AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Your noble Address to our Conference was listened to with great satisfaction. Your intelligent appreciation of our situation and of its difficulties, as well as your deep and kindly sympathy with our labours and sorrows, strengthen us to persevere in our work of faith and patience. We missed the presence of the genial Representative who has for several years been the bearer to us of your greetings. It was with pleasure that we learned that you had invested him, last year, with the highest honour which your Conference can bestow; and we perfectly understood that the incessant duties of his office prevented him from paying us his customary visit. The cordial reception which you accorded to the Rev. Onésime Prenier, B.A., B.D., our delegate to your last Conference, is a further proof of the affectionate interest which you take in our affairs.

The numerous organs of the press, secular and religious, keep you fully informed as to the restlessness which has characterised the political and social life of the French nation during the last twelve months. You are fully aware of the acts of intolerance and violence for which the Roman Catholic clergy are responsible. Nor do we need to dwell upon the chilling influence of a widely spread rationalism on the rise and progress of true religion, nor upon the increase of dissipation, of intemperance, and of other vices antagonistic to the triumph of the kingdom of God. You are well acquainted with the difficulties of our situation, and prepared to rejoice with us in any success which we may obtain, and to sympathise with us in any reverses which we may encounter. We will confine our Address to a brief enumeration of the leading features of the last Methodist year, referring, almost exclusively, to the work of God in the older section of our field of labour, and not to the extensive work in the north of France founded by the late Rev. William Gibson, and now carried on under the direction of the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A.

Last year we reported the death of two of our oldest Ministers. This year another of our veterans, the Rev. Matthieu Audibert, was suddenly called to enter into the Master's joy. A few hours previously, after a brief illness, his wife had entered into rest. Husband and wife were borne together to the grave. Of the Ministers who took part in founding the first French Conference in 1852, three only remain. But, though God buries His workmen, He carries on His work. We have proof of this in the fact that two young brethren who have completed their term of study in our Theological Institution have this year been appointed to circuits, and several likely candidates are being brought forward. An ex-priest, who has been for some time employed as an evangelist, has been received as a probationer and appointed to a circuit.

The Governor and Theological Tutor of our Institution bears hearty testimony to the activity of the students under his care in evangelistic work at Paris and in the promotion of temperance. There is a growing need in France for earnest temperance effort, and several of our Ministers display a zeal in that work which would rejoice the heart of such valiant apostles of that cause as Richard Tabraham, Charles Garrett, Thomas Champness, and many others.

We have no distinctively Methodist school for the education of boys, but our Young Ladies' School at Nîmes is prosperous both educationally and financially. Our pupils have again taken an honourable place in the public examinations, and an excellent moral influence has reigned in the establishment during the year.

Our missionary in Kabylia cannot yet rejoice "with the joy of harvest." But he sees, with thankfulness, the upspringing of the seed which has been sown during years of preparation and toil. The prejudices of the natives are being overcome. They manifest a touching attachment to the missionaries; and the children who have received instruction at the Mission House inspire well founded hope as to the approaching success of the gospel in this part of Northern Africa.

Our Conference has been held this year at Bourdeaux, in Languedoc. The natural surroundings might well call to mind the words of the 125th Psalm: "As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about His people." In this small and out-of-the-way meeting-place we were received with great cordiality. Lodgings more than sufficient were offered for Ministers and laymen. And in some of the public services a gracious influence was felt. The ordination service especially produced a deep impression upon the large congregation assembled to witness it.

In the Conference itself we felt, on more than one occasion, a special influence from on high. Sorrow fell upon our hearts when we found that we had a considerable decrease of members. Searching inquiry was made into the causes of this decline; and to some extent our spirits were revived on finding that the declension was due, in a considerable degree, to unavoidable circumstances, such as a high percentage of deaths and the withdrawal of a Minister from a post formerly occupied. But we cannot reconcile ourselves to an unprogressive condition. We beg for continuous and glorious success.

We have appointed as our Representatives to your Conference the Rev. Jules Guiton and the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A. The second name is well known to you, respected and beloved by both you and us. The former is the son of one of the founders of the French Conference, upon whose ministry in certain circuits there rested a remarkable blessing. We heartily recommend Mr. Guiton to you as filled with a spirit which you so greatly appreciate, that of evangelistic zeal.

Our Conference has again chosen as its President a brother well known to you and highly esteemed by us, the Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D. We have no doubt that you will cordially ratify our nomination.

Earnestly praying that the presence of God may in an especial manner hallow your assembling and crown you with living fire, we commend you to the care and grace of the great Head of the Church.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ÉMILE BERTRAND, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1900.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

You need no protestation of ours to convince you of our loving sympathy with you, and our lively interest in your great work; and it is as no mere formality that we send you this our yearly greeting, and assure you of our thankful appreciation of the Address we have received from you, and of the hearty welcome we give to your worthy Representatives, the Rev. Jules Guiton and the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A., who have brought it to us.

It seems but a little thing to say that we watch with deepest interest the whole of the work in which you are engaged. As fellow workers in the Church in the one mission of the gospel it could not be otherwise. But we are anxious that you should know how solicitously we acquaint ourselves at every opportunity with the circumstances and events which create conditions altogether peculiar to your service. We have long since learned to estimate thus, at their right value, the results you are able to report; conscious as we are that your progress has been no unopposed march over smooth roads, and that it would long ago have come to an end had you depended on the sanction and encouragement of popular favour. Although the ecclesiastical hostility with which you have to contend has no longer the power it once had, you have ever present evidence that its spirit and purpose are the same as when it drove your Protestant forefathers into exile or persecuted them to the death.

As we note the crossing currents of policy, which sometimes make the state of your national affairs a perplexing problem to those who look upon them from the outside, and while we try as best we can to understand the origin and tendency of those conflicting forces, our love for your Church makes us instinctively watch their bearing upon its well-being and prospects. If at times such a survey suggests gloomy forebodings, we are kept from despondency on your account when we recollect the history of Methodism in France and Switzerland. Though that history may not be illuminated by brilliant achievement as judged by popular sentiment, it tells of a gracious and most beneficent work steadily wrought out in the face of difficulties which would have disheartened any but the most heroic fidelity.

There are those in France who have made it part of their avowed policy to stir up ill will against the British nation and government. We would not give undue importance to this attempt, or regard it as by any means representing the sentiment of the French people generally. Yet we cannot contemplate without grave concern anything whatever that would seek to interrupt the international concord which has existed for a long period. Any breach of that concord would be a European calamity. We rejoice to know that all the operations and influence of your Church are for the maintenance and promotion of unity between the two peoples, as they are for the furtherance of political and social righteousness within your own borders.

Your missionary enterprise in Northern Africa, among the Kabyles, is of great interest, and of importance out of all proportion to its present extent, carried on as it is in the face of determined opposition and unscrupulous misrepresentation. We share your hope and faith that this patient sowing will yet lead to the joys of harvest.

We have heard from time to time ominous tidings of the spread of intemperance in France, especially in the large urban populations. Amongst us the curse of drunkenness rages terribly; and we have been accustomed to look with admiration, and almost with envy, upon the conspicuous sobriety of your people. We all the more lament now to hear of the growth of this destructive mischief around you. At the same time we thankfully recognise the alert readiness with which you have set yourselves as a Church to meet the peril; and in this your holy endeavour we heartily wish you God speed.

Dear brethren, in the temporary decrease of your membership, and in all things which cause you sorrow and disappointment, we mourn with you. In your struggle against difficulties we admire your patience of faith and undaunted energy, and bless God for the grace which is thus shown forth in you. The powers arrayed against you are many and mighty, and sometimes the odds seem to be overwhelming. But they that be with you are more than they that be with them. As the word of God is your inspiration and confidence, so the help of God is your sure strength.

Nothing is more cheering in the history of French and Swiss Methodism than the unbroken continuity therein of faithful witness to the truth—the truth of the gospel. And we know confidently that we may reckon upon your standing fast in the same faith, and upon your persevering service as messengers of the truth. The mass that is to be changed is indeed vast, and the leaven seems to be relatively exceedingly small; but the whole shall be leavened. In helping on the salvation of your fair country, you have your own appointed part; and, being workers together with God, your work cannot ultimately fail.

We pray for you, brethren, that your own souls may be abundantly enriched and strengthened by the grace and love of God, and that such endowment of the Holy Spirit may be yours as shall inspire your ministry with a new fervour, and clothe it with a new power, compelling those who now affect to despise your work to acknowledge that the Lord God is verily with you as He was with your fathers.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1900.

HONOURED AND DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our eighteenth Conference, under the presidency of the Rev. William B. Rayner, at Pietermaritzburg, Natal, we give you cordial and affectionate greeting in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Your appointment of the Rev. William B. Rayner to be our President has afforded us great satisfaction. During his thirty-seven years in this country he has laboured in some of our most important circuits, and by his faithfulness, energy, and devotion has rendered to our Church invaluable service, and won our esteem and affection.

This has been the most memorable year in the history of South African Methodism and the most momentous in the annals of this country. The war now being waged by Great Britain against the Transvaal and the Orange Free State—a war which we believe to be as just as it was unavoidable—has greatly affected our Church. Some of our Border Circuits have been broken up for the time being, our places of worship closed, and our people driven from their homes, suffering privations, and in some cases indignities and cruelties at the hands of the Boers, while several of our Ministers have been commandeered and others thrown into prison.

Three of our senior European Ministers have died during the year. We greatly mourn their departure from our ranks, but we reverently bow to the will of God.

The Rev. Edwin Gedye, after forty-three years of laborious and faithful service, passed home to God on June 25, 1899. He was an earnest and useful Minister and missionary, and in his earlier ministry endured great trials and perils. His work among the natives, both spiritual and educational, was of great value, and he is remembered by them with affectionate regard.

We have suffered irreparable loss through the death of our beloved brother the Rev. James Thompson, M.A., who passed into the eternal peace of God on November 13 of last year in Kimberley, during the siege. He was a distinguished preacher, a man of wide and varied culture, and possessed of large experience in Connexional affairs. The beauty and saintliness of his life and character will keep his memory fragrant for many years to come. He was a great intellectual and spiritual force amongst us, and his influence was felt far beyond the bounds of our own Church.

The removal by death of the Rev. John E. Parsonson is also a great loss to our Connexion. For ten years he honourably filled the position of Head-master of the Queenstown Grammar School, while for some years he was the active and efficient Secretary of our Conference. He was possessed of considerable attainments, and was an able preacher and a kind and genial friend. During the twenty-five years of his ministry he rendered excellent service in many branches of our Church work. We had hoped for him a life of fuller and richer service; but he was not, for God took him.

Our Educational and Industrial Institutions are in a flourishing condition. The High School for Girls in Grahamstown still maintains its high standard of excellence; and Kingswood College, in the same city, is fulfilling our brightest hopes. Both these schools are not only good centres of education, but they are also centres of spiritual life and power.

The Institutions at Healdtown, Bensonvale, Clarkebury, and elsewhere are becoming more thoroughly equipped for work, and are doing good service in preparing teachers for the increasing number of native schools established in connexion with our Church. Notwithstanding the serious difficulties under which we have laboured during the past year, we are grateful to Almighty God to be able to report a membership of 58,206 full members, 25,871 on trial, and 15,340 junior members, showing a total of 99,417, and a net increase of 4,296. Of this large number of persons, amounting to nearly 100,000 connected with us in fellowship, more than 80,000 are pure aborigines. We view with wonder and gratitude the extraordinary growth of the native work during the last fifteen or twenty years. We deeply feel the great responsibility thus laid upon us, and ask you to pray earnestly for us as we pray for ourselves, that we may have divine aid and guidance to duly fulfil it.

The Wesley Guild movement is very successful in many of our circuits, and we trust will promote the highest interests among the younger members of our Churches.

We regret that, owing to the outbreak and long continuance of the war, and the consequent disorganisation of our Church life and Circuit work in several districts, the progress of the Twentieth Century Fund movement has been seriously interrupted; and we have resolved, in view of the extraordinary financial needs of the Connexion which the resources of the Missionary Society are not able to meet, to commend this Fund afresh to the sympathy and liberality of our people. Its main object is the sustentation and extension of our European and native work in every department. Under the circumstances we have deemed it necessary to extend the time one year, that is until December 31, 1901, when it is hoped that the Fund will be closed. So far, our people, English and native, have responded generously in all cases where appeals could be made.

We have received into Full Connexion three English probationers who have given full proof of their worthiness to be raised to this honourable position. We have also admitted on trial five English and two native brethren. We are sending to the Theological Institution five men as students, and one native to the Institution at Lesseyton.

We thank you for your appointment of the Rev. William B. Rayner as our President. He has conducted the business of the Conference with ability, tact, and courtesy, and has justified the appointment. We respectfully nominate the Rev. Alfred T. Rhodes to be our next President. During his long term of service he has endeared himself to all the brethren, and his exceptional powers as a preacher and administrator mark him as a worthy successor of the previous occupants of the chair of the Conference.

In this season of great anxiety and trouble we earnestly desire an interest in your prayers. We know that you do pray for us, but we entreat you to offer yet more frequent and fervent intercession on our behalf to Almighty God, that He may be pleased to give peace and rest to this afflicted land. [redacted] the sphere in which we have been called to live and labour, and we regard it with deep affection, though our attachment to the motherland, from which most of us come, has not diminished. We love the various peoples who inhabit the country, and will do what in us lies for their salvation. Again we say, "Pray for us," that our humble labours may contribute to the extension and speedy triumph of the kingdom of Christ in this continent.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ALFRED T. RHODES, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1900.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We have received the Address of your Eighteenth Annual Conference with much interest and great sympathy. Our hearts have gone out to you, in the fellowship of suffering, in your sorrows, losses, and bereavements, which have come upon you in connexion with the war in South Africa. We have noted with great thankfulness the sublime courage, devotion, and patience of your Ministers and people, both English and native, amid the calamities which have fallen upon your families and Churches. Our own work in the Transvaal and Bechuanaland has suffered with yours in all the horrors of this war. Churches have been closed, our people have been scattered—many have suffered the loss of all things, even of life. Your sorrows and sufferings have called forth our deepest sympathies and love. The generosity of our people has been aroused on behalf of the sick and wounded, the widows and orphans, wives and children, who are suffering from the effects of this war. In thousands of our homes prayer unceasing has been, and is being, offered every day on your behalf.

We thank you for the great kindness and help which the Methodists of Cape Colony and Natal have shown to our Ministers and people, refugees from the Transvaal. We thank you too for the noble services of the Ministers whom you have sent as Chaplains to our troops; while your loving, thoughtful care of our sick and wounded, sent to the hospitals in the Cape and Natal, has aroused our deep and lasting gratitude.

We pray that this war may come to a speedy end, and that a peace may be established, founded in righteousness, which shall insure freedom, justice, and equal rights to all the people of South Africa.

We thank God on your behalf that, amid all the distractions of war, you have been able to devote yourselves with such great zeal to your own proper work of caring for the souls and bodies of men. We rejoice with you in the large success that has attended your labours during the past year, which is evidenced by the increase of 4,256 to your Church membership.

With great thankfulness to God we note that more than 80,000 of your members are natives. We pray that your Church may continue to grow in power and in numbers, for the good of Africa and to the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We mourn with you in the loss the Church in Africa has sustained by the deaths of the Rev. Edwin Gedye, who for so many years rendered faithful service to your Church; the Rev. James Thompson, M.A., the scholar, eloquent preacher, and able administrator, honoured by you being twice elected as your President, whose pathetic death amid the terrible circumstances of the siege of Kimberley has touched the hearts of all our people; and the Rev. John E. Parsonson, your Representative to our last Conference, whose sudden death while in this country has deprived your Church of a singularly able Minister. May God comfort the families of our departed brethren; and may He bless the Church by raising up many Christlike successors to carry on their work.

We greatly rejoice in the attention you give to Education, and that the results amongst the children of your people are so gratifying.

We realise with you the great importance of the training of native agents and Ministers for the work amongst the native races of South Africa. We pray that God will greatly bless your efforts in this department of service, and that He will continue to raise up men for this work full of zeal and of the Holy Ghost.

We are glad that you are giving increased attention to the question of training men for the English Ministry. We realise how important this is to the future success of your Church. May God pour out His Spirit upon your young men, and call many labourers into His vineyard.

We note with much satisfaction that the Wesley Guild movement is very successful in many of your circuits. Where the Guild is properly worked, and its spiritual aims kept in the forefront, it is sure to be a blessing to the Church and a means of gathering our young people into the fold of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We are glad to know that your Twentieth Century Fund has made so much progress, notwithstanding your great losses consequent on the war. We think, however, that you are well advised in extending the term for another year. We trust that your effort may prove a great success, and result in much blessing.

Our own fund has excited great interest amongst our people. We are confident we shall, by the blessing of God, raise the Million; but our greatest gain is not the money, but the intense spiritual devotion to Christ and His Church which this movement has evoked.

We have unanimously approved your nomination of the Rev. Alfred T. Rhodes as your President for 1901. His attractive personality and his great gifts as a preacher and administrator are not unknown to some of the members of this Conference. You have called him to this high office in a time of great difficulty and anxiety in South Africa. We earnestly pray that he may be endued with the spirit of wisdom and of power, and trust that his year of office may be one of unbounded blessing and great spiritual prosperity to all your Churches and peoples.

And now, brethren, we commend you to the Lord to "make you increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end He may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1900

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.

HONOURED AND BELOVED BRETHREN,—

The Address of your Eighth General Conference, held at Auckland, New Zealand, 1897, was to us a "word of good cheer." We rejoice in your growth and prosperity. We greatly admire your fidelity and zeal. We cherish towards you feelings of the highest esteem and most brotherly love.

The pioneers of Methodism in Australasia, whose names are familiar to us in this country are passing one by one to their well deserved reward. They were men endowed with special gifts for their work, and consecration to God was written upon all their powers. As wise master-builders, they laid the foundations of the Methodist Church under the constellation of the Southern Cross upon the impregnable rock of divine truth and love. God honoured them with success, and you are building upon the same foundations. We praise God for your love and loyalty to Methodist doctrine, your missionary enthusiasm and adventure, your profound interest in all the branches of education, your aggressive work amongst the masses of your cities, your patient care for the scattered populations of the interior of your island continent, and your one-hearted zeal for the universal prosperity of the kingdom of God.

There has been no more important event for many years past than the passing by the Legislature of this country of the recent Act federating the Australian colonies. We are assured that in your vast country, with its unlimited resources, with a people speaking the English tongue, living under the English flag, and mainly Protestant in religion, you are building a Commonwealth that will be "great, glorious, and free." In the moulding of the great future of Australia the Methodist Church will have an important part to play in forming the national, civic, and family life; and this new federation will knit your colonies to the empire in closer bonds of union.

The whole world has appreciated the object-lesson which, in common with other British colonies, your sons have given recently in rallying to the assistance of the mother country in South Africa, thus demonstrating by their patriotism the solidarity and loyalty of the British Empire.

The care which you have manifested for the religious welfare of the Australian Methodist soldiers engaged in this distressing war is very gratifying to us.

Last year we were refreshed by the visit of Dr. Fitchett, whose literary achievements, public addresses, and pulpit ministry roused the enthusiasm of our people, and raised their estimate of, and esteem for, Australian Methodism.

We have welcomed with honour your distinguished missionary, the Rev. Frederick Langham, who is now completing in London the final revision of the Bible in the Fijian language, under the auspices of the British and Foreign Bible Society. His long and faithful service, and his testimony as a living witness of the remarkable changes effected by the gospel in Fiji, have confirmed our faith and brightened our hope.

We have watched with sympathetic interest your care for the old mission-fields in Polynesia, which were our "first love," and also the extension of your work in New Guinea and Torres Straits. In this work you have proved to be aggressive and enterprising beyond the expectations of some, and you have rebuked their fears. We are confident that your new Organising Secretary will do all that is possible to maintain and increase your missionary income, so as to meet the demands which your success will create.

We hail the establishment of a separate Annual Conference for Western Australia as an additional proof of your progress and expansion.

We deeply appreciate your expressions of sympathy with us in the trials that have come to our Churches in South Africa through the disturbances occasioned by the conflict of arms which we so much deplore.

Not only in South Africa, but also in China, our Foreign Missionaries are living in troublous times, and the position of our brethren in China especially is giving us the gravest [redacted]iety, and leading us to fervent prayer on their behalf.

The Twentieth Century Fund, which we are raising to inaugurate the new epoch that will shortly dawn, has been retarded by various and altogether exceptional causes during the last twelve months; but Methodist generosity and enthusiasm, which have been so conspicuously exemplified during our present Conference, will now enable us to accomplish our great object of placing one million guineas at the feet of Jesus for progressive work during the next century. The noble response of our people is at once the promise and prophecy of the great future of our Church at home and abroad. We heartily desire that a great success may attend the spirit of enterprise with which you also have entered upon a Century Fund scheme. We are satisfied that, not only in your Commonwealth, but here also, the gifts of our people on this special occasion will only serve as a stimulus for the ordinary contributions of the Church. We have regarded with keen interest the growth of Methodist Union in Australia, and rejoice in that unity of the spirit which is the bond of peace. Organic union may not be possible everywhere, even amongst those who hold the same doctrines and have similar Church polity; but when it can be achieved, it will, we believe, accelerate the accomplishment of our Saviour's prayer—"that they all may be one."

It is an unspeakable joy to us to believe that the days of disruption in Methodism are gone for ever, and that, although we may form different branches of the one Church, we have a common religious experience, and desire to spread scriptural holiness through the land, and heartily co-operate with all who are seeking to win the world for Christ. The difficulties which face you, in the vice of intemperance, a weakened regard for the sanctity of the Lord's Day, the pernicious spirit of gambling, and the evil spirit of impurity, are those with which we have to struggle. Our preachers to-day have an evangel which is awakening, convincing, and persuasive. In proportion as we are alive to the danger of the sinner and the value of the human soul we shall exercise a ministry of rescue.

We are deeply thankful for an increase of over five thousand members this year, and the demand in our Circuits for additional Ministers is beyond our available supply of trained and suitable men. We are anticipating the privilege and joy of greeting some of you at the Œcumenical Conference in London next year, and we pray for the blessing of God upon that great representative gathering of the world's Methodists.

By our successful Wesley Guild movement we are thankful to know that we are attaching our young people to Church work and inspiring them with an intelligent personal love and loyalty to the Head of the Church.

You will, with us, regret the retirement of Dr. Stephenson from the control of that great philanthropy, the Children's Home, which he founded and has conducted for forty years with such conspicuous blessing to the friendless youth of this and other lands. It is all the more solemn that failing health should be the cause of his retirement; but we trust that for many years to come he may, in renewed strength, be spared as a pastor in our Circuit life.

We regret that the Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., cannot visit Australia this year. But if the General Conference should request it, the British Conference will be glad to appoint him to visit the Colonies during the year 1902. He will bear to the Methodist Churches of Australia our fraternal greetings, and assure you of our continued affection for you and our intense interest in your work and welfare.

May you realise the blessings of another Pentecost during your gatherings at Brisbane, and may "the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end He may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

IV. CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2 AND 3, LUDGATE CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

THERE are some important features in the annual statistical returns which give cause for thankfulness, and which must be regarded as vital to the prosperity of our Schools. In addition to an increase of 46 in the total number of Sunday Schools, there is an increase of 631 full Church Members, and of 977 in our Junior Society Classes from among our Scholars. The Conference Catechisms are used in 71 more of our Schools than we reported last year, and 50 additional Schools are connected with the Sunday-school Union.

The Committee, however, regrets to report a decrease in the total number of Scholars of 5,380; a decrease in the average morning attendance of 8,460, and in the afternoon of 7,042.

The total number in the Adult Bible-classes and Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Classes is 61,527, a net increase, taking the returns of both organisations, of 4,329. The Manchester District suggests that the remarkable increase of 8,195 in the Pleasant Sunday Afternoon Classes may in some degree account for the decrease in the number of Scholars reported this year. Thirteen Districts report an increase of Scholars; twenty Districts report decreases. Compared with the gross total of Scholars on the register the decrease of less than six Scholars per 1,000, though unsatisfactory, is not so serious as a first glance at the figures might suggest. The present number of Scholars compared with the totals in 1890, ten years ago, shows an increase of 34,158. Most of the Districts in which decreases are reported indicate that there is no apparent decline in sympathy or interest in the work of our Schools.

Oxford, Portsmouth, and Leeds Synods urge the Circuit Quarterly Meetings to give greater attention to their Sunday Schools. Bristol recommends a more general use of the Star System of marking. Halifax and Bradford District regards the modern craze for popular pastimes as injuriously affecting our Sunday Schools. Carlisle emphasises the importance of Catechetical teaching, and better attendance at Public Worship. Leeds recommends the introduction of the New Brief Catechism, and Bolton suggests the improvement of the Sunday Morning School by brief addresses, Catechetical instruction, and more singing; the brightening of the Sunday Morning Service in Chapel, and the better indoctrination of our Teachers in Methodist principles and polity by gathering them together in groups for this purpose.

The Committee feels deeply the importance of keeping up the Morning School, and of how great moment it is to all our Scholars above eight years of age that they should be regularly accustomed to attend the house of God. Methodism was never made by a race of half-timers, and can never be worked by such, and the Committee affectionately appeals to our Officers and Teachers to take an increased interest in the Morning School, and to set before their Scholars the example of regular attendance at Public Worship.

There are in the judgment of the Committee three ways by which the morning attendance and the numbers of our Scholars may be immediately increased; viz. visitation, canvassing, and registration—the visitation of irregulars, canvassing for new Scholars, and a strict and conscientious attention to the registration of all who attend.

The Committee reports with pleasure the demand for a new edition of Mr. James Bailey's Manual on Sunday-school Teaching, the first edition having sold off very rapidly; and the preparation and issue of a book of Notes on "The New Brief Catechism," by Elsie, as well as a continuous demand for Miss Anna M. Hellier's invaluable work, entitled "Talks on the Catechism."

These three books should be in the hands of all our Teachers.

The Special Examination for Teachers and Senior Scholars, which the Conference committed to the Union, has had an encouraging beginning.

Essays have been invited during the year, and are now in the hands of the adjudicators, Messrs. J. ROBERT BARLOW, B.A., THOMAS WALKER, and EDWARD DINGLEY, and it is hoped they will embody valuable suggestions upon the Morning School, attendance at Public Worship, and other aspects of our work which are giving our most devoted Teachers in the Northern Midlands and elsewhere serious concern.

Children's Day was one of great blessing, and was observed with spiritual earnestness and remarkable results throughout the Connexion. The Secretary has conducted a large number of Conventions, and has been generously and sympathetically supported everywhere.

The Business Department is satisfactory, and the Lantern Work is greatly on the increase. In its own special line, in preparing subjects for Children's Services and Mission Work among neglected children it has had unlooked-for success.

The Committee commends its work to the prayers and practical sympathy of all our Schools.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

WE have first to thank God and His people for the year's income. In gifts for current necessities it has reached £23,431 4*s.* 6*d.*, which is £2,225 11*s.* 3*d.* in excess of the year before. That was an advance of £1,195 4*s.* 7*d.* upon the previous year. And this has occurred when the Twentieth Century Fund, the War Funds, and other important claims have been specially urgent. The increase is mainly in Subscriptions and Donations, but all our methods of gathering have been crowned with success.

The Young Leaguers' Union has been organised during the year, and promises to be a valuable auxiliary to our work. By means of this Union it is hoped that we shall unite the young people of Methodist homes in Christian service on behalf of their less fortunate brothers and sisters. Where the Young Leaguers' Union has been established, it has proved itself a valuable agent in strengthening the connexion of its members with our Church, and it gives them a sense of partnership in the work of the Children's Home. A large number of young people belonging to our own Church are connected with similar organisations associated with other charitable institutions. Whilst recognising the value of such work, we cannot but feel that the Children's Home has the first claim upon the children of Methodism.

Meanwhile the number of children and young people touched by our enterprises has also grown. Including Homes, Schools, Cripples' Mission, and Girls' Protection Agency, not less than 1,435 have been under our care. To this must be added a most important branch of work—the systematic visitation and guardianship of about 500 young people who have left our doors but yet need in the years of their adolescence guiding and guarding influence. If these be added, a total of 1,932 souls have occupied our thought and attention, and have in varying degree cost us something. Of course the bulk of our expenditure has been upon those in residence; but the balance has not been less worthily spent.

We are caring for the waif child as we did at first. The wild lads of the New Cut who were our earliest care have never been without their successors. During the past year many exceptionally sad cases of this class have been admitted.

There has been a marked increase in the number of crippled or otherwise physically disadvantaged children who have come under our care. We cannot but recognise in this a providential call to go to those who want us most. We have also in our care a few epileptic girls.

Meantime, our efforts to intercept the orphan children of godly parents on the steps of the Workhouse School is proving both practicable and desirable. One hundred and fifty-five such children are now in our hands. Many more might have been had we been able to house them. The prominence given to this effort in meetings on behalf of the Twentieth Century Fund having led to a large increase of such applications, the Committee has been compelled to make temporary provision to meet the demand by hiring a few additional houses.

Many Boards of Guardians have shown great willingness to promote our wishes; and the children—even those who have actually for a time been in the Workhouse School—when they have come under the influence of our system, have with rare exceptions quickly become undistinguishable in manner, bearing, and look from our other children.

One other class of our little clients deserves at this moment a specially tender mention. Long before the present war commenced we were receiving the orphan children of soldiers and sailors. No sooner did hostilities break out than we declared our willingness to meet such cases as might arise in the hazards of the South African battlefields. We have received several such children, and the applications are steadily increasing; but we do not yet know how many more may come to our doors.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

We report this year 4,733 Bands of Hope, with a membership of 426,041, an increase of 3 Bands and a decrease of 14,139 in their membership. We also report 1,637 Temperance Societies, with a membership of 94,653, an increase of 73 Societies and of 3,977 members.

We rejoice that the increase in our adult organisations and their membership is steadily maintained; but we view with grave concern the considerable decrease in the membership of our Bands of Hope, although we console ourselves that in all such statistics fluctuations of this kind are very common, and that the change in the form of our Schedule this year has not improbably had some influence upon the returns in this column. We are convinced that much might be done to extend our work amongst the young if the Sunday-school Teachers' Pledge-Book were in more general use, and if there were more definite efforts made to organise distinct Temperance work in the Sunday School itself. The example of some Sunday Schools in which a Temperance Secretary of the Sunday School has been appointed to look after this matter in the School might be copied with advantage. In ten years we report an increase of 1,164 Bands of Hope, and of 55,360 in their membership; and of 985 Temperance Societies, and of 51,172 in their membership. We are again compelled to note the large number of Societies that are allowed to lapse. This year 227 Bands of Hope and 159 Temperance Societies have gone out of existence. This ought not to be, especially with our Circuit system; and this leakage would be largely ended if Circuit Unions were generally established.

The past year has been one of exceptional activity in relation to Temperance legislation. The Committee, after serious deliberation, adopted a very carefully prepared body of Resolutions which were sent, not only to the press, but also to the Ministers, the Circuit Secretaries, and others throughout the Connexion. These Resolutions are strongly in support of legislation upon the general lines of the Minority Report. A Manifesto in the same sense was also issued, signed by the President, all the Ex-Presidents, and all the Chairmen of Districts except one, who would undoubtedly have signed it if he had not been absent from the country at the time of its preparation. A memorial asking the Government to initiate legislation upon the basis of Lord Peel's Report was adopted by all the Synods except Nottingham and Derby, Zetland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, the two latter having no connexion with the British Parliament. A Board has been established, under the name of the Central Temperance Legislation Board, for the purpose of promoting legislation upon the lines of Lord Peel's Report. We, in common with most of the principal Temperance organisations of the kingdom, have associated ourselves with this Board.

The Committee did its utmost within the limits of its financial resources to aid the Sunday Closing Bill for Monmouthshire and the Bill for preventing the sale of drink to children. All the Synods, with the exception of the Channel Islands, Isle of Man, and Zetland, petitioned Parliament in support of these measures.

The Committee has joined the Temperance Committees of the other Free Churches in beginning to arrange for a Pledge-signing Crusade early in the New Century. The Crusade is to be formally initiated on Temperance Sunday of this year (November 25), to be carried on during the year, and to culminate in a number of central meetings in October and November, 1901, and united Gospel Temperance Missions throughout the country during the week commencing on Temperance Sunday, 1901. The object of the Crusade is to secure at least a million new pledges, and to awaken general interest in the Temperance question.

We have witnessed with unfeigned satisfaction the failure of the effort to obtain a licence for the Crystal Palace on the Lord's Day, and very much rejoice in the honourable part that the Temperance Committees of the three London Districts took in that important matter.

The Committee has laid its plans for an extension of its work in the following directions: (1) The establishment of a Home for Inebriates; (2) the establishment of Scientific Lectureships for our Day Schools and Colleges; (3) the formation of a Connexional Band of Hope and Temperance Union; (4) the appointment of Police Court Missionaries. For the initiation of these enterprises the Committee is looking to a grant from the Twentieth Century Fund. If work upon such a scale is to be maintained, a largely increased annual income is necessary.

The Gross Profit on the year's working amounts to £727 8*s.*, which will be distributed by the Committee at its meeting in October.

The above Tables will show how great is the advantage of the Common Cash system to the Funds of Methodism. All Funds that have to borrow obtain their overdrafts on the lowest possible terms, viz. the actual Bank Rate of the day, and they borrow largely from each other rather than from the Bank. Funds having credit balances obtain Deposit rate of interest; in addition to which they receive, according to the credit balances they have kept, their full proportion of profits.

APPENDIX XII.

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST TRUST ASSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

THE Company was established in 1872, with the sanction and commendation of the Conference, for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by fire. No other class of business is transacted. The Company already insures nearly nine-tenths of the entire trust property of the Connexion. The whole of the profits are held in trust for the benefit of the Connexion, and grants, amounting altogether to £13,400, have been made to the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund. The Reserve Funds of the Company exceed £60,000, being about nine times the Annual Premium Income.

The Net Premium Income for the year ending July 15, 1900, has been £7,244 13s. 8d., and the Revenue from Interest and Dividends £2,310 6s. 10d.; total, £9,555 0s. 6d. The Losses from fire during the year were £5,203 8s. 10d.; the Grant to the Worn Out Ministers' Fund, England, £1,500; to the Worn Out Ministers' Fund, Ireland, £100.

APPENDIX XIII.

COMPENDIUM OF LATER REGULATIONS RELATING TO ADMINISTRATION AND DISCIPLINE.

N.B.—The references throughout this Compendium are to the latest octavo edition of the Minutes of the Conference, the first volume of which was issued in 1862, and to the crown octavo volumes which have been issued annually since 1878.

Title of the Connexion.

HAVING regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other legal documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the people called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church" (1891, p. 321).

New Rules.

1. It is determined that if, at any time, the Conference see it necessary to make any new Rule for the Societies at large, and such Rule should be objected to at the first Quarterly Meeting in any given Circuit, and if the major part of that Meeting be of opinion that the enforcing of such Rule in that Circuit will be injurious to the prosperity of that Circuit, it shall not be enforced in opposition to the judgment of such Quarterly Meeting before the second Conference. But if the Rule be confirmed by the second Conference, it shall be binding to the whole Connexion. Nevertheless, any Quarterly Meeting, which may reject a new Rule, shall not, by publications, public meetings, or otherwise, make that Rule a cause of contention, but shall strive by every means to preserve the peace of the Connexion (1797, vol. i., p. 393; 1852, vol. xii., p. 117).

2. The Superintendents are directed to read to the first Quarterly Meeting after each Conference any new Rule for the Societies at large (1852, vol. xii., p. 117).

I. Relating to Members of Society.

Admission into the Society.

1. The spiritual concerns shall be managed by the Preachers, who have ever appointed Leaders, chosen Stewards, and admitted Members into and expelled them from the Society, consulting their brethren, the Stewards and Leaders (1794, vol. i., 314).

2. No Leader has power to put any person either into or out of the Society (1787, vol. i., p. 194).

3. No Preacher shall give Notes (admitting persons on Trial) to any but those who are recommended by one he knows, or till they have met three or four times in Class. It is the Leader's duty to give them "the Rules of the Society" the first time they meet.

4. Neither the Superintendents, nor any other Preachers, shall give Tickets to any till they are recommended by a Leader with whom they have met, at least two months, on Trial.

5. The Leaders' Meeting has a right to declare any person on Trial improper to be received into the Society; and, after such declaration, the Superintendent shall not admit such person into the Society (1869, vol. xvii., p. 620).

This Rule is expounded by the Conference in the terms following:

> "That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to at that Quarterly Visitation" (1842, vol. ix., p. 398; 1869, vol. xvii., pp. 620, 621).

6. Membership in Junior Society Classes shall be accepted instead of the ordinary probation in the Society Classes, but the term of such probationary membership shall be undefined, and be terminable at the discretion of a Minister of the Circuit. In no case, however, shall the probationary period be less than twelve months (1894, p. 218).

Recognition of New Members.

The public and formal recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that at least two or three times a year, if practicable, Meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such Meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

If upon inquiry it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service (1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278; 1890, pp. 317, 318; 1892, p. 333).

Removal Notes.

Let no Member removing from one Circuit to another be received into Society without a Note of Removal, signed by one of the Ministers of the Circuit whence he has come (1869, vol. xvii., p. 621).

Exclusion of Members.

1. No Leader has power to put any person either into or out of the Society, or to remove any name from the Class-book (1787, vol. i., p. 194).

2. No Minister shall remove the name of any person from the Class-book who has not been carefully visited, patiently borne with, faithfully exhorted, earnestly entreated; or for any other than grave moral or spiritual reasons, or decided and persistent disaffection. And even in such cases every person so excluded from the fellowship of the Church must have the opportunity, if he claims it, of having his case judicially decided at a Leaders' Meeting, according to the provisions of our Discipline (1889, p. 409).

3. The far greater number of those that are separated from us exclude themselves by neglecting to meet in Class and to use the other means of grace, and so gradually forsake us. It must, however, be understood that there exists no Rule which requires a Minister to refuse a Ticket solely on the ground of irregular attendance at Class (1869, vol. xvii., p. 621; 1889, p. 409).

4. Any person who, instead of peaceably retiring from our Connexion if he decidedly disapprove of our system, of either doctrine or discipline, and cannot conscientiously even acquiesce in them, endeavours to retain and employ his position among us for the purposes of opposition and strife—or who continues, after due admonition, to be a member of any confederacy formed for the object of systematic agitation—is guilty of a flagrant transgression of that morality of the New Testament, the observance of which was a principal condition of his admission into our Society, and must be considered to have justly forfeited his claim to the privileges of our religious fellowship (1835, vol. vii., p. 585).

5. If any Local Officer or Member of our Society shall be found endeavouring to create or encourage dissension and strife in his own or in any other Circuit, or addicting himself to injurious railing against either the doctrine, or the discipline, or the Ministers of the Connexion, the person so offending shall be admonished by the Superintendent of the error of his ways; and if he still persist in his offence, shall, after trial in the usual form, if this be demanded, be put away from the Society (1852, vol. xii., p. 115).

Trial of Members.

1. The law of God contained in the Holy Scriptures furnishes, in the trial of Members, that primary standard of judgment by which the innocence or culpability of any particular facts adduced in evidence is ever to be determined. . . . Any conduct in a man professing godliness, which can be shown to be decidedly condemned by the precepts and principles of the New Testament, is sufficient to justify, if persisted in, the application of a suitable ecclesiastical censure, or other penalty, to such an individual; even though it may not have been previously found necessary to make a distinct and specific Rule of our own Society on that exact mode and form of delinquency (1835, vol. vii., p. 583).

2. No person shall be expelled from the Society till his offence has been proved to the satisfaction of a Leaders' Meeting, which Meeting is also entitled to declare, by its verdict, whether the facts alleged are or are not violations of the laws of God or our own Body. No sentence of expulsion shall be pronounced by the Superintendent till at least one week after the trial of a person accused. In the meanwhile the Superintendent shall seek the fullest information from individual Leaders and other judicious and experienced Members of Society, and shall also confer with his Colleagues at their Weekly Meeting.

When the Superintendent has not a Colleague, and cannot therefore consult a Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District.

Every expelled Member has a right to appeal to a Minor District Synod, to the Annual District Synod, and to the Conference (1869, vol. xvii., p. 621; 1898, p. 253).

3. The first ground on which a trial before a Leaders' Meeting is to be conceded to an accused Member is, that the person complained against should deny the charge brought against him. But if the party charged refuses, in the presence of the Leaders' Meeting, either to admit or deny the charge preferred against him, it is hereby declared to be the judgment of the Conference that he is not entitled to demand the production of evidence, nor to claim that his trial should be proceeded with; but the authorities concerned may justly assume that the allegations cannot be denied with truth. Yet, in some cases, it may be competent to the party bringing the complaint to offer proof of the matters charged, if the Superintendent deem it most conducive to the ends of Christian discipline to adopt such a course (1850, vol. xi., p. 482).

4. When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation (1872, vol. xviii., p. 656).

Trial of Members who are also Trustees.

1. No Trustee, however accused, or defective in conformity to the Rules of the Society, shall be removed from the Society, unless his crime or breach of Rule be proved in the presence of the Trustees and Leaders, namely, the Leaders' Meeting of the particular Society of which he is a Member, together with the Trustees of the Chapel with which that Society is connected, such Trustees being themselves Members of the Methodist Society (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

2. When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation. If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting as above constituted the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit (1872, vol. xviii., p. 656).

Commercial Failures.

1. Whenever any Member of Society becomes a bankrupt, or compounds with his creditors, the Superintendent and one of the Stewards shall talk with him at large. If a formal investigation be considered needful, a Committee shall be chosen by the Leaders' Meeting for that purpose on the nomination of the Superintendent, to consist of two or more competent persons, Members of Society, who may or may not be members of the Leaders' Meeting; the Superintendent to be the Chairman. If, on receiving their report, the Meeting shall conclude that fair accounts have not been kept, or that liabilities have been incurred without a reasonable probability of meeting them, the Superintendent shall proceed according to Rule.

2. On the appointment of such Committee in the case of any Leader, Local Preacher, or Steward, the exercise of his functions shall be discontinued until his case is decided (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

3. If any Member be found to have speculated in business beyond a reasonable probability of his being able to meet every lawful demand, he shall be suspended from the privileges of the Society for one year at least (1820, vol. v., p. 146).

4. If any of our Members, who have formerly failed in business, shall afterwards, by the blessing of God, have acquired property, it is their plain duty to pay their whole debt (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

Appeals in Cases of Discipline.

No appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference (1891, p. 229).

Society Meetings.

The Societies shall be frequently met, apart from the congregation at large, and suitably addressed on the various relative duties, on the due sanctification of the Lord's Day, and other appropriate topics (1825, vol. vi., p. 65).

Public Worship.

1. At Public Worship, on the morning of the Lord's Day, the Preacher shall read "The Order of Morning Prayer" from "The Public Prayers and Services for the Use of the People called Methodists," or, at least, the Lessons appointed for the Day. At every Public Religious Service, at least one chapter of the Holy Scriptures shall be read before the Sermon is preached (1795, vol. i., p. 340; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 622).

2. We strongly recommend all our people to kneel at prayer; and we desire that all our pews may, as far as possible, be so formed as to admit of this in the easiest manner (1869, vol. xvii., p. 622).

The Sacraments.

The Lord's Supper shall be administered according to the form appointed by the Conference; but the person who administers shall have liberty to give out hymns, to use exhortation, and extemporary prayer. The Administration of Baptism and the Burial of the Dead shall be determined by the same regulations. At Baptism, both parents are expected to be present (1869, vol. xvii., p. 622).

Baptism.

Let the ordinance of Baptism, if possible, be always administered in the public congregation.

Let us administer it, in general, only to the children of our own Members and those of our regular hearers (1812, vol. iii., p. 292).

The Lord's Supper.

We earnestly beseech all the Members of our Societies conscientiously to attend this sacred ordinance of God our Saviour at every opportunity, and to make a point of staying till the whole service be concluded.

In the Visitation of the Classes, let every Preacher closely examine the Members on this head, and strongly enforce our Rules concerning it. And, in order to remove every excuse, let this blessed Sacrament be regularly and frequently administered (1806, vol. ii., pp. 348, 349).

Covenant Service.

1. The annual solemnity of Renewing the Covenant, as practised among us, may, if duly prepared for and improved, afford a means of great usefulness in quickening the zeal of our people, and in bringing many to decide for a religious life (1854, vol. xii., p. 474).

2. The Rule concerning showing Tickets should be strictly observed in reference to the Covenant Service (1889, p. 412).

Sundry Points of Discipline.

Observance of the Lord's Day.

All Members of the Society are required to observe the Lord's Day with religious care; in accordance with the oft-[illegible]ated advices and directions of the Conference, and, above all, with the abiding precepts of God's word (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

Marriage.

Some of our Members have married with ungodly persons. This has had fatal effects. They have either had a cross for life, or turned back to the world. To put a stop to this, every Preacher is enjoined to enforce frequently the apostle's caution, "Be ye not unequally yoked." Let all single persons be reminded of the injunction to marry "only in the Lord"; and exhorted to take no steps in so weighty a matter without taking counsel of their parents, and advising with the most serious of their Christian friends (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

Family Religion.

We again earnestly enforce upon all the people under our care a conscientious and uniform attention to this important subject, and solemnly exhort them to maintain the practice of daily prayer in their houses; to have stated times allotted for this purpose; to make the daily reading of the Holy Scripture a constant part of their domestic devotion; to require not only some but all the members of their respective families to be present at the time of family worship (1811, vol. iii., p. 221).

Days of Fasting.

A general Fast shall be held in all our Societies the first Friday after New Year's Day, after Lady Day, after Midsummer Day, and after Michaelmas Day (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

II. Relating to the Officers of the Societies.

Stewards.

1. No person shall be appointed a Society Steward, or Poor Steward, or be removed from his office, but in conjunction with a Leaders' Meeting; the nomination to be with the Superintendent, and the approval or disapproval with the Leaders' Meeting (1797, vol. i., p. 391; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

2. Circuit Stewards are to be appointed at a Quarterly Meeting; the nomination being with the Superintendent, and the approval or disapproval with the Meeting.

3. The office of a Steward ceases at the end of the year; and no Steward shall remain in office above three years in succession, except in some extraordinary case (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

4. When a Steward has been removed from his office by disciplinary action, he has the right of appeal against the sentence to the District Synods and the Conference (1899, pp. 240, 505).

Class-leaders.

1. No person shall be appointed a Leader, or be removed from his office, but in conjunction with a Leaders' Meeting; the nomination to be with the Superintendent, and the approval or disapproval with the Leaders' Meeting (1797, vol. i., p. 391; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

2. When a Leader has been removed from his office by disciplinary action, he has the right of appeal against the sentence to the District Synods and the Conference (1899, pp. 240, 505).

3. Let our Superintendents urge on the Leaders "the duty of collecting weekly in every Class the subscriptions of our Members for the support of the gospel" (1826, vol. vi., p. 168).

4. All our Leaders are required regularly to attend their respective Leaders' Meetings (1810, vol. iii., p. 156).

Leaders' Meetings.

1. A Leaders' Meeting consists of:

(1) The Ministers and Preachers on Trial who are appointed to the work of the Circuit (1852, vol. xii., p. 121).

(2) The Class-leaders, the Society Stewards, and Poor Stewards of that Society; together with any Circuit Steward or Stewards who may be Members of that Society.

(3) When a Secretary is appointed in any Leaders' Meeting, such Secretary must be chosen from among the members of that Meeting (1874, vol. xix., p. 454).

A Minister residing in a Circuit "without Pastoral Charge" shall not, as a Minister, be a member of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit (1888, p. 215).

N.B.—A Supernumerary is not, as a Minister, a member of a Leaders' Meeting.

2. From the beginning, Leaders' Meetings have been found essential to the pastoral care and spiritual prosperity of our Societies, and also to the orderly transaction of their financial concerns. Where Leaders' Meetings are frequently held, the work of the Leaders is done more perfectly. And by a minute examination of the Class-books, in the presence of the Leaders, we learn who are the sick, the careless, or the lukewarm; and then, in making pastoral visits, we are prepared to go, "not only to those who want us, but to those who want us most." Let us, therefore, see to it that Leaders' Meetings are held regularly, and as often as practicable, not only in the towns in which Ministers reside, but also in the principal country places (1885, p. 360).

3. Let a strict inquiry be made by the Superintendent Preacher in the Leaders' Meeting, at least twice in the year, into the moral character of all the Leaders, their punctuality in beginning and ending their Class-meetings in proper time, and everything that relates to their office (1811, vol. iii., p. 222).

Local Preachers.

1. The Superintendent shall regularly meet the Local Preachers once a quarter; and no person shall receive a Plan as a Local Preacher, or be suffered to preach among us as such, without the approval of that Meeting. Or, if in any Circuit a regular Local Preachers' Meeting cannot be held, they shall be proposed and approved at the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit, subject to the Regulations which apply to Local Preachers' Meetings in such matters (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624; 1895, p. 434).

2. All Local Preachers shall meet in Class (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624; 1895, p. 436).

3. Local Preachers should consider themselves under special obligation regularly to partake of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper (1895, p. 436).

4. Let no Local Preacher be permitted to preach in any other Circuit than his own without the consent of the Superintendent of that Circuit (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

Local Preachers' Meetings.

1. A Local Preachers' Meeting consists of:

(1) The Ministers and Preachers on Trial who are appointed to the work of the Circuit (1852, vol. xii., p. 121).

(2) Supernumerary Ministers have the right to attend and take part in the Local Preachers' Meetings in the Circuits in which they reside (1895, p. 435).

(3) The Local Preachers who have been formally admitted as members of the Local Preachers' Meeting, and who are Members of Society in that Circuit (see 1827, vol. vi., p. 281).

Local Preachers on Trial are expected to attend the Local Preachers' Meeting, but are not entitled to vote (1895, p. 435).

2. The Local Preachers' Meeting has authority to make the inquiry: "Is there any objection to any Local Preacher or Exhorter whose name is on the Circuit Plan, such as affects his standing on the Plan?" Should an objection be formally made against a Local Preacher such as affects his standing on the Plan, the Meeting may proceed to consider it, and if, in its judgment, the objection is sustained, the Superintendent shall determine and pronounce the sentence; subject, however, to the right of appeal against the sentence on the part either of the person accused, or of the Local Preachers' Meeting, to the District Synods and the Conference (1899, pp. 240, 508).

3. Any Local Preacher who has been aggrieved in any matter affecting his standing as a Local Preacher by a Superintendent acting in conjunction with an ordinary Local Preachers' Meeting, shall have a right of appeal to a Local Preachers' Meeting especially convened to reconsider the case; and the finding of that Meeting as to matters of fact shall be final. The right to determine the sentence in this, as in all other judicial cases of discipline, is within the exclusive province of the Superintendent, after consultation with his Colleagues; or, if he has no Colleague, after consultation with the Chairman of the District. And against this sentence all parties shall have a right of appeal to the District Synods and the Conference.

Any action, however, which may be taken by the Local Preachers' Meeting cannot interfere with the jurisdiction of the Leaders' Meeting, which is the Court charged with the consideration of questions which affect Church Membership (1898, p. 253; 1899, pp. 240, 511).

4. The Conference resolves that a Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher, until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan (1895, p. 314).

Trustees.

The Trustees, in conjunction with the Superintendent, shall choose their own Stewards. The Stewards shall keep proper accounts in books provided for that purpose, which books shall be open for the inspection of the Superintendent, and audited in his presence once every year, or oftener, if convenient (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

The Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

1. The Quarterly Meeting consists of:

(1) All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial in the Circuit; and Supernumeraries whose names appear in connexion with the Circuit in the printed Minutes of the Conference.

N.B.—A Minister residing in a Circuit "without Pastoral Charge" shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting (1888, p. 215).

(2) The Circuit Stewards, all the Society Stewards, and the Poor Stewards in the Circuit.

(3) All the Class-leaders in the Circuit.

(4) All the fully accredited Local Preachers in the Circuit, they being Members of Society in the Circuit.

(5) All the Trustees of Chapels situate in places named on the Circuit Plan, such Trustees being Members of Society in the Circuit, whether residing in the Circuit or not.

(6) The Sunday-school Representatives, chosen according to the scheme approved by the Conference in 1894.

(1852, vol. xii., p. 111; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 625; 1872, vol. xviii., p. 652; 1894, pp. 313, 314; 1895, p. 315).

(7) The Superintendent of the Circuit is, ex officio, the Chairman of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, as of all other official Meetings of the Circuit. In the unavoidable absence of the Superintendent, one of his Colleagues, appointed by him, shall act in his place (1886, p. 204).

(8) The Secretary of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting must be chosen from among the Members of that Meeting.

2. All those expenses for the support of the Ministry for which the Circuit cannot provide, and therefore needs assistance from the Connexional Fund, must be sanctioned by the Quarterly Meeting, before they can be brought to the District Synod (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

3. No Circuit shall be divided until such division has been approved by the Quarterly Meeting (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

4. No case of Chapel building, purchase, or enlargement shall be sanctioned by the Chapel Committee, unless it has received the approbation of the Quarterly Meeting (1869, vol. xvii., p. 626).

5. The nomination by the Superintendent of a Candidate for the Ministry must be "approved by the March Quarterly Meeting" (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

6. In every Circuit, at the September Quarterly Meeting, a Circuit Treasurer for the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund shall be appointed (1869, vol. xvii., p. 626).

Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings to Conference.

1. Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which appear in the Standing Orders of the Conference, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference (1852, vol. xii., p. 111).

2. Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose, either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend as well as simply adopt or reject it (1852, vol. xii., p. 112; 1895, p. 367).

3. A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial (1891, pp. 331, 362).

4. The Conference directs that Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference (1889, p. 285).

5. The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the Doctrine or Discipline of Wesleyan Methodism (1852, vol. xii., p. 112; 1895, p. 368).

6. The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit (1852, vol. xii., p. 112).

7. No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript (1874, vol. xix., p. 454).

APPENDIX XIV.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

I. Report of Executive Committee.

THE Executive Committee of the Twentieth Century Fund presents its second report to the Conference with devout thankfulness to the Head of the Church.

It rejoices in the steady devotion with which the Fund has been supported during an eventful and exciting year. In many Circuits hard work has been done by Ministers, Treasurers, Secretaries, Committees, and Collectors. Large and representative Young People's Meetings have been held in several great centres, more than 4,000,000 of the publications of the Fund have been circulated throughout the Connexion, the Historic Roll has been signed by thousands to whom cards commemorative of their signature have been given, and, notwithstanding the noble response of our people to the War and Famine Funds, over £300,000 has been paid in to the Central Office.

Circuit Promises.

At the last Conference collective Circuit promises amounting to 662,638 guineas were reported, and 150 Circuits intimated their intention to increase their promises. At the recent Synods promises amounting to 680,655 guineas were reported, 142 Circuits having definitely increased their promises by sums the total of which is 18,017 guineas.

During the year the Circuits have been engaged in making good their promises. The results of these efforts constitute the most important difference between the position of the Fund to-day and its position a year ago. Then the Circuits had undertaken to raise 662,638 guineas; now there are good reasons for believing that half a million of subscribers and collectors have made themselves personally responsible for four-fifths of 680,655 guineas. It can no longer be said that the promises are merely estimates of the intentions of the Circuits. The Connexion may now confidently rely upon their fulfilment.

The special attention of the Conference is called to the following significant facts:

1. A complete and efficient canvass of members, adherents, and friends, as directed by the Conference, has not yet been made in many Circuits. This will appear from a glance at the average per member of Circuit contributions.

2. There is grave reason to fear that some Circuits have come to regard the minimum promises recorded last year as maximum promises, and the fulfilment of the minimum promises as the limit of their effort on behalf of the Fund.

3. In some cases where, by means of large subscriptions contributed by very few persons, the fulfilment of the minimum Circuit promise has been easily secured, no properly organised attempt has been made to obtain additional subscriptions from Methodists generally.

4. The average contribution promised by some of our large and influential Circuits is much below the lowest average contribution on the basis of which the Million can be raised.

The District Synods.

On account of the representative character of the Annual Synods, the meetings of this year were anticipated with deep interest by the Executive Committee. It was felt that much depended upon the thoroughness with which the Synods dealt with the working of the Fund in the Circuits, and the spirit in which they approached the question of a united effort to secure the balance needed to complete the Million. A brief statement of the present position of the Fund was forwarded to every Minister, Circuit Officer, and Circuit Representative in the early part of May, and a tabular statement of promises and payments by the Circuits in each District was furnished for use in the Synods.

The Executive Committee regards the reports of the proceeding of the Synods as, on the whole, satisfactory. In addition to the renewed interest in the Fund created by the conversations held, resolutions were adopted of special significance at the present juncture.

1. The necessity for a thorough canvass in every Circuit was generally insisted upon as the likeliest method of raising the balance needed, and, by their resolutions, the Synods have sustained the Executive Committee in its repeated appeals to the same effect. There are multitudes connected with Methodism by membership, family ties, association or friendship, who have had no opportunity of contributing to the Fund—to whom no appeal has been made. The Conference is requested to repeat and emphasise its directions on this matter.

2. In some Districts the Synods have, on the suggestion of the Executive Committee, adopted resolutions recognising their obligation to provide a fair share of the balance still needed to complete the Fund.

3. Relying upon the loyal support of the Circuits, four Synods have pledged themselves to use every means to obtain the following amounts:

Liverpool	70,000	guineas
Bolton	50,000	,,
Leeds (47*s.* 6*d.* per member)...	49,081	,,
Hull	32,000	,,

4. The following Synods, without forming any estimate of the amount they will eventually contribute, have resolved to increase the District promises to the sums stated below:

Oxford	12,000	guineas
Devonport and Plymouth ...	13,000	„
York	17,598	„

The Executive Committee does not regard these amounts as the limit of the contributions of these Districts. It believes that in view of the final effort to complete the Fund, further promises will be forthcoming.

5. One Synod—the Isle of Man—met under peculiarly trying circumstances. Many of our people are suffering through serious commercial depression; the Synod therefore wisely deferred the consideration of the Fund until September.

Assuming that the resolutions of the above-named Synods will be honoured by the Circuits, not less than 52,658 guineas may be added to the 680,655 guineas, the amount of the Circuit promises reported to the Synods, bringing the total of the Circuit and District promises up to 733,313 guineas. If other strong Districts of the Connexion should in September follow the example set by Birmingham and North Wales last year, and this year by Liverpool, Bolton, Leeds, and Hull, and undertake a similar proportionate share of the Million, 100,000 guineas more will be added to the amount already promised.

From the first it has not been expected that certain Districts would be able to contribute the amounts which would be due from them on any hard-and-fast pro ratâ calculation. Special provision will therefore be necessary to meet the deficiency of such Districts.

The Completion of the Fund.

From the schedules of Circuit and District Returns, it appears that a sum of 266,687 guineas is required to complete the Fund. To secure this sum before the close of the year is the task which the Connexion has now to face.

The Executive Committee is convinced that the generous contributions promised or actually paid have not exhausted the resources of Methodism. Gifts, large and small, many the result of sacrifice, prove that our people, rich and poor, are in full sympathy with the objects of the Fund, and in contributing to it they realise that in the truest sense they are presenting their offerings to Him who has the right to our all.

The century is hastening to its close, but for the completion of the Fund there is ample time provided that advantage be taken of our Connexional Organisation by District and Circuit Officers and District and Circuit Committees, and by our Ministers, to bring the claims of the Fund to the minds and hearts of the Methodist people. Strenuous and sustained work to the end of the year will be necessary to accomplish these results.

Methodism cannot allow the Fund to fall short of the Million guineas. Nearly every Circuit in the Connexion has entered upon schemes for the extension of the evangelistic or educational work of our Church in reliance upon substantial assistance from the Fund, and all who take a large view of the future of our Church will recognise in these schemes the call of God to generous and even self-sacrificing support.

The resolutions which are submitted to the Conference by the Executive Committee are intended to unite Circuits, Districts, and the Connexion in one great effort to bring the Fund to a triumphant conclusion within the remaining months of the year.

II. The General Committee.

1. The Members of the Executive Committee of the Fund.

2. The Chairmen and Financial Secretaries of Districts, and Officers of District Twentieth Century Fund Committees.

3. Two Ministers and two Laymen to be elected by the September Synods.

4. Such of the following Ministers and Laymen as are not included in the above-named ex officio Members of the Committee:

REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE WEST INDIAN CONFERENCES.

(Minutes of Conference, 1899, p. 255.)

I. The Conference resolves to constitute two West Indian Annual Conferences: the first, which shall be called the West Indian Western Conference, to include what are designated in the Minutes of the Conference for 1883 the Jamaica District and the Hayti District; and the second, which shall be called the West Indian Eastern Conference, to include what are designated in the Minutes of Conference for 1883 the Antigua District and the St. Vincent and British Guiana District; which Conferences, in accordance with the plan hereinafter stated, and subject to the distinctions and limitations therein specified, shall have jurisdiction over all the Wesleyan Methodist Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches, and Missions in the West Indian Districts above mentioned; such Conferences to meet annually, and to be affiliated to "The Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists."

N.B.—1. Where the phrase "Yearly Conference" occurs in the subsequent resolutions, it is used instead of "The Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists," as constituted and defined by Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll.

2. The Districts, Circuits, and Societies included in the two Conferences as above described constitute collectively that which is hereinafter called the West Indian Connexion.

II. The Conference accordingly, under and by virtue of the Methodist Conference Act, 1876 (39 and 40 Vict., c. 72; see Minutes of the Conference, vol. xx., pp. 248-255), resolves, subject to the power of revocation and amendment contained in Section 4 of the said Act, to delegate to and confer upon the said West Indian Annual Conferences, when consisting of Ministers only, the powers, privileges, and advantages vested in the Yearly Conference under and by virtue of the 8th, 9th, and 11th clauses of the late Rev. John Wesley's Deed Poll, dated the 28th day of February, 1784, so far as such powers, privileges, and advantages are exercisable or available within the limits of the West Indian Connexion, and as such powers, privileges, and advantages are declared to belong to the Annual Conferences severally, according to the arrangements hereinafter made and set forth.

N.B.—The word "Ministers" throughout these resolutions designates only Preachers who are admitted into full connexion either with the "Yearly Conference," or with either of the West Indian Conferences.

III. The West Indian Conferences, as thus constituted, shall always faithfully keep and uphold the doctrines of Wesleyan Methodism as contained in Mr. Wesley's first four volumes of Sermons, and in his "Notes on the New Testament," and shall also observe and maintain the general rules and usages of Wesleyan Methodism.

IV. The Conference resolves that the acts done by virtue of the delegation thus conveyed shall not require any confirmation or approval by the "Yearly Conference," and shall not be entered on the Journals or Minutes thereof.

V. No disciplinary action of the West Indian Conferences, in relation to European Ministers, West Indian Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Assistant Missionaries, or Members of Society in the West Indian Connexion, shall require confirmation or approval by the "Yearly Conference," nor shall such disciplinary action be entered on the Journals thereof.

VI. The Conference empowers the West Indian Annual Conferences, when consisting of Ministers only, and also when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives, to consider and deal with the subjects hereinafter specified as being within the province of those Conferences respectively; but with the provision that, as long as the West Indian Conferences continue to be affiliated to the "Yearly Conference," any new legislation by these Conferences must be submitted through the Missionary Committee to the "Yearly Conference" for approval at its first meeting after such legislation is proposed by the West Indian Conferences, and shall come into operation only when such approval has been officially notified to the Presidents of the West Indian Conferences for the time being.

N.B.—A copy of any resolution of the "Yearly Conference" relating to such new legislation, signed by the President and Secretary for the time being, shall be a sufficient official notification.

VII. The Conference resolves that all Ministers who are in connexion with the West Indian Conferences, or who may hereafter be admitted into connexion with those Conferences, and all persons now or hereafter upon trial for such admission, shall be eligible for appointment to the use and enjoyment of any churches, chapels, dwelling-houses, school-houses, and premises, situate within the limits of the West Indian Connexion, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such persons had been admitted into connexion with the "Yearly Conference."

VIII. The Conference resolves that each West Indian Conference, so long as it continues to be affiliated to the "Yearly Conference," shall have the right, in its Ministerial Session, to nominate a Minister to be the President of the next Conference, but the appointment to that office shall be with the "Yearly Conference."

IX. The powers and duties of the President of each West Indian Conference, in relation to the Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches, and Missions comprehended in the area of the Conference, shall be the same as those belonging to the President of the "Yearly Conference" in relation to the Ministers, Preachers on Trial, and Societies in Great Britain.

X. In the event of the death of the President of either Conference, or of his being incapacitated by prolonged illness, or otherwise, for the discharge of his duties, the Ex-President shall succeed to his powers and duties; provided that if he be called to fulfil the duties of the office in consequence of the illness of the President, the said President shall upon his recovery from illness resume those duties.

XI. The time and place of the Meeting of each of the West Indian Annual Conferences shall be fixed by the previous Conference; provided that, if, near to the appointed time, any calamity, such as hurricane, fire, or epidemic disease, should make the selected place unsuitable for the holding of the Conference therein, it shall be lawful for the President, in consultation with the Superintendents of the Circuits affected by the arrangement, to select some other suitable place, and, if necessary, some other suitable time for the session of the Conference; and, in such case, full and timely information shall be sent by the President to all members of the Conference of the change which has been made.

XII. Each West Indian Conference shall have the sole power of legislation, subject to the approval of the "Yearly Conference," in all matters belonging to the general work of Methodism within the area of such Conference, and shall exercise full oversight and control therein, and shall have the power of review and final control over all Connexional Funds.

XIII. 1. Each Annual Conference, when considering the subjects hereafter specified as being within the exclusive province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, shall consist of—

(i) The President of the Conference appointed by the "Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists."

(ii) The Chairman of each of the Districts within the limits of the Conference.

(iii) One in every two Ministers in full connexion within the area of the Conference, not counting the Chairman, to be elected by ballot at the next preceding District Synod when Ministers only are present; the number to be elected by each District to be determined by the preceding Conference.

N.B.—The Western Conference shall have the right, in the allocation of Ministerial Representatives, to allocate one Minister to the South and Central American Mission.

No Minister shall be eligible for election to the Conference who has not travelled six years.

Ministers of six years' standing and upwards, attending the Conference in Pastoral Session, shall have a voice and a vote in all matters.

2. Each Annual Conference, when considering the subjects hereafter specified as being within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Lay Representatives, shall consist of—

(i) All the Ministerial Members of the Conference, as already described.

(ii) Two Lay General Treasurers of Connexional Funds, to be selected by the preceding Conference.

(iii) A number of Laymen in addition sufficient to make the Ministerial and pastoral supervision of the Districts and Circuits within the limits of the Annual Conference.

XV. The following subjects shall be within the province of each Annual Conference when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives:

1. The Committees of Privileges and Exigency, and Reports of all official communications with Government.
2. The organisation and management of Foreign Missions.
3. Education, general and special, including Day and Sunday Schools and Industrial Institutions.
4. Chapel Affairs, and Trust Property generally.
5. The Children's Fund.
6. The Contingent Fund.
7. The Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.
8. The Conference Expenses Fund.
9. Temperance.
10. Religious Observance of the Lord's Day.
11. Home Missionary, District Sustentation, and other Funds.
12. Proposed alterations or divisions of Circuits or Districts against which there is any appeal.

N.B.—The Conference, when consisting of Ministers only, shall have power to consider and decide all questions as to alterations and divisions of Circuits or Districts, concerning which the Quarterly Meetings and District Synods shall be agreed, and against which there is no appeal; and also any proposals for the employment of additional Ministers, when the respective District Synods have been satisfied that provision for the support of such Ministers will be made, and have sanctioned the proposals.

13. Time and place of holding the next Conference.
14. All financial and general subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution (XV.), or affecting the financial or general affairs of the West Indian Connexion.

XVI. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Synods, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference, either when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present,

20. Conversation on the State of the Work of God.
21. Reading and adoption of the Pastoral Address.
22. Examination of Probationers for Ordination.
23. Consideration of Stations.
24. Election of Chairmen of Districts.
25. Confirmation of Stations.
26. Ordination Service.
27. Report of Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.
28. Pastoral Report on Schools.
29. General Report on the Examination of Preachers on Trial, and Examination arrangements.
30. Arrangements for the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry.
31. Report of any Special Committee appointed by the preceding Conference.
32. Consideration of motions of which due notice has been given.
33. Nomination of a Minister for the office of President at the next Conference.
34. Miscellaneous business.
35. Reading and Confirmation of the Conference Journal.

II. The Conference when it consists of Ministers and Lay Representatives.

1. Calling the Roll.
2. Address by the President.
3. Appointment of hours of Session.
4. Reception of Memorials, Suggestions from District Synods, and other similar documents.
5. Notices of Motion.
6. The division or alteration of Circuits or Districts against which there is any appeal.
7. District Sustentation Fund.
8. Chapel Affairs.
9. Conversation on the State of the Work of God.
10. Education, general and special, including Connexional Schools and Training Institutions, and Day and Sunday Schools.
11. Children's Fund.
12. Auxiliary Fund.
13. Temperance.

14. Religious Observance of the Lord's Day.
15. Consideration of the Report on Memorials and Suggestions.
16. Foreign Missions.
17. Time and place of holding the next Conference.
18. Miscellaneous business.
19. Reading and confirmation of the Conference Journal.

XVIII. The foregoing Constitution and Plan shall be open to revision and amendment, but subject to the provisions of Article VI.

XIX. RELATION OF MINISTERS IN THE WEST INDIES TO THE YEARLY CONFERENCE AND TO THE WEST INDIAN CONFERENCES.—European Ministers now in the West Indies, and any who may hereafter be sent out by the Committee, having, according to present arrangements, a claim to return to England, shall have the option of so doing, subject, as to the time of their return, to the recommendation of the Annual Conference to which they belong and to arrangements with the Committee of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society. If the return of any such Minister should become unexpectedly and urgently necessary between the sessions of the Annual Conference, the President shall correspond with the Committee of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society and make arrangements accordingly. The expense of the return of such Ministers to England, as thus sanctioned, shall be borne by the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society.

XX. Whereas all Ministers in the West Indies, whose names were on the Minutes of the Yearly Conference in 1884, have a claim upon the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society for certain allowances to be paid to them when they shall become Supernumeraries, and at their death to be paid to their widows, all such claims shall remain in force and unaltered. But no Minister in the West Indian Connexion, entering the Ministry after 1884, shall have any claim for such allowances upon the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society.

NORRIS'S HORSE SKIN BOOTS

ARE { Soft and Pliable,—COMFORTABLE!
Tough in Wear,—DURABLE!
Well Made and STYLISH!

Rev. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, Editor of The Methodist Times, writes:—"The Boots are beautifully made, and, as far as I can judge from a brief experience, equally comfortable."

Mr. F. A. ATKINS, Editor of The Young Man:—"I am perfectly satisfied with the Horse Skin Boots with which you supplied me. I have now had four pairs, and certainly I want nothing better; they fit well, they last well, and they look well."

OUR IMPROVED PATTERN SHOE,

FOR WALKING OR CYCLING.

The Best Shoe for the double purpose.

Registered Design, No. 337866.

"CYCLING" says:—"It combines the best forms of fastening, for while doing away with hooks and lacing, it does not leave part of the foot exposed to dust or wet, as the front is completely covered, the fastening being a neat buckle at the side. Excellently made and finished."

GLORIOUS GOSPEL TRIUMPHS, AS SEEN IN MY LIFE AND WORK IN FIJI AND AUSTRALASIA. By JOHN WATSFORD. With Portrait. Second Thousand. Large crown 8vo, art linen, gilt top, 3*s.* 6*d.*

Uniform with "David Hill, Missionary and Saint."

"It is indeed a wonderful story of providential call and preparation, and driving forth. One of those stories which makes us stand still that we may watch with awe the good hand of our God moulding the outline of His Church in lands where great nations are being born."—The Methodist Recorder.

"It should not be in the hands only, but in the heart of every Christian worker. The whole book is an inspiration."—The Wesleyan Methodist Magazine.

"It is a splendid record, and should become very popular among all the people called Methodists. We can promise all our readers a very great treat in the perusal of this entertaining volume."—Methodist New Connexion Magazine.

THE CHURCH OF THE WEST IN THE MIDDLE AGES. From Gregory the Great to the Death of Clement the Fifth (1314). By H. B. WORKMAN, M.A. Two Vols. Small crown 8vo, 2*s.* 6*d.* each.

"A summary at once useful and interesting, . . . in its general treatment most successful. Mr. Workman is throughout well informed and fair minded."—Athenæum.

"A serviceable elementary manual, and should prove welcome to teachers."—Scotsman.

STUDIES IN EASTERN RELIGIONS. By Professor A. S. GEDEN. Small crown 8vo, 3*s.* 6*d.*

"We do not know of any volume of similar size which contains so good an account of these varieties of religious faith and the philosophy bound up with them, the whole brought to the extreme limits of research, and conveyed in an admirable tone, full of sympathy and yet critical and discriminating. . . . We bespeak the attention of all students of religious life and thought to this unpretending but able and well-arranged work."—The Spectator.

"A very practical little book, tersely and brightly written."—The Methodist Times.

The Federation SACRIFICES EVERYTHING TO THE CAUSE OF EVANGELICAL PROTESTANTISM, AND DOES NOT RECOGNISE SECT OR PARTY; BUT REGARDS ALL EVANGELICAL PROTESTANTS AS CHRISTIAN BRETHREN.

Free Churchmen throughout the land are rallying to its support.

Send for papers explaining the important work of the Federation, and how it is organising opposition against the proposal to endow an Irish Roman Catholic University with public money. Also for the signatures of voters to its Electoral Rolls, of which 140,000 are being worked.

£5,000 is required as a guarantee for the next year's expenses. Two Friends will give £100 each if 48 others will do likewise. Will you help?
